The Winter Session of 1894 will begin on Tuesday, the 4th day of October next, and will continue for eight months. The opening lecture will be specially arranged, to be delivered by the Rt. Rev. Mr. S. Baldwin, B.D., Lord Bishop of Huron, at 4 o'clock p.m. on that day. The regular work of the College begins at 8 o'clock a.m. on the following day. It is hoped that, so far as of their own interests, students will, as far as practicable, be present at the opening lecture, so as to lose none of the early teaching in the several branches.

The faculty records with pleasure the constantly increasing prosperity of the College. The last Session was one of the most successful in its history, both as regards the large classes of attendance and the judicious work done by the students in all the years.

The Faculty Medical College has the great advantage of being governed
