

REPORT, &C.

THE period at which it is the duty of the Committee of the Halifax Methodist Female Benevolent Society to present to its friends and members a Report of its proceedings during the lapse of another year, has at length arrived.

In discharge of this duty, your Committee have little else to do than to reiterate the language of Reports in former years; to say that the poor have been still with us; and that during the past year they have been enabled by the benevolence of contributors to the funds of this humble Institution, in some small degree to relieve the wants, assuage the griefs, and mitigate the sufferings of many of the most wretched and destitute of our fellow creatures.

The Treasurer's last annual account exhibited a balance of L5 7 7, and the amount of subscriptions and donations received during the past year, ending 5th November inst. has been L69 7 3; besides 67 yards of various stuffs for clothing, several pairs of shoes, and sundry parcels of apparel.

The disbursements of the Society during the year, have amounted to L66 3s. 8 1-2d. leaving a balance in the hand of their Treasurer of L3 8s. 3 1-2d.; and the number of articles of clothing of different descriptions distributed, has been, no fewer than three hundred and five.
