RECENT DEATHS

The death of Mrs. Louisa E. Wilson occurred yesterday after a short illness at her home, 111 Paradise row. Mrs. Wilson was the widow of Ames S. Wilson, barrister, of Dorchester, and daughter of the late James Harris, who will be remembered as proprietor of the Harris car works in this city some years ago. Four sisters survive, Mrs. Wm. Eason, New York; Mrs. John Thornton, New York; Mrs. James Robertson, Sewickie (Penn.); Mrs. James Howat, Enderby (B.C.).

The death occurred at West Roxbury, Boston, on Friday, of Mrs. John Carter, formerly of Fredericton. She was a daughter of the late Martin Burke, of Hanwell, and leaves besides her husband, three sons, two daughters, one sister and one brother. One son, John, was killed in the late war.

The death of Mrs. Mary Car Wetmore occurred yesterday at the residence of her son, W. J. Wetmore, 4 deMonts street. Mrs. Wetmore, who before her marriage was Miss Mary Carr, and was brought up by her uncle, William Jordan, was a life long resident of St. John, and a wide circle of friends will regret to hear of her death. She leaves to mourn besides her son, two daughters, Mrs. James Munro and Mrs. Gordon McCaw, both of Winnipeg.

Cornelius Keane, a well known and highly respected resident of this city, passed away last evening at his residence, 97 Winter street, leaving to mourn one sister, Mrs. J. H. Doody, and one brother, Patrick W. Keane, both of this city. The late Mr. Keane was connected for a number of years with the dry goods firm of M. and H. A. McCollough until 1889 when he and his brother started a dry goods store on the Golden Ball corner. They remained in this business until 1910, when they retired. The many friends of Mr. Keane in the city will be very grieved to hear of his death and their sympathy will be extended to the sorrowing relatives.

Mrs. Mary Calderwood died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Jamieson, River Chert, March 29, at the age of eighty-six years. She leaves two sons, three sisters and a brother.

Arthur Bours died at his home in Petticoat Monday evening, leaving his wife, one daughter and three sons. He was seventy-two years old.

Mrs. Catherine Corbett, formerly Miss McInerney of this city, died at her home in Moncton on Sunday, at the age of sixty-seven years. She leaves one son and six daughters, including Sister Marion of this city.

The death of Mrs. Jonathan Dickson took place at her home, Centre Napan, on Wednesday, at the age of ninety-one years. She leaves four sons, three daughters and one brother.

The death of Rev. Duncan Henderson took place at his home in Chatham on Saturday night, after a lingering illness, one daughter and three sons. He was a native of Kilmory.

WOMEN! DYE IT AND SEE!

Instead of Buying, Add Years of Wear to Old, Faded Garments with "Diamond Dyes"—Fun!

Fight high living costs with "Diamond Dyes." Perfect results are sure, no matter if your old apparel be wool or silk; linen, cotton or mixed goods.

"Diamond Dyes" are guaranteed to give a new, rich, fadeless color to house-dresses, gingham, aprons, blouses, stockings, skirts, sweaters, children's coats, draperies, everything!

The Direction Book in package tells plainly how to diamond-dye over any color. You can not make a mistake. To match material, have druggists show you "Diamond Dye" Color Card. Accept no substitute!

ASK SECRETARY OF LABOR TO HELP END 'LONGSHOREMEN'S STRIKE'

New York, March 30—Secretary of Labor Wilson was asked by the American Steamship Owners' Association in a telegram last night, to aid in settling the strike of nearly 20,000 longshoremen affecting coastwise and Gulf shipping from Boston to Galveston.

HON. MR. KING DENIES IT.

Ottawa, March 30—A flat denial of a report published in a Los Angeles newspaper that he was going to California to study the open shop policy was made to the Canadian Press last night by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, leader of the Liberal party in Canada. He said he had not been approached on such a matter and had no thought of making the case a study. His efforts at this time were all required in Canada.

Cost of Hudson Bay Railway.

Ottawa, March 30—(Canadian Press)—The Hudson Bay Railway cost Canada $13,890,807 for its 832 miles of steel and $6,448,449 for its terminals up to the end of the last fiscal year. It will cost $7,000,000 to complete the railway. These figures were given out in the House of Commons yesterday.

Threaten General Strike.

London, March 30—A deputation of trade unionists and socialists visited King Christian Monday evening and notified him that unless he revoked the dismissal of Premier Zable, a general strike would be called throughout Denmark next Wednesday, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen.

Playing the business two ways means that, in the end, you lose both ways.
