

Which is satisfactory to the Meeting, and those Friends are appointed members of that Meeting for three years—They are directed to meet together and organize.

The Committee appointed to place twelve copies of George Fox's Journal in the Public Libraries in Canada report that they have fulfilled the purpose for which they were appointed.

The Meeting entered upon and concluded the examination of the State of its Members as presented in the Answers to the Queries forwarded by the Quarterly Meetings, a summary of which is as follows :

1st. Although deviations are apparent, especially in the middle of the week, most Friends are careful to attend all our Meetings for religious worship and discipline. The hour is nearly observed and no unbecoming behavior to remark, except occasional drowsiness. Some care taken in the above deficiencies in one Meeting.

2nd. With two exceptions, we believe Friends are preserved in love one towards another ; when differences arise care is taken to end them speedily. Talebearing and detraction are discouraged and mostly avoided.

3rd. Most Friends endeavor to train up their children and those of other Friends under their care, in the principles of the Christian religion as professed by us ; plainness and simplicity of dress, language and deportment not so fully maintained as is desirable. They are mostly good examples in these respects themselves, and endeavor to guard their children and all others under their care against corrupt conversation and the reading of pernicious books.

4th. So far as we know, Friends are diligent in reading the Holy Scriptures in their families collectively.

5th. Friends avoid the use of intoxicating drinks except for purposes strictly medicinal and are clear of frequenting taverns and of attending places of diversion.

6th. The circumstances of the poor and of those likely to require assistance are duly inspected and relief
