SIR WILFRID ASKED TO HELP THE STARVING SITUATION AT 500 ASSUMES MENACING ASPECT

There Will Be Trouble on Monday Unless the Company Produces Money.

Sault Ste. Marie, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Every aspect of the situation is altering more to-night than at any time since the Lake Superior Consolidated collapsed last week. Destitute men to the number of 250 arrived from the camp of the defunct company along Algoma Central to-night. There was not one dollar in cash among them when the ten coaches unloaded them, and all had been without food since morning. Each had time checks on the company calling for from ten to thirty dollars. They had been told on boarding the train that there would be a representative of the company to meet them and provide food and clothing temporarily. There was no one to dispute the angry condition of the crowd as they huddled in the lee of the depot to escape the chilling blast that swept down from Lake Superior.

RECEIVER APPOINTED.
Philadelphia, Sept. 25.—Announcement was made here to-day that at the instance of Speyer & Co. of New York, the Canadian courts had appointed B. F. Frackenthal, jr., the president of the Thomas Iron Co. of Easton, Pa., receiver of the Canadian subsidiary plants of the Consolidated Lake Superior Company. This receiver will have charge of all the plants of the company, excepting the Trans-St. Mary's Traction Company and the Michigan Lake Superior Power Company. Mr. Frackenthal was in this city to-day, but would neither confirm nor deny his appointment as receiver. It is said the receiver was secured to arrange for the payment of wages of the employees of the plants.

ROSS APPROACHED FOY WITH JUDGSHIP OFFER THEN SEALED HIS LIPS

J. P. Whitney, K.C., Comes Within an Ace of Calling the Premier a Prevaricator.

Wages' Should Be Paid the Very First Thing, Says Leader of Opposition.

J. P. Whitney, who is stopping at the Queen's, discussed the collapse of the Soo industries with The World yesterday. He said: "I have heard with regret of the state of affairs at the Soo. The shutting down of such large industries as those of the company is of the greatest consequence, both to those industries specifically and to the country at large. Of course, I can say very little on the subject. I have observed that conferences have been held between the Premier and some of his colleagues and Mr. Clarke and other gentlemen representing the Soo enterprises. While all the knowledge I myself have on the situation has been derived from the newspapers during the last few days, I should be glad indeed to do anything or to cooperate in any way in my power to relieve the situation. I am impressed with and particularly anxious about the serious condition of the men heretofore employed by the Consolidated companies, whose wages are said to be largely in arrears. Anything that can be done with respect to the payment of their wages should be done, and that without delay. This matter should be dealt with first and settled first of all."

HE DID IT WITH HIS LITTLE CONGRESS.

CONDENMED LABOR COMMISSIONERS

Secret Sessions Held at Brockville—Montreal Next Place of Meeting.

Brockville, Sept. 25.—(Staff special.)—For the fourth day the Dominion Trades Congress, the parliament of United Labor in Canada, sat wrestling with the problems that so vitally affect their movements. To-day for the first time in its history, it closed its doors to the public, and all afternoon sat in executive session. In the morning, however, the press was admitted to hear their deliberations upon a number of resolutions which the Congress considered could with safety be given to the public. The World was informed on good authority that the principal reason for secrecy in any of the sessions during the Congress was that matters which the Congress were called upon to discuss could not judiciously be given publicity, not that they objected, but that their statements might at some future time be used against them.

ELOPEMENT NEAR WHITBY LOVE LINKS AT PARENTS

Toronto Gentleman Wins a Bride in a Romantic Manner and Everyone is Happy.

Whitby, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—A romance ending in a wedding on Thursday has given this town a chance to make 5 o'clock tea brighter than usual. The story begins a year ago when Miss Hodgson, daughter of F. W. Hodgson of Ottawa, met Mr. Ogden of Toronto, while she was attending Moulton's Ladies' College, Toronto. Her parents did not object to Mr. Ogden, for he is an estimable young man, the son of Dr. Ogden. But they did not wish him to get married till Miss Hodgson had finished her education. But love laughs at parents.

ONLY CONCERT OF EUROPE CAN DEAL WITH MACEDONIA

Premier Balfour States the Factors That Work to Cause Trouble in East.

London, Sept. 25.—Premier Balfour, in a lengthy letter to the Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Davidson, discusses the Macedonian situation. The letter is a reply to the Archbishop's action in drawing attention to the growing uneasiness among churchmen at the apparent apathy of the powers, "while unspeakable atrocities are perpetrated in Macedonia."

SYMPATHY FOR THE SOO WORKMEN

Wages' Should Be Paid the Very First Thing, Says Leader of Opposition.

J. P. Whitney, who is stopping at the Queen's, discussed the collapse of the Soo industries with The World yesterday. He said: "I have heard with regret of the state of affairs at the Soo. The shutting down of such large industries as those of the company is of the greatest consequence, both to those industries specifically and to the country at large. Of course, I can say very little on the subject. I have observed that conferences have been held between the Premier and some of his colleagues and Mr. Clarke and other gentlemen representing the Soo enterprises. I am impressed with and particularly anxious about the serious condition of the men heretofore employed by the Consolidated companies, whose wages are said to be largely in arrears. Anything that can be done with respect to the payment of their wages should be done, and that without delay. This matter should be dealt with first and settled first of all."

Met in the Dark.

In the gathering darkness the men held a hasty meeting, and amid deep mutterings appointed a committee to call on Mayor Plummer and explain the conditions confronting them. The men selected were Mr. St. Dennis, F. Martin, J. Johnston, A. Thompson and A. Parent, all of Ottawa. They explained to The World that all of them were from around Ottawa, and were without cash because they had come here only Sept. 7 and no pay had arrived since. In the darkness the hungry workmen waited while the committee walked for want of car fare two miles to the Mayor's home. Mr. Plummer said there were no funds available for such an emergency, but that he could not see the men go hungry. He called Assistant Manager Coyne by telephone and that gentleman expressed surprise that the men were hungry. He said he would call the company's police out and supply the men with supper and breakfast, except for deep frozen meat, which he said was nearly midnight before the bread and the coffee were distributed among the men in the darkness of the railway yards. There was no fire, and in the chilly quarters the men devoured their frugal meal in silence, except for deep groans on the source of their misfortunes.

Met on Thursday.

The two met by appointment here on Thursday morning, drove out to Columbus and were married by the Rev. Dr. McLennan. Then they went to Toronto to Mr. Ogden's home, where they are now. Happiness followed, reconciliation of all parties is sure.

The story in town is that Miss Hodgson was a pupil at the O.L.C., but the truth of the matter is she was not a pupil, but an ex-pupil. She did meet Mr. Ogden at the college, and drove with him from there to her father's farm at Myrtle, and thence to the parsonage at Columbus.

The Rev. Dr. Hare, speaking to The World, said that he wished it distinctly understood that Miss Hodgson was not a resident pupil at the Ontario Ladies' College. She had been a pupil a year ago, just as she had been a pupil at the Ontario Ladies' College, but on Wednesday and Thursday she was at the college, but not as a pupil. Merely as an ex-pupil, she was given the opportunity of meeting her former schoolmates. She was at the college on Thursday when Mr. Ogden called on her.

Offer of the Judgeship.

Mr. Whitney was asked if he had any opinion to offer regarding the long matter of bringing on by-elections. He said: "Well, we have a law which is supposed to govern such cases, but it is not a very good law. It is the Ontario government is to have a vacant about a year and four months, and Muskoka and South St. Mary's several months. There is a little doubt that one of the electors of the province, may sooner or later allow the people of the three constituencies to choose their representatives in the legislature."

Ask Laurier to Help.

The committee in the meantime sent to Sir Wilfrid Laurier the following expressive memorial prepared by the desperate fellows:

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, House of Commons, Ottawa, Ont.:
Algebra. Salaries are unpaid. Addresses are penniless. Hundreds of families are suffering. Quebec and adjoining places. Employment badly needed at home. We beg your honorable attention to present state of affairs in the matter of transportation, education, misery, etc., anticipated.

(Signed): L. J. St. Dennis, F. Martin, J. Johnston, A. Thompson, A. Parent, C. Thompson, 250 other destitute laboring men.

Had Right to Call.

There was nothing unusual in Mr. Ogden's calling, for he had been in the habit of doing so last year. Mr. Hodgson had given Miss Hodgson permission to receive Mr. Ogden whenever he called, and Mr. Ogden was as good as a resident pupil at the Ontario Ladies' College. It was understood that they were formally engaged.

In the light of this, it is now known that Miss Hodgson and Mr. Ogden arranged three weeks ago to meet at the O.L.C. on Thursday. Miss Hodgson was then staying at her father's farm, "Glenholme," at Myrtle, with her mother. Her mother returned to Ottawa early this week, and the romance was predicated on Thursday.

More Trouble.

Coming to the question of the attitude of Great Britain, Mr. Balfour points out that Russia, Austria and Turkey cannot be indifferent to the redistribution in the peninsula, and the Greece, Bulgaria, Serbia and Roumania are all interested in the fate of the province, whose Christian population is made up from all the nationalities. The external complications are doubtless of internal ones, because of religious differences, the Mohammedans fearing Christian rule while the exarchate Christians persecute the patriarchs. The Greeks, who are patriarchists would sooner find partition under the rule of the Sultan than be left to fight the matter out with the Bulgarians, who are exarchists.

Rich Beggars Arrested.

New York, Sept. 25.—"Blinkie" and "Dear Friends," two of the wealthiest and most troublesome professional beggars in the country, were arrested by John E. Godfrey and Thomas F. Hayes of the Charity Organization Society, yesterday. It is known that the two men are worth at least $80,000, the fruits of nearly 40 years of shrewd financial getting.

WOMEN GUARD A HOUSE.

Indianapolis, Sept. 25.—Five of the temperance women of Berne, Decatur County, are on guard tonight at the residence of Frederick Rohrer, editor of The Witness, a weekly paper, which has been making a relentless war on the saloons in that village, and they have promised to stand by the editor if another attack is made upon him.

TAX ON AMERICAN WHEAT WOULD BENEFIT EMPIRE

The New Issue of Grand Trunk Stock is Commended to Investors.

London, Sept. 25.—Robert Blatchford, one of the most influential of socialist writers, writing to The Clarion on the fiscal question, says: "Supposing that Canada can supply all the wheat we require, in that case we may have American wheat, and then America must pay the amount of the tax to the advantage of our exchequer or lose our trade. If she gave up our trade it would mean that the wheat trade of Russia and America would pass to Canada. This would benefit Canada, and would be an advantage, strategically, to us and would not make the least difference in the price of the English loaf."

FINAL FIGHT FOR RIDING BUT DOOMED TO DEFEAT

Col. Tisdale Asks Justice for Norfolk and John Charlton Condoles With Him.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—The final protest is being made against the redistribution bill, and it is an energetic one. When the third reading of the bill was moved this morning, the opposition tackled it as if it was an entirely new proposition. The debate continued till late to-night. Col. Tisdale opened the argument in a two-hour speech, and other Conservatives took up the thread of his indignant protest. The debate to-day developed an intensity of feeling against the measure that was not promised in the deliberations of the committee. It was hoped that the government would see fit to modify several of the more glaring injustices perpetrated by the bill. When the bill passed the committee stage with only two important amendments, those affecting Waterloo and Hastings, the indignation of the opposition assumed great proportions. That indignation was reflected in the debate.

Seven Races for 10-Day at Woodbine

O.C.'s Big Entry—The Selling Event Divided
89 Horses Will Start This Afternoon

The World's Selections, Also Centaur's Three Best Bets of the Day.

The horsemen appreciate that racing is not overdone in Toronto and that entering their races for the O.C.'s fall meet at Woodbine Park without much ado. The race was opened on Monday, Sept. 22, and was enabled to hand out a list of 89 entries for the card on opening day. Owing to the heavy entry in the selling race a division was necessary, and there are seven races for this afternoon, including the Autumn Cup and Green Scepter.
