SPLENDID DANCE GIVEN IN HONOR OF DEBUTANTE

Mrs. W. F. Fleury Holds Fashionable Ball for Her Niece of Aurora.

Quite the social event of the past week was the dance given at McConkey's by Mrs. W. F. Fleury in honor of her niece, Miss Marguerite Fleury of Aurora.

Mrs. and Miss Fleury received their large number of guests at the entrance to the ballroom.

Mrs. Fleury was wearing a pretty gown of maize liberty with gold embroidery. Miss Marguerite, one of the season's prettiest debutantes, looked very dainty in a frock of white crepe embroidered, a cluster of Killarney roses and a wreath of tiny buds in her coiffure.

Miss Henderson also received, gowned in white satin and lace. Supper was served in the restaurant from small tables with pretty Yuletide decorations. The music and floor were par excellence, and even in the "free sma' hours of the morning" the young folk were loth to depart.

Two pretty English girls, the Misses Reid, guests at Government House, were both in white and came with their cousins, the Misses Mortimer Clark. Miss Clark was very handsome in white and silver, with touches of blue, and Miss Reid in old blue satin.

Mrs. W. H. Cawthra was in blue brocade with a paradise mount in her hair.

Mrs. R. J. Christie was stunning, as usual, in silver and steel embroidered net over rose silk.

Mrs. Cawthra Mulock, cream embroidered chiffon.

Miss Ina Matthews, in Dresden silk, brought her pretty Irish guest, Miss Kenny of Dublin, in Nile crepe and cream lace.

Miss Helen Davidson, a frock of pale blue chiffon with graduated satin stripes.

A bright visitor in town, Miss Dorothy Biscoe of Halifax, was very much admired, in pink with a wreath of rosebuds.

Miss Evelyn Kerr was most attractive in a white liberty empire gown and a marabout-ossip in her hair.

Mrs. E. P. B. Johnston wore a handsome dress of jet sequins over white chiffon, with trimmings of emerald green. Her daughter, Miss Jessie, looked very well in white.

Mrs. A. P. Burnitt was a pretty matron, in pale yellow.

Mrs. Harry Beatty was also in yellow, with old brocades.

Mrs. Campbell Macdonald, in black sequin, over white, brought her debutante, Miss Flora, in all white.

Miss Mary Clark, an empire frock of white liberty.

Miss Gyp Armstrong, a dark beauty, in a black gown with jet and steel.

Mrs. Louise Henderson (New York) black lace over silk, pale blue ribbon in her coiffure.

Miss Edith Holland was lovely in white with touches of pink.

Mrs. Macdonald Thomson, pale blue, with wreaths of pink chiffon roses.

Miss Helen Matthews, white net over liberty.

Mrs. Reginald Gamble, brocade satin in shades of yellow.

Miss Josephine Prouse, a smart gown of opalescent chiffon, with touches of gold tissue.

Miss Jean Wallbridge, white lace.

Mrs. Beatrice Garrow, forget-me-not blue satin and ribbons.

Miss Tottie McArthur, rose pink crepe.

Miss Edith Kay, white, with empire wreaths of rosebuds.

Miss Edna Cosby, dainty in white crepe.

The Misses Armour, both pretty in white.

Mrs. Bruce McDonald, champagne colored brocade.

Mrs. George Ristic, black palleted gown over white silk.

The bride, Mrs. Dudley Dawson, very smart, in black.

Miss Norma Armstrong, in flame chiffon with orchid velvet.

Miss Gwendolyn Darling, pale mauve net.

Miss Lillian Crowther, very pretty in pink.

Miss Cawthra of Yeaton Hall and her guest, Miss Howard, were both in white.

Miss Gypsy Grasset, white liberty and chiffon.

Mrs. Vera Morcan, white satin, with bands of gold and white embroidery.

Miss Hilda Reid, a pretty French embroidery gown in white with blue ribbons.

Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. Vaux Chadwick, Miss Flo. Le Mesurier, Percy Henderson, Stuart Greer, Miss Cliven Davidson, Miss Suzanne Mara, Miss Alice Medland, Harry

SOCIETY AT THE CAPITAL

OTTAWA, Dec. 28.—On Monday, Dec. 23, the president of the Minto Skating Club, Col. Irwin, and Mrs. Irwin entertained at a very large skating party at the new Rideau Rink. Col. and Mrs. Irwin received their guests downstairs near the entrance and were assisted by their daughter, Mrs. Alan Palmer of Kingston, who, with her husband, is spending Christmastide with her parents. She looked extremely well in a very smart skating costume of royal blue broadcloth and handsome mink fur. Also the ice was not in its best condition, owing to a rather damp spell of weather, there were a great many of our most enthusiastic skaters on the ice, besides many who walked and talked instead. His Excellency Lord Grey and the Ladies Sybil and Evelyn Grey enjoyed the evening on the ice. Refreshments and hot drinks were served in the tea-room upstairs as usual, and music was furnished by a very good orchestra. The party broke up about midnight.

The Premier and Lady Laurier, who generally spend Christmas at their home in Arthursville, this year remained in the capital for that festive season. Mr. and Mrs. Laurier will spend the New Year's Day and a short time thereafter with Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier.

Mr. Frank Dods of Winnipeg is the guest for the holiday period of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Dunlevie. Mr. Dods is the fiancé of Miss Constance Dunlevie.

Mrs. Almon and her son, Capt. Almon, are the guests of Mrs. H. K. Egan, who is the sister of the former.

Mrs. Egan has sent out invitations for a domino dance which is to take place at the Racquet Court on the eve of New Year's Day.

Mr. Sam McDougall is spending some of the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lorn McDougall in Hintonburg. Mr. and Mrs. J. Lorn McDougall are the parents of Miss Margaret McDougall, who is the fiancée of Mr. J. Lorn McDougall.

Mrs. J. Lyons Biggar will entertain on Monday evening, Dec. 30, at a young people's dance, which will be in honor of her daughter, Miss Violet Biggar.

Major and Mrs. J. Stomford Maunsell have invited a number of the younger people of the ages of from fourteen to eighteen to a dance at their new residence at
