Remarkable Values in Axminster, Wilton and Brussels Rugs In Patterns and Colorings to Suit All Rooms of the House

Oriental, Art Nouveau, Conventional, Floral and Quaint Chintz—Designs in Light, Dark and Medium Shades

FROM SNOW AND SLUSH to smooth, grassy sward is not more pleasant a change than the substitution of a soft new rug for one that is faded and worn. The whole room becomes a more cheerful, inviting scene. It is in very truth the foundation of any attractive scheme of furnishing.

And here in this great "Brighten-the-Home" Sale are rugs of most attractive, excellent sort offered at prices at which they could not be purchased at the carpet mills to-day. Three particular lines deserve particular notice:—

Wilton Squares of close, velvety weave, the colorings beautifully soft and mellow, the designs running up the scale of variety from the simple Art Nouveau design in charming two-tone combination of golden brown and black or green and buff, to the handsome Oriental pattern in rose, blue and ivory or brown and buff. Included are a few delightful verdure and neat conventional effects. They present a splendid selection for living-room and dining-room floors. Sizes and prices are—4 ft. 9 in. by 7 ft. 6 in., special price, $15.50; 6 ft. 9 in. by 9 ft., special price, $19.50; 8 ft. 9 in. by 12 ft., special price, $24.50; 9 ft. 9 in. by 12 ft., special price, $26.50; 9 ft. 9 in. by 12 ft. 6 in., special price, $30.00; 9 ft. 9 in. by 12 ft. 6 in., special price, $34.50.

Likewise extraordinarily low-priced is a line of attractive Brussels Squares. Some of them are in neat little brown and tan, and green and tan conventional designs, especially good for sitting-rooms, boy's bedrooms, waiting-rooms, etc. Others are in pretty two-tone effects, including a delightful blue and white bedroom rug and in bolder Oriental patterns in bright tan, green and red combinations. Sizes and prices are—6 ft. 9 in. by 9 ft., special price, $13.25; 8 ft. 9 in. by 10 ft., special price, $15.50.

Seamless Axminster Squares are another notable sale value. The colors are most harmonious and the rugs have been chosen with due regard to their serviceability. Included are a Kazak design with blue ground and handsome, close set panels in soft rose, tan and green shades, picked out with black, a delightful Kermanshah design with blue and rose border on an ivory ground, which shows the delicate tracery characteristic of that type, also Persian effects in harmonies of rose, blue and green and tan, and many rich red and blue Turkey designs. There are two sizes, 7 ft. 6 in. x 9 ft., at $18.75, and 9 ft. x 9 ft., at $22.50.

C.N.R. IS WINNER OVER HYDRO REID GAVE BILLS STRONG AID

Renewal of Charters Approved in Railway Committee
By Forty-One to Nineteen Votes—W. F. Maclean Urges Double-Track Line as Solution.

By a Staff Reporter.

OTTAWA, March 28.—By a vote of 41 to 19, the railway committee this morning decided to report favorably to the house of commons the bills renewing the charters held by the Canadian Northern for construction of railways from Toronto to the Niagara and Detroit frontiers. Nearly all the votes against the measure came from Ontario Conservatives. The Quebec members present were in favor of the Canadian Northern, and they were reinforced from both the Pacific and Atlantic coasts. The western Liberals, Messrs. J. G. Turritt (Assiniboia) and W. A. Buchanan (Medicine Hat) supported Sir Adam Beck and the hydro radial cause, while against them were lined up some Ontario members, including W. H. Bennett of East Simcoe, and William Smith of South Ontario. Sir Adam Beck was on hand, but did not personally lead the fight, the opening speech against the bill being delivered by Mr. Armstrong of East Lambton. The influence of Hon. J. D. Reid, acting minister of railways and canals, was thrown in favor of the bills. He proposed to speak only for himself, although Sir Adam Beck called upon him to speak for the government. No representative of any of the five City of Toronto ridings was present.

W. F. Maclean's Proposal. W. F. Maclean (South York) said that the responsibility for all legislation rested upon the government. The minister of railways was in attendance upon the committee for the express purpose of stating the position of the government. The Canadian Northern, Mr. Maclean continued, as a great transcontinental railway system, was entitled to get to the Niagara and Detroit frontiers, but the people of Ontario were determined to develop their hydro-electric and hydro radial systems. It would be wise to avoid duplication of construction, the thought is would be a godsend to the Canadian Northern for the hydro radial to build a double track line from Toronto to Niagara and Detroit, over which the C. N. R. would have running rights. The two opposing interests should get together, and, in his opinion, the government should compel them to do so.

May Nationalize the C. N. R. Several significant statements were made during the course of the debate. Sir Adam Beck, for example, declared that the hydro radial had at one time been promised the usual subsidy by the federal government. He also stated that the real fight for the charter was being put up by Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railway, which had long desired entrance into Hamilton and Toronto. Sir Adam Beck was on hand, but did not personally lead the fight, the opening speech against the bill being delivered by Mr. Armstrong of East Lambton. The influence of Hon. J. D. Reid, acting minister of railways and canals, was thrown in favor of the bills. He proposed to speak only for himself, although Sir Adam Beck called upon him to speak for the government. No representative of any of the five City of Toronto ridings was present.

W. F. Maclean's Proposal. W. F. Maclean (South York) said that the responsibility for all legislation rested upon the government. The minister of railways was in attendance upon the committee for the express purpose of stating the position of the government. The Canadian Northern, Mr. Maclean continued, as a great transcontinental railway system, was entitled to get to the Niagara and Detroit frontiers, but tions of Sir Adam Beck, others remained.

After the meeting last Thursday, Dr. Reid went on to say, Sir Adam Beck and his supporters had been misled by a clause that should be inserted in the bills providing that no construction should be commenced or money expended under the charters without the consent of the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners. An alternative clause suggested by Sir Adam was to the effect that nothing should be done under the charters without the consent of the governor-in-council. These proposals were not satisfactory to the Canadian Northern, and Dr. Reid said that in his opinion they reflected upon him personally as acting minister. He pointed out that surveys had been made on grounds of public policy. The Niagara, St. Catharines and Toronto question, he said, was included in the assets of the Canadian Northern Railway System, upon the faith of which the government had endorsed bonds to the extent of $45,000,000.

This particular system had already issued bonds to the amount of $1,000,000.

The Toronto, Niagara and Western was not in the list of assets that the Canadian Northern agreed to incorporate that line in the system and the bill would be amended accordingly.

Heckled Armstrong. Joseph E. Armstrong (East Lambton) then arose to address the committee, but his opening sentences were drowned by loud cries of "question."

Mr. Armstrong, however, insisted upon being heard. In showing the popularity of the hydro radial, he pointed out that surveys had already been made upon the request of 274 municipalities. The Canadian Northern, he said, could have running rights over the hydro radial just as it had running rights over the Intercolonial.

Mr. D. B. Hanna: "We have no running rights over the Intercolonial." Mr. Armstrong retorted that Mr. Hanna at the last meeting of the committee had declared that the Canadian Northern had running rights over the Intercolonial. This was the signal for general disorder. Mr. Armstrong, perceiving this, shouted angrily and many suggestions that he shut up and sit down. "I will talk all day and all night if I want."

W. H. Bennett (East Simcoe): "You are going to talk the bill out again are you?"

Mr. Armstrong: "No, but I propose to be heard. This Canadian Northern is a bankrupt concern that can never build the road if it gets its charter." The last statement caused Mr. Bureau of Three Rivers to sarcastically inquire why the hydro radial was so frantically fighting the renewal of a charter that would never be used to build a railway. W. H. Bennett said the hydro radial was not so popular as people supposed. The bylaw had only received a majority of 500 in Sir Adam Beck's home City of London.

"Bulldozing" Charred. Dr. Edwards (Frontenac) protested against the treatment that had been accorded to Mr. Armstrong. Members from other provinces, he said, had come there determined to bulldoze Ontario.

Mr. Bureau: "You should withdraw that statement."

Mr. Best: "Why should it be withdrawn? You have been making most of the disorder."

Dr. Edwards went on to say that he would not grant any concession to the Canadian Northern, because it repudiated its written obligations. It had received $5,000 for some concession from a municipality in his township and had then failed to carry out the agreement.

Touch of Comedy. D. B. Hanna: "What you are talking about is a contract made by the Bay of Quinte Railway and occurred many years ago."

Mr. Bureau: "You are going to talk the bill out again are you?"

Mr. Armstrong: "No, but I propose to be heard. This Canadian Northern is a bankrupt concern that can never build the road if it gets its charter."

committee should vote. He was good enough to observe that he had obtained no information from Mr. Armstrong's speech.

When Donald Sutherland of South Oxford rose to speak there was great disorder. Mr. Sutherland had talked the bill out last Thursday and it was supposed he was to perform a similar office this morning. He forced a hearing, however, and said that Ontario was not unfriendly to the Canadian Northern, but the people wanted the Niagara power and the hydro-electric system.

Beck Appeals to Reid. Sir Adam Beck, replying to Dr. Reid, said that the latter had been careful to say that he was speaking for himself. Sir Adam wanted him to speak for the government. If Dr. Reid, as a member of the government, said that the minister of railways should do so, and so it would be binding upon his successor and his successors' successor. Dr. Reid was only temporarily at the head of the railway department. Would he not, speaking for the government, say the hydro radial enterprise should not be thwarted or balked?

There was some discussion as to alleged statements of Sir Adam and others interested in the hydro radial movement to the effect that the Dominion Government subsidy had been granted. Sir Adam denied ever having made any such statement.

Mr. Smith (South Ontario): "You said the government had promised you $2300 a mile."

Sir Adam Beck: "If the member of the minister want to start a discussion on that subject it might prove unfortunate for some people." Mr. Bureau complained that Sir Adam Beck was trying to scare somebody.

Sir Adam Beck: "You have been put up to harass me." Hon. Dr. Reid at this point suggested that the Canadian Northern should get its charter, it would give running rights to the hydro radial.

Sir Adam Beck retorted that the hydro radial could buy the Canadian Northern, but he added, significantly, "This government is not backing up the Canadian Northern."

The "Eclipse" Gas Range One of the Big Price Inducements of the "Brighten-the-Home" Sale—An Extra Special at $17.50

Boasting an Elevated Oven and All the Latest Improvements Essential to High Efficiency as a Cook Stove

THE HOUSEWIFE who captures an "Eclipse" will have cause to look back with gratitude to the profitable days of this "Brighten-the-Home" Sale. For we believe it to be without parallel that a gas range of this up-to-date type, with so many points of exceptional merit, should be procurable at so distinctly low a price. Consider its several "points."

It is a range with a steel body and cast-iron table-tops, and door frames.

Having the elevated oven, usually restricted to ranges of a much higher price, all tire-some stooping is obviated.

It has needle-point, adjustable valves with porcelain handles.

It has durable one-piece star burners, with dust tray under each.

The 18-inch oven, with broiling oven below, is equipped with a pan with meat rest.

Summing up the matter, it possesses all the modern improvements essential to efficiency—all this at the price of an ordinary range with base oven. It is an incomparable value at the special price of $17.50.

PLEA OF DUAL PERSONALITY.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Statements indicating that he believed he was possessed of a dual personality, the wicked one of which impelled him to murder John E. Peck of Grand Rapids, his wealthy father-in-law, and Mrs. Peck, were made by Dr. Arthur Warren Waite to District Attorney Edward Swann and a detective to-night. Waite is still in bed at Bellevue Hospital, where he is under rest, charged with the murder of Peck.
