A PLATE YOU CAN EAT WITH. HELD IN POSITION BY OUR NEWLY IMPROVED QUADRUPLE ATTACHMENT. People don't want artificial teeth to carry around in their pockets nor keep at home in their bureau drawer so they will know where to find them when the door bell rings, they want teeth for service. If you have a plate that no dentist has been able to make fit, why not try us? We have satisfied thousands and why not you? Our teeth are so natural in size, shape, color and the expression they afford to the face, as to be detected BY A DENTIST unless closely examined. Our new attachment holds them as solid almost as though they were riveted in the mouth.

There will be a meeting tonight in the Main street Baptist church in the interests of the Layman's Missionary movement. The speakers will be Rev. W. B. Higgins, R. W. Corey, J. Hunter White, and J. W. McAlary.

A meeting of the common council will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock to receive a report from the board of public works as to dredging the Sand Point berth, making repairs to the Wiggin wharf and heating warehouses Nos. 5 and 6.

Schooner Moana, from this port for City Island for orders, with a cargo of laths, at Vineyard wharf last Wednesday reports that on October 11, when forty miles south of Matineau, experienced violent southeast gale and lost about 6,000 laths from her deck.

In the coat which was in a bundle of clothing, etc., property of the man killed by last night's Montreal train, as the result of stealing a ride, are a number of letters addressed to Wm. Lemham. As Lemham was seen this morning it is not he. It is suggested that it is Michael Loden, of Halifax, who was with Lemham last.

A sitting of the equity court was held this morning. An order was made making the Eastern Trust Co. a trustee in the estate of Aaron Eaton. The cases of Attorney General vs. St. John Lumber Co. and W. T. H. Ensey vs. L. W. Johnson were postponed. In J. W. Allison, McCollum Grant vs. Fred Lutz et al no decision was rendered.

The New York tug Astral, which arrived here yesterday, is one of the largest out of her home port. She is lying today at the new city wharf. She is only four years old and is built of steel and iron. Her engines are very powerful. She registers 410 tons net. Captain Phinney is her commander and he has a crew of 21 men. This is the tug that picked up the sailing ship Astral (the same name as herself) ninety miles off New York recently in a distressed condition and towed her into that port. Captain Dunham, who is master of the distressed ship, belongs to Yarmouth, N.S., and has the highest terms of Captain Phinney's good work in bringing her to safe anchorage.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning, the case of theft against George Jones, an Englishman, was resumed.

Fred Dunham, the aged city employee who lost his pay envelope on Friday containing $15, testified to that effect.

Sergeant Baker testified that he saw Jones making good on Saturday and drinking.

Jones stated that he picked up the envelope on Saturday morning. He declared the $15 found in his possession was Dunham's. He had spent the remainder.

The accused was remanded to jail. Harry Shaw was fined $20, or two months, for assaulting his wife, and the charge of damaging the sanitary arrangements in the British street was adjusted satisfactorily. As he is the sole support of a wife and six children, he was later liberated under suspended sentence. It transpired that he had not acted so harshly as reported.

William White, two months, for white washing, each, other on Rockland Road.

MAN FOUND IN THE PARK

Early this morning John Henry, a park policeman, accompanied by Robert Chisholm and Alexander Taylor, were proceeding to one of the artificial lakes north of Lily Lake via an unfrequented foot path to resume their work, when lying prostrate on the ground the trio espied a man. He did not respond to shaking, and fearing that the man was beyond resuscitation, the trio hurriedly bore him to Mr. Henry's residence, where, after extreme difficulty, he was revived by means of application of restorative and persistent chafing of his body and limbs.

At half-past eight he was able to walk, and was escorted to the Central police station by Mr. Henry, where his name was ascertained to be Gregory McDonald and his home at 29 Mansur street, Roxbury, Mass. In his possession was found a ticket from Boston to Charlotte-town and several dollars. He was placed on board the Atlantic express by Detective Killen, this afternoon to resume his journey to the Island city. He has become demented through illness.

SUICIDE IN HALIFAX

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 20 (Special).—Clarence Boyce, nineteen years of age, was found dead from the door of the house in a yard off Dresden Row this morning. There was a bullet in his temple. He had spent the evening with two women in the house outside of which his dead body was found. These two women were taken into custody pending an investigation. It is supposed to be a case of suicide, caused by jealousy. Boyce was a member of the First Regiment of Canadian Artillery and received his pay for the season last evening.

FUNERALS

The funeral of Mrs. Angus McDonald will be held from her late home, Sea street, Bay shore, West End, tomorrow morning at 8.45 to the church of the Assumption, where requiem high mass will be celebrated. Interment will be at St. Martins.

PROBATE COURT

Several Important Matters Taken Up This Morning.

In the estate of the late Dr. Sheffield. The administrators' accounts are filed with petition for passing same. Citation to pass accounts and for order for distribution returnable Tuesday, 27th November next at 10 a.m. Homer D. Forbes, proctor.

Estate of Ann Jane Anderson, unmarried woman. In this case the will was not signed at the foot. Both the witnesses are called and examined as to the execution and explained the irregularity. Will admitted to probate. John E. More sworn in as executor. Real estate valued at $1,800. Personal, $200. No life insurance. Clarence H. Ferguson, proctor.

Estate of James Johnston. Return of citation calling upon the surviving executor to file an inventory and the accounts of the estate. C. N. Skinner, K. C., appears for the executor and states that he is informed that whether or not there is any estate is dependent upon the result of an action now pending, and therefore, the executor could not file an inventory, and that the executor is out of town. The court states that even if there is no property that is no excuse for the executor not complying with the request of the legatees for information, such information being necessary to enable them to respond until return of citation. Ordered that the executor file an inventory and an account if there is any estate, and if no estate, then an affidavit thereof, and further that the executor appear before the Probate Court on the 16th proximo to give evidence thereon. When the question whether the executor shall be ordered to pay personally the costs of this application is argued. Adjournd till 16th November. Bowyer S. Smith, proctor.

Estate Captain Angus MacNicol, late of New Brunswick. Application for ancillary probate. Exemplification of will produced whereby testator gives his property to his executors and trustees for the benefit of his wife and children. Personal estate, $1,200, of which $200 only is situate in New Brunswick. Comptroller of the Court in New Brunswick, V. Hayes, proctor.

Estate of Mary Strain. Single woman. Return of citation to pass accounts and for order for distribution. The accounts of Margaret M. Murphy, the administratrix, are filed and passed. The administratrix, having elapsed since administration, the order for distribution to best of his knowledge and belief of such period. Homer D. Forbes, proctor.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Agnes Desmond

Hampton, N.B., Oct. 20.—(Special).—About half-past nine o'clock last evening, Mrs. Agnes Desmond, widow of the late Timothy Desmond, died at her home, Midway, Hampton, after a trying illness of complicated troubles resulting in heart failure and death in the eighty-third year of her age.

Mr. Desmond died about eight years ago. They were natives of Ireland and came to New Brunswick when quite young. During the prevalence of cholera in St. John, in 1854, they removed to Hampton and purchased the farm on which their family was raised and on which they were always held in deserved respect and have left a large family to bless their memory. There are still living three sons, John, Jeremiah and Daniel, the first and last in the employ of the G. & G. Pilling Manufacturing Company, and second, Jeremiah, who is in the employ of the Consolidated school, which stands on part of the old estate and six daughters, Mrs. J. W. Burns, Mrs. J. Downe and Miss M. M. Burns, Mrs. J. Downe and Miss M. M. Burns, of Dorchester, Mass., Mrs. Celia Byrne, of Norton, and Mrs. E. A. McPherson, of Hampton. There are also twenty-five grandchildren.

The funeral will be held from the home-stead on Thursday and interment made in the Roman Catholic cemetery, Lower Norton.

BOY THIEVES IN COURT TODAY

Before Magistrate Ritchie this morning the case against Vernon Thorne and Leonard Kingston, accused of burglary, was resumed.

Amasa Stanton, a clerk in the employ of A. & I. Laundry, corroborated the testimony of Alfred Webb, the second witness, stated that he properly secured the doors and windows on the night of the robbery and on the ensuing morning (Thursday) discovered that thieves had entered the premises.

At 2 o'clock a resumption was made and Detective Killen gave evidence.

The detective's testimony about the robbery rather interesting, as it is understood the basis of the prosecution will rest upon his evidence. It is claimed that the boys confessed to the authorities and accompanied the detective to the rendezvous where they had concealed the booty.

FOREST FIRES IN THE QUEBEC WOODS

Sherbrooke, Que., Oct. 20 (Special).—Serious bush fires are again raging in the timber limits at the foot of Stoke Mountain. Owing to the dryness of the leaves and the lack of rain, the fire is spreading very rapidly. The extensive limits of A. C. Russell and the Canada Paper Company are threatened, and unless something can be done to check the fire, the damage will be very heavy.

MONTREAL STOCKS

Montreal, Oct. 20.—(Special).—The stock market was quiet today. Ogilvie Common, however, showed activity, holding up the price to yesterday's new high level of 107 1/2. Shawington sold at 78 and Penman at 34.
