

therefore anxious to communicate at once with their representatives at home, and instruct them to import as many "slaughtered" goods as possible before the tariff was raised.

* * * * *

As we go to press, we learn that Government has disappointed this natural and just expectation, and there is, consequently, a general feeling of indignation.

ears before
n ; and, in a by which lication of

professed to bracing the
wrote glibly
nd similar
of business

e subjects,
have them
Canadian
e founder
. Verdant, ifications.
proved, to
ach better
indly con-
mercial

Tariff, or emory) :

ive economic
, the same as h a way as to
idealized, and
h we cannot
ey really do ;

showed so
y cries of

th all its ried by a

ly haste,
t appears
roaching
hey were