

except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems the speaker out of order.

X.—No person shall speak more than once on the same question, nor longer than fifteen minutes, without leave of the Conference, except the mover, who shall have the right of a general reply.

XI.—When any motion or resolution has been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member, who voted with the majority, to move a reconsideration—Provided he shall have given notice of such motion at a previous session; but a motion to re-consider a non-debateable motion shall be decided without debate.

XII.—No member shall leave the Conference before its close, without leave first obtained.

XIII.—No member shall be allowed to vote upon any question who is not within the bar when such question is put by the President, except by leave of the Conference.

XIV.—Every member who is within the bar at the time the question is put, shall give his vote, unless the Conference shall, for special reasons, excuse him.

XV.—It shall be in order for any member to call for the yeas and nays on any question before the Conference, and should the call be sustained by twenty-five members, the vote thereon shall be taken.

XVI.—It shall be in order to move that the question be taken without further debate, on any measure pending before the Conference, and if such motion be sustained by a vote of two-thirds, the question shall be so taken.

XVII.—A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, and shall be decided without debate.

XVIII.—No Rule or Order of proceeding adopted by the Conference, shall be suspended unless by a two-thirds vote.
