CHANGE IN INDIA WHICH DISCUSSED

Lansdowne and Curzon Brought it up In The House

REASONS FOR TRANSFER

Appraised as Bold Stroke by Liberal and Some Unionist Papers—Persia Will Not Give in to Russia and Now Turkey May Be Involved

(Canadian Press) London, Dec. 13.—The Marquis of Lansdowne, the opposition leader, and Lord Curzon of Kedleston, who was viceroy of India from 1898 to 1905, spoke gravely in the House of Lords last night concerning the Indian changes, and some of the Conservative morning papers follow suit. The disaffection, however, is due to the fact that this policy involves a reversal of Lord Curzon's policy, bringing about the partition of Bengal, and the fear that the new departure may be construed in India as a yielding to political agitation. The change of capital to Delhi, is applauded generally, and almost all moderate opinion approves the changes. The official papers leaned on the subject, show that the new policy proposed by the Indian government, was weightily considered before it was adopted, as being essential to the growth of local self government in India on a safe and sound basis. Although the changes may be much criticised in parliament, all party leaders recognize as they were announced by the King himself, that they are irrevocable. The Liberal papers and some of the Unionist papers, applaud the changes as showing wisdom and imagination in the part of the government. The transfer is thought to be largely attributable to political unrest in Bengal. The recent revolutionary discontent largely originated in Calcutta, and the task of disaffection on this account was rendered more difficult. Delhi, as the ancient capital, is regarded by the masses of the eastern empire as a sort of shrine so that the change will minimize the effects of Bengalee disaffection. London, Dec. 13.—A despatch from Tseren to the Times says that Premier Sazonov today filled the cabinet posts. He told the Melles that before presenting the names of the ministers, he must announce that the cabinet would be formed in London. The Melles thereupon refused to accept the cabinet. The opposition in the parliament to the American treasurer general, is stronger than ever. There has been much talk recently of Turkey intervening in Persia. The Times correspondent confirms the report that serious trouble between Russia and Persia is possible. He believes that Turkey is mobilizing an army in Asia Minor, a reply to the action of the Russian troops to Kobi, in northwest Persia, which Turkey's western flank. The latter is vital to Turkey and he declared to be more important than Tripoli. It is believed, however, that Turkey wishes to lighten it out by diplomatic negotiations. St. Petersburg, Dec. 13.—The Russia says into a special agreement not to attempt restore the ex-Shah Mohamed Ali Mirza the Persian throne.

PEACE MEETING BECOMES SCENE OF WILD TURMOIL

Speakers Hissed and Hooted and Carnegie Sits Spellbound While Riot Goes on—Pandemonium Started Over Arbitration Treaty Resolutions

(Canadian Press) New York, Dec. 13.—A riotous outbreak interrupted a large mass meeting held in Carnegie Hall last night, in support of the arbitration treaties which President Taft has proposed with England and France. Twenty-eight reserve policemen were hurried to the hall and eight persons were forcibly ejected. The outbreak occurred after Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, had read resolutions urging the senate to ratify the treaties and Alford G. Koebler of the German American Citizens League of the State of New York, stepped to the front of the platform and moved that the majority resolution of the United States senate committee on foreign relations be adopted as a substitute for the declarations contained in the Butler resolution. "This declaration is not a promoter of peace, but a breeder of war," he explained, and the words were scarcely out of his mouth, when men jumped to their feet of the stage, and raised their hands in an apparent signal, whereupon pandemonium broke out in the galleries. Catcalls, yells, groans, and hisses—some of which were directed at the speaker, and some at the speaker's audience—were heard in every part of the hall. The speaker, who was sitting in the center of the stage, was completely spellbound. He was surrounded by a group of men who were shouting and hooting at him. THE VALLEY RAILWAY

(Special to Times) Fredericton, N. B., Dec. 13.—Announcement that the Valley Railway contract has been signed was received with enthusiasm here. Fredericton has always been commended for its isolation and it is felt that the construction of this railway will mean the dawn of a new era for this city. Satisfaction is expressed that the government has adopted the plan outlined by Hon. Mr. Pugsley and heartily supported by the Fredericton Board of Trade. Several engineers of the Quebec & St. John Railway Company will immediately take up their shovels here and make preparations for the survey work. William J. Scott, of this city, has arranged with A. R. Gould to supply sleepers and ties for the section between Fredericton and Woodstock and will immediately let sub contracts so that they can be got out during the coming winter. It is said that residents of the St. John Valley who proctored a charter for the railway two years ago will have their money refunded although no provision seems to have been made for this. Sir Thomas Tait is here today interviewing the government in regard to the Chipman & Minto Railway in which he is interested. Miss Frankie Tibbits, who has been manager of Misses Young's millinery establishment for about a year, has resigned. Continued soft weather has caused all the snow to disappear from the streets.
