THE PROGRAMME

The primary idea of this Programme is, of course, to enlighten the audience as to the personnel of the artists taking part in the performances, incidentally to serve as a guide to the plot of the piece, and generally to give such information as will tend to the enjoyment of the auditor.

Reading matter of a miscellaneous nature, is, however, liberally supplied, that may be perused with interest and advantage. Quips and Quirks give zest to the solid matter, as sauces do to meats, but there is a fund of information in the advertisements that may be seriously considered with profit.

The publishers are prepared to attend to all business in the way of general and special advertising.

Respectfully,

BELTON & ROOTE,
Advertising Agents.

HARD.

Bertrand—I wonder how I can make an impression on that Boston girl's heart?

Claude—From my experience I advise you to use a stone crusher.

UNIFORMITY.

Robinson—Since Jigly got a position in the bank he only wears one kind of clothes.

Jones—What kind?

Robinson—Checks.

DISPENSING
CHEMIST . . .

184 Dundas Street.

A Chicago lad makes a living by securing seats for women in crowded cars. He makes his stand at a thoroughfare that is always thronged and arranges with some well-to-do woman, with her arms full of bundles, or perhaps a baby, to run around and jump on a car before it reaches the corner. When it gets to that point he has a seat reserved for her.

It is foolish to make professions that you do not live up to.
