C. A. Crew's Amberite won the Stan-ley Produce Stakes at Woodbine Park yesterday, defeating Thos. Clyde's The Diamond Purse—$500 added, six fur-C. A. Crew's Amberite won the Stan-Airey by a small margin, the latter coming up to a neck finish from last place. Miss Edith and Winning Widow were the only two favorites to win. Cowl, Bill Andrews and Flower Girl being second and third choices. Elma, Airey, Bello and Apiaster were the beaten favorites and they all finished in the money. The day was ideal overhead with the track still sloppy and heavy from the recent rains. The attendance picked up considerably, there being a fair sprinkling of ladies in the members' enclosure.

Doo Street won a race, the first of the day, his Disguise four-year-old b.f. winning at every post. She started third choice without a dollar of her owner's money in the iron men. Elma, that the public made false favorite, was second all round till Bryndown came from behind and took the place. The best Teahan could do on Ocean Blue was fourth, all strung out.

Then Teahan landed his usual three races of the day right in a row. The two-year-old event was a cinch for Miss Edith, the contest in his being for the place. Flitterfoot chased the leader for five furlongs, but Burnt Candle, that was almost left, came like a wild horse and took the place by a head.

The youthful jockey took the Winning Widow for a long lead in the third where the big field furnished no opposition. Master Jim worked his way thru for the place and Silas Grump came along for the show. Pluvious was best of the also rans. The longshot field ran like the public backed them.

Next in the Stanley Produce Stakes that Airey was specially prepared for Teahan sent Amberite out again so far in front the early part of the long journey that he had only to sit still even if the Crew filly did tire badly on end, where the top weight was running over the winner. Airey had a lot of ground to make up and then took the putside course round the lower turn, Rustling did well to beat Marybird for the show.

Blackburne was the best hitter for the Reds.

Gregory, who started for Cincinnati, was touched up for 12 hits in three innings, and was relieved by Harter, a recruit filinger.

Only on one occasion did the Reds have a chance, and it was in the third that they got all their tallies. Maxwell loosened up a little, and they got to him for three runs by clean hitting.

Three singles brought the Leafs one in the first, and they came back with the same number in the second and third innings. The fourth proved to be a banner affair, and a swatfest counted up five tallies.

One in the sixth ended the day's scoring, making the total n'ne.

Dalton played centre-field and Fitz worked for Bradley.

The players were presented with gold medals, suitably engraved, during the game by Joe Thompson on behalf of the fans. President McCaffery and Joe Kelley were also remembered. The score:
