COUNTY POLICE COURT. COURT HOUSE, July 27.—Magis-trate Ellis' police court this after-noon was well attended. Albert Peters of Eglinton-avenue charged Mrs. Rebbaca Edwards with trespass. The magistrate could not see where the trespass was commit-ted and dismissed the case with costs. amounting to $3.00. Ernest Amos, Wm. Rochford and Leonard Cross were charged by the York Radial Raliway Company with creating a disturbance on a Metropoli-tan car, and with injuring their pro-perty. Mr. Maughan prosecuted and J. M. Godfrey appeared for Amos. After hearing the evidence of Con-ductor Carroll, Motorman Clarke, In-spector Perrin and Fred Boulden the magistrate dismissed Cross and chang-ed the charge to disorderly conduct against Rochford, to which he pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs or 20 days. He paid. Amos was sent up for trial, but was allowed out on $400 ball, $200 of which was furnished by his mother and $200 by himself. of the park declare that the athlete is dents of last week, and that he will assuredly make the jump from the tower as soon as the net in which he lands is repaired. Last evening Grenade and Fedora repeated their daring wirewalking feats. The pair of aerialists walk the wire in a huge moulded elephant form, which, from the ground, locks just like the real thing. The act is very clever. The casting act of the Five Boises completes the open air bill. Many people last evening took adof the warm weather to have a swim, and the bath houses were well patronized. The lake water is com-paratively warm just now, and the Scarboro beach gives admirable opportunifies for a dip in the water.
