

CONTENTS OF VOL. II.

HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH METHODIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

CHAPTER I.

MISSIONARY CHARACTER OF METHODISM, &c.

METHODISM introduced into the American Colonies—Its rapid increase—Notice of Dr. Coke—Receipts and expenditures—Formation of the General Wesleyan Missionary Society—Divisions of the missions,.....1, 2

CHAPTER II.

MISSIONS IN THE WEST INDIES.

- ANTIGUA.—Mission commenced by Dr. Coke and others—Labors of Nathaniel Gilbert and John Baxter—Character of the converts—Mr. M'Donald's voyage to Antigua—Death of Mr. Baxter—The island placed under martial law—Benefit of sabbath schools—An instance of God's care for his people—Two chapels are built—A mysterious and heart-rending visitation of Providence—Effects of this visitation—Christian experience of a colored man—Instruction of the children,.....2—11
- ST. VINCENT'S.—Origin of the mission—Labors of Mr. Clarke—Dr. Coke's visit to the Charaibees—Remarkable escape—Appointment of Mr. Baxter—He leaves the Charaibees—An oppressive law—Imprisonment of Mr. Lumb—Mr. Lumb leaves the island—The mission renewed—New difficulties—Disturbances—Anecdote of Mr. Pattison—Situation of the negroes—A violent storm and remarkable providence—An extraordinary instance of unexampled affliction and patience—Instruction of the negro children—Prosperous state of the mission—It is divided into Kingstown and Biabou cireuits—A distressing hurricane,.....11—20
- ST. CHRISTOPHER'S.—Commencement of the mission—Labors of Mr. Hammett—Prosperity of the mission—Notice of a hurricane—Death of a scholar—Reception of Mr. Janion—Formation of a branch missionary society—The opening of Wesley chapel—A remarkable incident—Extracts from Mr. Wood's journal—Latest account of the mission,.....20—24
- BARBADOES.—The mission commences favorably—A spirit of persecution discovered—Gloomy prospects—Disturbances at the chapel by the mob—The chapel is destroyed—Mr. Shrewsbury leaves the island—Causes of the disturbances—Mr. Shrewsbury's reception at St. Vincent's—Disgraceful outrages—Proceedings of the house of commons—The mission recommenced—State of the mission—Schools—The opening of a new chapel at Bridge Town—Account of a dreadful hurricane,.....24—36
- DOMINICA.—Commencement of the mission—Labors and death of Mr. M'Cornock—Labors and banishment of Mr. Cook—The mission renewed—Invasion by a French fleet—Labors and death of Mr. Hawkshaw—Notice of a hurricane—Death of Mr. Boothby—A new chapel at Roseau—Superstition of the Roman Catholics—Concluding account of the mission,.....37—41
- TORTOLA, AND THE OTHER VIRGIN ISLANDS.—Origin of the mission—Anecdote of Mr. Turner—Abuse of Mr. Brennell—Favorable effects of the gospel—A destructive hurricane—Interesting occurrences—Pleasing state of the mission,.....41—46
- JAMAICA.—Persecution rages—Notice of a fire—A law enacted against instructing the people of color—Instances of persecution—Other difficulties—A more pleasing state of affairs—Heathen practices—Death of Messrs. Johnstone and Underhill—Account of Mr. Ratcliffe's visit to the Maroons at Accompong—Description of Mr. Orton's visit to the same place—Persecution at St. Ann's Bay—Imprisonment of Mr. Grimsdall—Account of the imprisonment of Messrs. Whitehouse and Orton—Death of Mr. Grimsdall—Mr. Orton tried and acquitted on a charge of perjury—Prosperous state of the mission,.....46—57
- BERMUDA.—Commencement of the mission—The arrest, trial and imprisonment of Mr. Stephenson—Labors of Mr. Marsden—Happy effects of reading the Bible—Speeches of J. C. Esten—History of Edward Frazer—Concluding notice,.....57—62