In the sixth the visitors had two charities, a fielder's choice, a stolen base and a three-bagger, while one fanned and another fouled out, yet not a man tallied. It was worked like this: Wormwood fanned, while Clement smashed a liner over first for three sacks, but was nipped at the plate on Bean's fielder's choice to Frick. Bean purloined the middle sack, while Curtis and Handford were passed up. Then Vandergrift fouled to Carrigan.

The visitors had everybody in hot water in the ninth. Hanford was safe on his infield hit, while Vandergrift popped one over the initial sack. Hanford going to third. Keister grounded to Flynn, who held Hanford at third. Woods was issued free transportation, and, with
