

pound of Pork, or three-fourths of a pound of Beef, one pound of Bread, and one pound of Potatoes, and the same change of diet shall be observed as is directed for hard labour.

33. The Gaoler shall be allowed the sum of one hundred and thirty Pounds per annum as his salary; and, in addition to the duties that he has hitherto performed, he shall superintend the prisoners at hard labour, as well as all the other duties incidental to his office; and Keeper of the Court House and Gaol.

34. As cleanliness is essential to promote the health of the prisoners under close confinement, the privies in the day rooms must be cleansed every day, so that the gaol may be always kept in a healthy state.

35. All orders given by the Surgeon in attendance to be strictly observed, without the necessity of reference to the Sheriff, respecting the treatment of prisoners in the hospital.

36. That such prisoners as shall be under sentence, and to hard labour, be divested of their clothing, to be substituted with clothing furnished by the Gaoler, under the direction of the Sheriff, at the District expense, until the expiration of their respective sentence, when they will resume their former clothing, on discharge from gaol.

37. That the annual salary of twenty-five Pounds be continued to the Physician in attendance on the gaol.

By order of the Court,

JOHN B. ASKIN,
C. Peace.
