PRIMECREST FARM
When The Doctor Orders Cream
as part of the building up treatment for people who are "run down" and need proper nourishment. Purity is more than ever important, for the weakened body is in just the condition to take any disease that may find its way into milk (and, naturally, into the cream that it yields) from diseased cattle, diseased farmers or farm help, or through uncleanly handling.
Keep in Mind, Always, That
PRIMECREST FARM HEAVY CREAM
Is Guaranteed Free From Disease
You can place every confidence in its purity, for our cows are so often rigidly inspected by a qualified veterinary surgeon who gives them what is known as the "Tuberculin Test," which never fails to prove if they are free from tuberculosis. Our cows must be perfectly healthy; if they are not, we won't use or sell their milk.
Our Barn Staff is Guaranteed Sound in Health as they are medically inspected at short intervals, and are compelled to be personally clean. They wear snow-white duck suits during milking time, and even wash their hands after milking each cow.
The milk is drawn through sterilized gauges, handled in sterilized pails and cans, and that used for cream is passed through a sterilized separator. Our cooling system protects the milk from all trace of disease.
Primecrest Farm Heavy Cream is "So Rich it Wrinkles"
It is strong in health-giving, body-building properties, and comes to the home strictly fresh, clean, cool, sweet as a nut, in STERILIZED, SEALED GLASS JARS, at

The Man In The Street
Flagged yet?
February's all in! Onward March!
Price of boots will be higher in spring. Still there must be plenty of leather left after what was not put in those army boots.
Jack Johnson wires: "No chance for me to go to Mexico." Authorities probably figure they're not enough trouble there now.
What's The Answer?
Loaf of bread weighing a pound and a half costs six cents in Toronto. Loaf of the same weight costs nine cents in St. John. Merely a difference of opinion and three cents as to who needs the dough.
If there comes a general election in the early summer as Ottawa predicts, what's to become of the war news?
Get-Rich-Quick Patriots.
Some of those contracting with the government on war supplies must have been trying to emulate Wallingford. Auditor-general at Ottawa yesterday showed that one agent made a profit of $11.4 per cent on medical supplies.
Yes, up to now, it's a fine summer we've been having this winter.
"Wait for the Next Car."
Street Railway Company's annual report showed profits of $79,908.86, even with extraordinary expenses last year. Once more we'll like to see a few extra cars at the rush hours.

C. E. COLWELL'S ESTATE $17,900
Estate of Charles Edward Colwell of the West Side, coal and fish merchant, deceased. Last will and codicil proved, whereby the deceased gives to his married daughters, namely:—Bessie, wife of Henry A. Palmer, of Hyde Park, Massachusetts; to Sadie, wife of Daniel Buchanan of Houston, Maine; to Pearl, wife of Joseph C. Nichols of St. John, accountant, and to Margaret, wife of Frederick T. Walsh of St. John, $600 each on condition that they first convey their respective interests in the house at No. 105 King street, St. John West, where the deceased died, and the furniture and household effects therein to his trustees in trust for the use and benefit of his unmarried children, who shall occupy the said house, it being his desire that so long as they remain unmarried they shall have the use of such house; he gives to his unmarried daughters the sum of $1,000 each; his furniture to his trustees for the benefit of such unmarried children; certain portions of his real estate he gives to his trustees in trust to sell and pay his liabilities—the balance of the proceeds of the sale of his real estate and the good will of his fish and coal business, and the rest of his estate to his trustees in trust to continue managing the business or to sell the same and to invest the proceeds for the use of his sons until they are 21 years of age, after which time he desires that the business be transferred to his sons, but charging the same hereafter with the payment of $1,000 annually to his daughters then unmarried, but when the business is sold then the unmarried daughters are to share with the sons in the rest of his estate, and he nominates George W. Noble, accountant, and W. Henry Hazen, barrister, executors and trustees, and guardian of his infant children, five in number. The other seven children are of age. W. Henry Harrison being about 17 years of age, and his Ammunition Column of His Majesty's Expeditionary Force, George W. Noble is for the present sworn in as executor, reserving the right to the said W. Henry Harrison to apply to be sworn in at some later time. Real estate $8,000. Personal, including a life policy for $2,000, $17,000. Total estate $17,900. Messrs. Inches & Hazen, proctors.

NATIONAL SECRETARY OF Y. M. C. A. BOYS WORK IN EAST FOR MARCH
Now in St. John and Will Spend Month Actively in Maritime Provinces
Taylor Statten, Canadian National Boys' Work secretary, will be in the Maritime provinces during March in the interests of boys' work in connection with the Sunday schools, the Y. M. C. A. and other organizations dealing with boys. Mr. Statten is in the city after spending a few days in Ottawa, Montreal, Quebec and Sherbrooke, speaking at boys' conferences and banquets. He will visit all the larger centres in the provinces during the course of the next round development to a more efficient manhood. These tests, as outlined in a booklet issued by the committee, are proving a very great assistance to those engaged in boys' work, and especially in Sunday school and association work, wherever they have been tried. The Canadian Presbyterian Sunday School Board, of which Rev. J. C. Robertson is general secretary, has endorsed these tests and they are being extensively used, especially in Ontario and Quebec and in parts of western Canada. To get a hold of the "best boy" is the aim of the tests committee, and the way is provided in these tests along physical, social, mental, and moral lines.

SUDDEN DEATH OF YOUNG MAN
Harry D. Driscoll of Quebec Bank III Only Few Hours
Harry D. Driscoll, a very popular young man, died suddenly of meningitis this morning at his home in Broad street. He was ledger keeper in the Bank of Quebec, Prince Wm. street, and was about his work as usual yesterday morning. Later in the day he complained about not feeling well and was advised to go home. He expected he would be all right in a few hours. During the afternoon his condition became worse and medical aid was summoned. All night he suffered and this morning about seven o'clock he passed away. He was in his nineteenth year, and the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Driscoll. During the last two years he was an active member of St. Peter's Y. M. A., and took deep interest in the debates and literary entertainments. He was also interested in sport and was acknowledged to be one of the most promising baseball players in the society. His death will be keenly felt by his many friends in the city.
Besides his parents he is survived by three brothers, John, Thomas and Florence; and two sisters, Margaret and Helen. The news of his death caused a shock among the younger element in the city, as he was exceptionally popular and highly esteemed by all. He was of genial disposition and won the respect of all with whom he came in contact. His funeral will take place on Monday morning at 8.45 o'clock from his late residence.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY FOR THE ORPHANS
The various Catholic societies which for years have given performances for the benefit of the orphans on St. Patrick's Day are again engaged for March 17 of this year. "O'Brien the Contractor" will be the bill in the Opera House where the Y. M. S. of St. Joseph will hold forth. Rehearsals are now in progress. The St. Peter's Y. M. A. will not follow their usual custom in giving a drama this year but will have a concert instead. "Tris, or Among the Rockies" will be the play in St. Rose's Hall, Milford, while "The Red Rosette" will be the bill in St. Patrick's Hall, Capleton.

CASE AGAINST NORTH END LIQUOR DEALER
Michael Harley appeared in the police court this morning to answer a charge of allowing fighting and drunkenness on his licensed premises in Main street, on the 4th inst. He pleaded not guilty. Sergeant Rankine testified that he and Policeman Corbett went to the defendant's place of business and inquired what was the trouble in the Opera. The defendant, he said, told him that there had been a fight but the men had since departed. The defendant, he said, ordered them off his premises and attempted to forcibly eject Policeman Corbett. The witness said that he had been told that men had left the shop bleeding. As the prosecution desired more witnesses the case was set aside until Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

NOW'S THE TIME: MAKE HIM BUY YOU A NO. 0 HERCULES SPRING BED
ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEED NOT TO BAG OR SAG.
Note the basket edge, which confines the mattress to the top of the spring, so that it cannot spread over the edges. This greatly lengthens the life of the mattress, keeping it in shape, and preserving its square edge much longer than would be the case on an ordinary spring. All sizes, in wood or iron frame.
