Prizes for the highest standing in history were presented to Wm. Roberts and Vicars McLaughlin by Mrs. Fred Z. Fowler of Royal Arch Chapter, I. O. O. E.

The programme was closed by the singing of God Save the King.

The closing exercises of the Winter street school consisted of a two part programme. The first part given by the pupils of Grades I and II, and the second by the pupils of III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, XI, XII.

The second part of the programme consisted of a patriotic pageant, put on by the pupils of Grade IV, and the two Grades III. This opened with a march of Britannia (Mary O'Brien), and her pages (Dorothy Taylor and James Bishop), followed later by three groups of children representing the British Isles.

These in turn did the "British Isles" led by Grace Adillaw; the Kerry Dance, led by Wilbert Pike and Isabel Brown; and a Scotch dance led by Marie Brown and Beatrice Selfridge. There were followed by children representing the parts of the British Empire, as follows: Wales, Arthur Carter, John Cabot, Columbus and a Red Man. This group was led by Lawrence Godard, as a scout, who recited "Kipling's 'The World'." The Canadian characters danced an old-fashioned minuet, after which all the children on the stage joined in a medley of patriotic choruses, including "Boys in Blue, Boys in Blue," which Robert Shannon, as a sailor, took their places on the stage; and a nurses' chorus during which Margaret Dickson and Fern Gibson together sang a little Red Cross nurses. The exercises came to an end with the singing of "Rule Britannia."

A prize for handwriting was given to the winner of the contest. This prize was awarded to John McConnell. This prize grew out of a recent visit of His Worship Mayor McLellan to the school, where he was so impressed by the excellent writing of the little ones that he offered the prize. A pleasing feature of the closing exercises was the presentation of a beautiful umbrella by the staff, Miss Somerville, to the winner of the contest, a teacher of the Grade III girls, has resigned, and will leave for the far east on Presbyterian mission work.

At Aberdeen school the following programme was carried out: "My Old Canadian Home," "Song of the Seasons," "Voice of the Wind," "Invitation to Summer," "Recessional, God Save the King." The choruses were by the whole school.

In Victoria school the pupils held their closing exercises in two sections, the primary divisions going to the assembly hall at 10:30 o'clock and the advanced section about 11:30. The hall was decorated by some of the pupils, and the exercises were very attractive and interesting. In this school there is a total enrollment of nearly 200 and the attendance for the year was more than ninety per cent. Grade 8 history prizes given by the school were: Misses, Sunbonnet and Miss Cunningham's room, by Grace Marshall and Mildred Bassett in Miss Cunningham's room, by Grace Marshall and Mildred Bassett in Miss Cunningham's room, by Grace Marshall and Mildred Bassett in Miss Cunningham's room.

At King Edward school a very attractive programme was given under supervision of Rex R. Cormier, the principal. In his remarks to the pupils and visitors he mentioned the fact that a school record in the matter of attendance had been broken this year, the average for the entire school being practically ninety-three per cent. This was the highest he had ever had in his twenty-five years of teaching. The enrollment of the school is about 450 with ten rooms and the five or six with high marks in each room were mentioned by the principal. He also referred to the unusual length of the holidays, nearly

Dish Towels and Aprons

Let Them Soak Clean in Rinso. THEY should be CLEAN, shouldn't they, all those kitchen things—aprons, towels, dusters, wash cloths etc.? But there are so many and you are so tired! Alright, let Rinso wash them. It will—every stain and speck of dirt will rinse away after a good soaking in the cleaning Rinso suds.

Rinso is the new modern method for the family wash—but use it properly—do not pour the Rinso suds from package to tub—make the Rinso solution first as per directions on the package. Then it guarantees wonderful results.

IF YOU USE A WASHING MACHINE. Soak your clothes in the Rinso suds as usual—for one hour, two hours, overnight, or as long as you wish, add more Rinso solution and work the machine. Rinso thoroughly and dry—you will have a clean, sweet, snow-white wash.

Part Song, A Lullaby—school choir. Good-bye—Norman Black. God Save the King. Prizes were awarded by Valcartier Chapter, I. O. O. E., to the Grade 7 pupils making the highest mark in history for the year—John Cowan, 1st; Alice Wilson, 2nd; Hazel Shepherd, 1st; Oscar Dreakin, 2nd.

On account of the lack of an assembly hall, there was no regular closing, but the grade 8 pupils did their best to make up for the deficiency by giving a repeat performance of a concert they gave a fortnight ago in St. George's hall. They gathered in the entrance hall, and all the class room doors were left open so that the pupils in the other grades as well as the visitors could enjoy the music. This school will soon be housed in a new building, it is hoped by the time school opens again this fall, and there will be a hall for school gatherings. There are now about 610 pupils crowded into twelve rooms. The attendance for the year averaged about ninety per cent. Mrs. W. I. Fenton, on behalf of the Brunswick Chapter, I. O. O. E., presented the grade 8 history prizes to the winners in the two rooms. They were: In Miss H. A. Smith's room, Margaret Lane and George Fenton; in G. T. Dunham's room, Wendell Queen and Louise Lord.

There was no school closing gathering at the LeTour school because the lack of room for the large number of pupils had necessitated the use of the assembly hall for classes. Some of the classes combined, however, and gave programmes in the rooms. Grade 7 and one or two of the other rooms congregated in the hall for the presentation of the Lady Roberts Chapter, I. O. O. E., prize for the highest mark in grade 7 history school, Harold Williamson. Another feature of the work of the I. O. O. E. in this school was the addition of several books to the school library by the Brunswick chapter. The primary classes met together and put on the following programme: See-Saw Song; Sing a Song of Summer; Seven children; Eight White Horses, eight boys; Baby Dreams; Thelma Stanley; recitation, Heloise Jarvis; June Fairies; Finger Play; Lightly Trip, grade 2; singing, Helen Lyon; Sunbaths, four children; clapping game, twelve children; The Swims, grade 2; Cuckoo Clocks, eight children; Five Little Mice, grade 1; recitation; Pony Song, grade 2; Two Sides of the Quest, Jack Valerie; Butterfly, grade 2; Blanket Bay; Strawberry Pickers, grade 1; Daisy Song, grade 2; My Shadow, grade 2. Talk by Rev. W. H. Sampson, National Anthem.

The closing in the Beausoleil school today took the form of a review of the year's work. There was no closing programme, as the big day in this school is always held on Empire Day, and it was (Continued on page 8, first column)
