WEBB FELL TO HIS DEATH.

Shipper for Front-St. Grocery Firm Leaves Widow and Children.
Charles Webb, assistant shipper for James Lumbers, the wholesale grocer at 47 East Front-street, fell from the elevator shaft in his employer's premises at 11 o'clock yesterday morning and received injuries from which he died an hour later at the Emergency Hospital. Coroner J. M. Cotton opened an inquest last night, when the jury viewed the remains and adjourned to meet again next Monday evening.
When Webb met with the accident he was attending to his duties on the first flat of the building, the elevator being about three feet from the floor, with the door in place. In the basement, about 25 feet below, another workman was painting boxes. He heard a rattling of tin cans, a rush and a terrible thud. Looking around, he saw Webb lying on the floor unconscious. The police ambulance was sent for, and the injured man was taken to the hospital, where he died without regaining his senses. The base of the skull was fractured, and that directly caused his death. It is not known how he came to fall.
Webb lived at East Toronto with his wife and four children. He was 55 years of age and had been in the employ of Mr. Lumbers for a long time.
One of the greatest blessings to parents in raising their children is to give them a healthy and vigorous body. It is not only a blessing to the child, but it is a blessing to the world. It is a blessing to the nation. It is a blessing to the world.

No Two Prices

This real building sale of ours is a chance you can't afford to miss. Store open until 10 o'clock to-night.

Our goods are always marked originally at the rock-bottom, honest selling price. That's the reason why this building sale of ours is a good chance for you to get a real bargain. All our summer stock is being sold out at a big reduction.

Our business has increased so enormously in the last five years that we have found it necessary to materially enlarge our premises by the purchase of fifty feet of property on Temperance st., in the rear of our store. We will erect thereon a four-storey building of similar design and connecting with our present building.

This will make our factory the largest of its kind in Canada. The Alterations are now in progress, and to make room for the workmen necessitates the removal of our stock. Sooner than risk our summer hats being injured by dust, etc., we have decided to sell them out at a genuine reduction. Every Panama, Brazilian Straw, Manilla, Palm Leaf, Light Felt, Outing Hat or Plain Straw will be sacrificed. Remember, our goods are always marked at an honest price, so that this reduction is a genuine one every way. See our window displays and satisfy yourself.

Grey Felt Alpines Every one of these popular hats reduced in price with the exception of those made by Dunlap of New York.	Palm Leaf Hats Were 2.50 for 1.75	Genuine Panama Hats Were 8.50 for 5.00 Were 12.00 for 6.75 Were 20.00 for 10.00 Were 30.00 for 18.00

Last Day of Animal Circus.
Today is the last day of Norris & Rowe's Show in Toronto. They have shown to crowded tents at each performance all week, and will no doubt do so today, as they have made a pronounced hit with Toronto amusement-lovers. The show is one that seems to improve upon acquaintance, for each year the spectators come to the city to see a greater audience. Norris & Rowe deserve the success which they are meeting, as they are progressive showmen, and always bring a bigger and better show each time they come. The program this year includes so many new animals and novel acts that it can scarcely be recognized as the same show which has been here so many times before. The afternoon and evening performances to-day will conclude their stay in Toronto for this year, but it is safe to say they will remain in either week and have their big tents filled at each performance.

It Cost Mr. Gates Money.
From The New York Times.
"I am going to give up being good-natured," declared John W. Gates, mentioning his jovial face with a frown. "When Louisville & Nashville was going up under the pressure of my buying a speculator came to me and said: 'Say, Gates, I want $5,000. I've got a sure thing.'"
"All right," said I, giving him my cheque. Next day he paid the loan, remarking that he had put up the money in margin and had cleared nearly $2,000.
"What did you buy?" I asked.
"I & N," he answered with a grin.
"Hang me if he hadn't bought the stock with my money, held it against me and made me pay two points more for it, taking the $2,000 right out of my pocket."
Maddie Had to Lay Off.
"Lay off, Maddie!" shouted the strange person who interrupted the performance.
"I don't see where you cut in," observed the stage manager, "and anyway, the lines are 'Lay off, Maddie!'"
"Well," said the stranger, "it is 'Lay off' this time. You have some Boston union supers here to-night, and I see the walking delegate, and I am calling that actor down just at present until you adjust matters."—Baltimore American.
