

Thanks, old man, for telling me about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

It has given me back my old time vigor
and made me strong and well

This is the way people feel about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It arouses the enthusiasm of those who use it because of its remarkable restorative and up-building influence.

It lifts them out of the tired, nervous and helpless condition resulting from exhausted nerves, restores health and vigor and makes life worth living.

Sleeplessness, irritability, nervous headache, indigestion, and all the warning symptoms of nervous collapse disappear when this great food cure is used to nourish the nerve cells back to health.

Nervous Collapse

Mr. Victor Higgs, Windham Hill, Cumberland Co., N.S., writes:

"My case was a peculiar one. It was one of those strange nervous diseases which are so difficult to describe. The doctor said that my nervous system was all run down. I experienced that uncertainty in walking which indicates the approach of paralysis and locomotor ataxia, and I now realize that I am greatly indebted to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for the great good it has done me.

"I could not work, read or write, or do anything requiring energy or the concentration of mind. Before using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I could not get an hour's sleep all night. My brain and nerves seemed to be all unsettled. I sleep well now, and believe that my nervous system has been fully built up by this splendid medicine."

It rests entirely with you as to whether you benefit by these experiences of others. If you could talk with persons who have used this treatment and note their enthusiasm you would not be long in putting it to the test in your own case.

Sciatic Rheumatism

Mr. W. J. Talbot, Edenwold, Sask., writes:

"It is a great pleasure for me to recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a cure for sciatic rheumatism. The pain I have suffered from sciatica has been well nigh unbearable. It would start in the hips and run down the legs to the toes, gradually getting worse. The nerves contract until one is practically useless. My doctor tried many different treatments, but could only afford relief for a time.

"For about five years I was subject to this trouble, with severe attacks which would last about two months. The last attack I had was shortened to two weeks by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills used in conjunction with it. This treatment was continued until I was satisfied that the cure was lasting."

This statement is endorsed by Mr. H. E. Woolley, J.P.

HIGHER TARIFF IF HUGHES IS ELECTED

Summary of Latest Conditions in U.S. Election Looks Like
Defeat for Wilson.

HIS SUPPORTERS ANXIOUS

Wilson's Eight-hour Bill Comes in for Some Severe Criticism.

New York, Nov. 4.—Political excitement grows as election day approaches. This is especially the case in labor union circles, where Mr. Gompers' course in taking up the fight on behalf of President Wilson, is much discussed. In defending the course of the chief officer of the Federation of Labor, the following case was made out from the standpoint by one representative of organized labor. He said: "A man's time is not a commodity, but is that portion of a man's life."

"In paving the way for the repeal of the eight-hour bill, so confident are the Republicans of winning, that the corporations are already circulating petitions among employees not intended in the present eight hour law petitioning for its repeal as very unfair in its operation to them. The employees are practically forced to sign the petitions."

"Two American soldiers were recently killed in the rounding up of bandits in Santo Domingo, and Hughes' speakers declare this proves that the United States has war under Wilson."

"Wilson put into law the Federal Banking Reserve Act. By this the banks have to pool a certain proportion of their deposits and in the case of the failure of any one of the banks, the United States manufacturers are given such a high tariff that they will be the most highly protected in the world. One Hughes' speaker in the financial district of New York City said that a Republican victory would mean compulsory military training. The speaker said he believed the workmen of the United States needed military discipline as they would learn to have proper respect for the rights of the employees."

In New York City the belief that President Wilson will be defeated appears to be growing rapidly. Some supporters of Wilson are so alarmed that they say the corporations have given the Republican national committee a campaign fund to buy up Ohio and New York, and that his election means first war with Mexico, and then war with England, for the annexation of Canada. The general opinion appears to be that Mr. Hughes' election would be chiefly marked by an increase of the tariff with an effort to steer clear of foreign complication of consistent with what appeared to him to be the rights of the nation.

COMMISSION ORDERS NEW TOLLS FOR CARS

Charges Increased on Refrigerator
Cars Going West of the Great Lakes.

Special to The Toronto World.

Saskatoon, Sask., Nov. 4.—New tolls for heated refrigerator cars over and above freight rates between eastern Canada and all points west of the great lakes are ordered by the Board of Railway Commissioners, according to an official communication which reached the Saskatoon Board of Trade today.

From west of Fort William, Ont., to the Pacific coast the country has been divided into sections, now tolls per car, varying from $10 in most easterly zones to $25 at the coast.

Under the new ruling tolls on perishable goods requiring protection between eastern points and Saskatoon, Regina, Moose Jaw, Prince Albert and Viceroy the rate, in addition to ordinary freight rates, will be $15 per car. New tolls cover protected freight traveling either way. The order involves rescinding of a general order issued November of last year, authorizing railways to charge certain tolls for use of refrigerator cars for the carriage of vegetables in carloads on mileage basis.

FRENCH PAPER ROUNDS ON THE POPE'S LETTER

Le Pays Makes Vigorous Protest Against Alleged Irish Influence at Rome.

VATICAN MILLIONAIRE

His Holiness so Referred to By Infuriated Writer in That Paper.

Special to The Toronto World.

Montreal, Nov. 4.—Le Pays is out today with the statement that the recent papal letter "is the most formidable blow to French-Canadian influence ever given in this country, as well as being the greatest triumph ever placed to the credit of the Irish clergy in Canada. It could not have been worse," continues the same paper, "that the document being signed by Fallon, Doherty and Fitzpatrick."

Le Pays says in effect that the Pope has been deceived cruelly by the Irish Catholics and influenced by their powerful friends in Rome and elsewhere. The article contends that the papal declaration claiming that the French-Canadian priests are not well enough versed in English to look after their Irish parishioners, adding that the very contrary is the case. It also claims that the Pope intimates that the French-Canadian children should learn English perfectly, while the smallest knowledge of French is quite sufficient for their wants. It continues: "Think of the perfection to which English is taught and then of the small bone thrown to the French-Canadians and one realizes the crying injustice of the Pope's letter, which speaks of perfect English and passable French."

"To complete the Pope's goodness," says the writer, "his holiness asks the bishops, those who caused all the trouble, to settle the conflict. What zeal Mgr. Fallon will employ in rendering justice to the French of his diocese! He will enjoy silence upon journalistic writers and the faithful."

Following a quotation from L'Action Catholique, asking everyone to admit Le Pays says: "No hypocrisy if you please. The Pope interferes in our country on national questions, badly informed if you will, and under Irish influence he knocks us down and then we are to say nothing because of our respect for religion. We consider that the Pope has been absolutely unjust towards the French-Canadians in this matter and, if no one speaks out, how are we going to obtain justice? Since this Ontario school question is a national question, we do not see why we should be silenced by this strange request of the holy father. Since when are those who are assassinated supposed to keep silent? We have been attacked by the Irish clergy who succeeded in their intrigue with the provincial government, and after being robbed of our sacred rights

We are supposed to keep silent? We bow to the desire of the Pope, who makes no difference between those who attack and those who defend, and if we cease to combat, it signifies that we completely lose our rights, and we ask when we become completely Anglicized in Canada what is to become of the French race? The Pope, and why not? Because the Pope gives the French-Canadians a fine knockout. At every street corner there is the greatest unanimity in denouncing the letter, yet with that hypocritical characteristic of the race, all of our newspapers and public men have humiliated themselves to the last degree. There are, in fact, but two exceptions. Mr. Sam. Genest and Armand Lavergne, the latter stating that the letter served Irish interests before those of French-Canadian, who he added, "the Pope will never force me to be an Englishman." The Droits of Ottawa backs down and thanks the Pope for having allowed them to learn French. Only one paper, Le Devoir, has remained in line, altho its silence may be golden eloquence. We long, however, to hear from Mr. Bourassa.

"In a word the papal letter has created general deception in French Canada, and proves beyond a doubt that the Vatican is completely under Irish domination. We are all right when we go to the Champ de Mars to fight against the invasion of Mayor Nathan against the Pope, but when his holiness sacrifices us to the Irish element we are not in a hurry to go there with our archbishop at our head. Now, French people, continue to send your money to the millionaire of the Vatican, and you will see that it pays as well as going to the Champ de Mars. If the French-Canadians were men they would leave their churches rather than listen to the reading of this document."

Paris, Nov. 4.—The recapture of Vaux Fort, altho expected from day to day since the fall of Douaumont, causes no less the deepest satisfaction, as the victory of Oct. 24 is completely ratified. It was known that the position was becoming daily more untenable for the German garrison. The French commander, after the Douaumont victory, had the certainty that Vaux was doomed. He decided, however, to avoid a spectacular success, entailing large sacrifices and preferred to hammer down the German resistance, thus once more proving that the French artillery can beat the German at its own game.

VILLA BANDITS RANSACK TRAIN

"Death to Americans," They Cry
As They Swoop Down
Footpaths.

USED VILEST OATHS

Captured Two Places and Promise to Take Another Very Soon.

El Paso, Nov. 4.—"Death to Americans," was the cry of the Villa bandits who charged down from the foothills of Laguna on the Mexican Central passenger train Monday night, Dr. S. Haffner, the German physician, who was a passenger on this looted train, declared upon his arrival, here last night from Chihuahua City.

Dr. Haffner was told by one of the Villa chiefs in command of the bandits that Villa troops had captured Santa Rosalia, Jimenez and would take Chihuahua City within ten days, after the railroad to Juarez has been destroyed. Haffner, who had practiced medicine in Chihuahua City many years, recognized some of the bandits as former patients and called them by name after he had established his identity as a German subject.

"I am sure I would have been killed had I not been recognized as the German doctor who had lived in Chihuahua City so long," he added. "The bandits came thru the train crying 'Death to Americans' and using the vilest oaths in reference to the 'Gringos'."

KEY FURNISHED TO TREASURE HOUSE

How Best Aid to Wonderful Information May Be Secured.

What vast and mighty treasures of words full of rich meaning lie locked up in our language—hidden away from common use, and enjoyed only by the learned few. It is as if, possessing the mineral wealth of Canada, mined, smelted and ready for the mint, we turned, scornfully aside, revealing in a voluntary poverty.

A dictionary constitutes the treasure house of a language. As a people, we needlessly deprive ourselves of the helps at our command. In our daily tasks, not one of which can be performed without the use of words, we possess only the most primitive tools, when we might be equipped with the keenest and most efficient. If the dictionary be the barred and bolted treasure house we have mentioned, then the coupon we print daily in The World is its key.
