

FRED C. ROWNTREE

Son of David Rowntree, Esq., J.P., of Weston

Who for over forty years carried on a butcher and grocery business in that town, which his son still carries on. Fred is one of the most widely known and most popular boys in the country, both as a cattleman and athlete. He is perhaps the largest single-handed dealer of dairy cattle in Canada. He bought and sold about 5000 cows this year, and didn't have an order for one-third of them when they were purchased. He has shipped cattle from Newfoundland to Winnipeg, as well as supplying a large part of the County of York with cows. Mr. Rowntree is president and secretary of the Conservative Association of West York, and an ex-councillor of Weston, being the youngest member that ever sat in that council. He was elected by the largest vote ever polled in that municipality. — an indication of the high esteem in which he is held in his native town. He is a stellar lacrosse player for the Tecumseh team of Toronto, and the speediest man in the N.L.U. being able to run 100 yards in 10-2 seconds. His honorable dealings have given him the confidence of all who know him.

DOMINION LIVE STOCK CENTRE

In the live stock show which is to be held at the Union Stock Yards to-day and to-morrow, the people of Toronto and the Province of Ontario will witness one of the best exhibitions of this kind which have ever been attempted in the Dominion.

This is the second fat stock show under the auspices of the Union Stock Yards Company. The entries are far in excess of those of last year, and the quality of stock is also higher. The directors of the Union Stock Yards are playing a big part in maintaining Toronto's position as the leading live stock centre in Canada. Toronto, being the centre of one of the finest agricultural districts in the world, necessarily lends itself to the concentration of the live stock industry, which is valuable both to the province and to the city, and it should not be many years before Toronto has reached a position in the live stock trade equal to that of Chicago.

The accommodation provided at the Union Stock Yards is up to date. It is not as large as some of the big live stock markets in the United States, but in equipment, its superiority cannot be contested by any other yards on the continent, and probably it compares favorably with any smaller industrial enterprise in the world. The location of the yards is advantageous from several standpoints. The yards are now served by the two leading Canadian railroads, and it will not be long before the new transcontinental C. N. R. will be able to put live stock directly into the Union Stock Yards.

During the past year large additions have been made to the pens, owing to the constantly increasing receipts.

It will be seen by the list of entries given on another page, that exhibits are being made by nearly all the leading live stock exhibitors in the Province of Ontario.

This exhibition should not only appeal to the farmers and the live stock men, but should be attended and appreciated by the citizens of Toronto as a means of seeing what is being done at the Union Stock Yards in endeavoring to build up a branch of industry which will be of material advantage to the city in future years.

The receipts at the Union Stock Yards for to-day are 232 cars, and represent the largest run at any market for one day in Canada. The receipts include 3490 cattle, 2078 hogs, 3166 sheep, 63 calves and 27 horses. In connection with the show there is a high-class poultry exhibit. The exhibitors are the employees of stock yards, railroads, packing houses or commission merchants, and the display is an excellent one when these restrictions are considered.

The growth of the business at the Union Stock Yards is well shown by the following statistics:

—Live Stock Receipts at Union Stock Yards for Eleven Months of 1910 and 1911—
	Cars.	Cattle.	Calves.	Hogs.	Sheep.
1910	8,733	154,607	6,367	80,154	48,444
1911	10,126	145,001	5,435	178,832	81,299

THE MAN ON THE STREET

Archdeacon Cody's Sermon on Topic Everyday Person Can Take to Heart.

"The man on the street" was the topic for Archdeacon Cody's Sunday morning sermon at St. Paul's Church. The text was found in Nehemiah vi: 4, when his enemies indicted an open letter, "Wherein was written: 'It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews (think to rebel)'. 'Oh, God, strengthen thou my hands,' and had overcome their machinations."

The man on the street was a sort of general reference, whose opinion was heard on art, politics, religion—all things. He was most formidable; incisive, yet all the more potent, voicing the distilled essence of public opinion, the distilled essence of Gashmu and could be heard to-day criticizing the church and the members thereof, in the spirit of the Pharisee. "Even in the churches there is too much morbid introspection," said Dr. Cody. The modern Gashmu even posed as an authority in theology, his knowledge thereof gleaned from novels, newspapers and magazine articles. Criticism was better than indifference, but the best criticism was that prompted by knowledge and sympathy. How far was the church to-day striving to meet the needs of the great mass? It should learn to speak the eternal truth in the language that men, women and children can understand. There should be love and charity in its message. The Christian church was not declining; it had scarcely begun. The man on the street should also become a man of God, taking the hand of the Man of Nazareth to be made new again. The church was to-day doing more than anything else to keep the world clear and sweet to live in.

The modern Gashmu was also to be found in the social circle as the talker, the scandal-monger. Every healthy person was interested in other human beings, but what was to be said of others should first pass the test of the three queries: Is it true? Is it necessary? Is it kind?

Then, there was the Gashmu of public opinion, which, while it was oftentimes beneficent in making certain people live up to a certain standard often kept others from rising above that same standard. Public opinion was at its worst when it was dominant, for then the individual took refuge in it, instead of assuming his own responsibility; at such a time, it was noisier, but not the wisest. Christ's cross had set up a new measure of public opinion for then nearly every person had clamored against the One.

ADVANCE IN WARRANTS.

A big advance in South African land warrants has occurred during the past few days, following the announcement that the date limit would be extended for a longer period. The time of expiry formerly was December 1, but another year has been added, so that now they held good until December 1, 1912.

Sales of warrants were made last week as high as $1000, an advance of over $200 from previous prices. On November 14, land warrants were 800 to 825 bid, with no sales. And on Nov. 30 a sale was made at $770. On Oct. 9 they sold at $690.

POULTRY WORTH $300,000

12,000 Entries and $25,000 in Prizes at Large London Show

LONDON, Dec. 9.—Quaint and beautiful fantasies in fur and feathers filled the Crystal Palace from end to end the opening day of the great International Show of poultry, pigeons and rabbits. There were 12,000 entries, an army of judges, $25,000 in prizes to be awarded, and visitors present from all parts of Europe. The luxuriously ornamented Belgian section, where the choice little Belgian bantams were on show for the first time in this country, was a centre of much curiosity.

Most admired of these charming bantams were the mellefleur variety of the barbu d'Uccle, a race de luxe in Belgium. Elegant in form, and richly diversified in markings, their colors consisted of dark fawn in ground with a spangle of black, bordered with a white crescent above it, at the end of each feather. Another variety of the barbu d'Uccle had a Nankin ground color with each feather spangled at its end with light, delicate blue.

TEMPERANCE LEAGUE

Southern Minister Speaks on Drink Evil.

At the regular Sunday afternoon service of the Canadian Temperance League in Massey Hall, Rev. Geo. E. Stewart, D.D., addressed the large audience present, on ways and means of stopping the liquor traffic.

The chairman, J. S. Robertson, introduced the Rev. Mr. Stewart. He said that Mr. Stewart was a man who was with Sam Jones for sixteen years and had had a great deal of experience in temperance work.

Mr. Stewart is a typical southerner, frank and witty. In the course of his remarks he said that the temperance cause would never amount to anything until everybody got behind it and boosted. The saloon was a great evil. There was nothing about it that was good or uplifting.

He thought that the only way for the people to crush the liquor traffic was not only to stop the sale of liquor, but to put the sources of supply out of business. Mr. Stewart interspersed his talk with a great many humorous anecdotes and altogether made quite an impression on his audience.

Western W. C. T. U. will meet on Tuesday at 3 p.m. in West Association Hall, corner of Queen and Dovercourt. Mrs. Fletcher, district corresponding secretary will give a report on the Dominion convention.

C. MAYBEE.

A. W. MAYBEE.

Charles and A. W. Maybee are two of the sons of the late Henry Maybee, who was a drover in Eastern Ontario all his life. Being born into the cattle trade it comes as second nature to the Maybee Bros. and their judgment of any section of the business consequently stands high among others in the trade.

ROWELL'S LAST APPEAL TO N. OXFORD ELECTORS

Will Hear Returns in Woodstock in Resigned Spirit—Sure of His Own Election.

WOODSTOCK, Dec. 10.—(Special).—N. W. Rowell, K.C., the Liberal candidate in North Oxford, and leader of the Ontario opposition, is confident of being returned as the representative of this old Liberal riding, and judging from his remarks made at the last Liberal rally of the campaign, held here last night, he has no doubt but that he will be elected. A large number of the followers of Mr. Rowell were in attendance at the rally, and the Liberal club rooms in which the meeting was held were crowded to the doors.

The leader's remarks were chiefly an appeal to the electors to give him a good old time Liberal majority. It was announced that Mr. Rowell would spend Monday in Woodstock, and would receive the returns from all over the province in this city. "I will be here to rejoice with those who rejoice and not to weep with those who weep," was the way he summed up the whole situation.

Spoke for Mayberry. After addressing the meeting in Woodstock, Mr. Rowell was hustled over to Ingersoll, where he addressed a meeting in the interests of Col. T. R. Mayberry, the candidate in South Oxford. Mr. Rowell was given an excellent hearing.

The speaker outlined the various planks in the Liberal platform, and appealed to those present to give him a strong opposition so that the power of Sir James Whitney might be curbed to some extent. The waste of the Whitney administration was criticized severely by the Liberal leader, who claimed that the Conservative government had been negligent in many ways.

In regard to the outlook in the coming election, Mr. Rowell stated that from one end of the province to the other, the Liberals were up and fighting, and would no doubt give a good account of themselves on Dec. 14.

Festival Chorus Rehearsal. A full rehearsal of the Toronto Festival Chorus and Orchestra on Elijah will be held on Tuesday evening at the Toronto College of Music. Members are requested to take notice and be present.
