

DAVIES' PART.

GES ENDORSET

nd co

STILL EXIST.

PETITCODIAC, June 25. - Last means lived there, and in the minor of the Bacumans, is summer to the state of this Backs and the synchroid many hardwhard, while and ould, in the mildow weather live to this Backs and the synchroid the state of this Backs and the synchroid the state of the Back Backs and the synchroid the state of the Back Backs and the synchroid the state of the Back Backs and the synchroid the state of the Backs Backs and the synchroid the state of the Backs Backs and the synchroid the state of the Backs Backs and the synchroid the state of the Backs Backs Back Backs Bac evening, D. S. Smith, who for ninement, public or private, you and in-dividual members of your family were ever ready to do what you could. "To every worthy object you have and other the year which ends tonight, Dr. Bor-the year which ends tonight, Dr. Bor-the year which ends tonight, Dr. Bor-the year which ends tonight, Dr. Bor-den promising to see the Bate firm and secure either a refund or an ex-planation of the discrepancy between their account and the agreement. speak of your highly respected mo-ther, whose efforts in the Sunday THE SENATE. The newest senator, Hon. Mr. Kerr school and social life the village can-not be too much praised. Surely it can be truthfully said of her: "She bath done what she could." a. Kerr said that the senate deserved the country a great head of money.
but he begged his fellow senators not the begged his fellow senators not the senators for rejecting the first in savings bank for the par ending June 30th aggregated 114,000; withdrawals, $117,091.
but he begged his fellow frequency is to the senators for rejecting the first in savings bank for the par ending June 30th aggregated 114,000; withdrawals, $117,091.
While Byron Phairs of this city was a compared with $13,945 for the corresponding period last year.
Beposits in savings bank for the par ending June 30th aggregated 114,000; withdrawals, $117,091.
While Byron Phairs bank for the par ending June 30th aggregated 114,000; withdrawals, $117,091.
While Byron Phairs of this city was increding his running horse yesterday, the animal stumbled and fell, breaking Mr. Phair's shoulder.
OTTAWA, July 3.-Yesterday was scheered by his supporters and some members of the government side. When he had taken his seat a messenger appeared with a magnificent vase of roses, 78 in number, the gift of the opposition members. Sir Charles bowed his thanks amid renewed cheering.
Later in the sitting Sir Wilfrid Lauries and hoped he might enjoy many more years to accenty the nogition heave falled the church. During the list or the more thodist church hast evenfing, and his address was instand to be yone of the largest and most representative audiences that ever filled the church. During the list or the more thodist church hast evenfing and his address was instance to by one of the largest and into the thodist church hast evenfing and his address was instance to by one of the largest and into the composition heaved the church. "That a long and happy life may be hers is the heartfelt wish of everyone "And finally we wish you every suc-cess. The whole community regrets the loss. We hope the west will exwell and God-speed." Mr. Smith feelingly thanked his friends for the kindly sentiment exothers. One of the most pleasing parts of the entertainment was a solo by W. W. Hanscom, it, of Boston. The good time was kept up till an early hour, and then after singing Auld Lang Syne the party broke up. Mr. Smith will leave tomorrow even-ing. He will reside in New Whatcom, where two of his brothers have already settled. He took an active interest in all that pertained to the welfare of this village, and was the main pro-moter of the Petitoodiac cheese fac-tory, whose output last ycar amount-ed to nearly fifty tons. The energy and ability which tharacterized Mr. Smith here will find freer scope in the west, and his triends may expect to bear of him attaining a prominent po-sition in the land of his adoption.

despatch from Rennes, which gives another account of Dreyfus's arrival. According to this despatch the Sfax arrived at Penestin, at the mouth of rallway, was attacked by fire on Sat-urday afternoon and practically wiped: out of existence. The village contain-ed about seventy-five houses, with a population of about five hundred, but when the fire had done its work only a dozen houses remained. The fire started in the e ed sta ang wind blowing from evident from the first was doomed. If apwas a very strong vind blowing from the west it was evident from the first that the place was doomed. If ap-pears that for some two days past a fire had been smouldering in the wharf at this point, but on Friday night the villagers thought they had completely extinguished it. completely extinguished it. The fire leaped from house to house with terrible rapidity, and within an hour from the starting of the fire the hour from the starting of the fire the entire village was ablaze. The whole lake shore was strewn with shavings and other inflammable material, which gave the flames a foothold which nothing could resist. The buildings were all of wood, and with the large piles of pulp wood and lumber the fire found food, which it required many hours to commune lumber the fire found food, which it required many hours to consume. Sherbrooke sent firemen and a reel to the scene. The firemen remained during the greater part of the night and kept, several streams of water playing upon the smouldering embers of the town, lest they should take new life from the ever-increasing wind and attack the few outlying buildings which remained. The fine new church which stood just outside the village to the west remained unscathed. Over four hundred people were ren-dered homeless, and many of them are destitute. The whole of their be-longings have been swept away. Many took refuge in the church, and the few houses that remained opened their doors to the homeless. There were many heartrending scenes. many heartrending scenes.

an, Russell, was and in 1889 for nd he had aded by Sir L sent on a flying arge the important inspector, duties uld not, legally pe r Hibbert Tupper said: affairs in Quebes during reach regime ware, I re-milar to the condition of on, if one-half of what and be true. The right (Sir Wilfirid Laurier) below the conditional lave d), is th not our country ? Spe n's provider office a way f trary an nd, a 10 8 t I do

SUMMED UP.

1 have put

The ma

BASE BALL. Sunday Ball Playing. STRACUSE, N. Y., July 2.—The Syracuse has ball team attempted to play ball with forteal this atterator. As soon as the first ball was pliched, the policemen came on the ground and arrested Flicher Ville, and Catcher Dion, Umpire Boyd and Kar-ter from a bitched by Geo. N. Kuntsch, whore the strong a source to save the visitors from the men were balled by Geo. N. Kuntsch, whore when they are arraigned tomorrow, will ask favorable to him, he may play heat Sunday favorable to him, he may play heat favorable favorable to him, he may play heat Sunday favorable to him, he may play heat favorable favorable to

Won. Brooklyn :

THE WHEEL

THE WHEEL. A Long Ride. AUGUSTA, Me., July 2.- Edwin Simends arrived at moon today from Hartford. Conn., on a bleycle, having made the ride of 305 1-2 willes in 28 hours and 37 minutes, which is under record time. He was paced all but a few miles of the distance and finished well. Mr. Simonds resides in Winstead. Conn., and has quite a reputation in Con-meticut, where he has captured many prizes.

A Fast Mile.

A Fast Mile. WALTHAM, Mass., July 3.-There was a small sittendance at the opening of two days' bicycle meet at the Waltham track to-day. The races were, however, of an ex-cellent description, the feature being the breaking of the American one-mile amateur paced record, with a fiying start, by E. E. Ryan of this city. Ryan rode strong throughout, and made the distance in 1.40 fat, which is within three-fifths of a second of the world's record. The former Ameri-can record was 1.43 2-5, made by Arthur Gardner, at the Willow Grove track, Phila-deiphia. Ryan was paced by two quads and three quints. C. W. A. Sus

C. W. A. Suspensions. The racing board of the C. W. A. an-nounces that it has suspended A. H. White-nect, W. W. Garnett, T. W. R. Ellis, C. K. Canard and - Jackson until Sept. 30th, for competing in unlicensed bicycle races on July ist, after being warned not to do so. All amateurs are cautioned against com-peting with them A fine of $10 has been imposed on R. J. Armstrong by the C. W. A. for holding bicycle races on July ist after having been refused a sanction. A. Patterson, chairman of the racing board, called at the Sun office last evening in Petitcodiac.

ceed your most sanguine expectations and that your efforts to build up a new home on the shores of the Pacific may be crowned with an abundant

"And now farewell to you and your wife, to your mother, brothers and sis-pressed, after which speeches were made by Dr. Fleming, Dr. Trites, B. Ryan, D. A. Jonah, F. Soden and others. One of the most pleasing parts of the entertainment was a solo

LONDON, July 2-Joseph Chamberlain, sec-retary, of state for the colonies, had a con-terence today with the Canadian and colonial agents regarding the Pacific cable project. LONDON, July 3-Joseph Chamberlain, sec-retary of state for the colonies, had a con-ference today with the Canadian and colonian agents regarding the Pacific cable project. Reliable News in the Semi-Weekly Sun-Reliable News in the Semi-Weekly Sun-

FREDERICTON

Police Court Fines and Customs Receipts During the Past Month.

FREDERICTON, July 3.-At the police court in the month of June the fines collected totalled the sum of $318.50; $250 of this was for violation of the Scott act. The total value of goous entered at the port of Fredericton last month was $18,084 and $2,499 duty was paid.

Between Golumbus Avenue and Tremont Street.

BOSTON, MASS.

morning. A boat was lowered and Dreyfus was taken to Redon, where he took a train for Rennes at 5 o'clock.

The prisoner was seen when passing the lock at the Temple de Blosne. He did not look particularly aged, but seemed to be dazed. He was dressed in black and wore a soft hat. His black hair and beard were streaked with gray.

PARIS, July 3 .- As the outcome of the government's prudence, all France remains tranquil. Maitres Demange and Labori, with M. Mathieu Dreyfus and Labori, with M. Mathleu Dreyfus and his wife, arrived last evening at Rennes. The town is quite tranquil. Mattre Labori, who will defend Cap-tain Dreyfus before the court martial, has never yet seen him. Madame. Dreyfus has only obtained permission to visit her husband thrice weekly to visit her husband thrice weekly for an hour. His composure is the theme of all tongues. It seems that in the train one of the officers began to read a newspaper, but although Dreyfus had not seen a newspaper since he left France he did not dis-play the slightest interest. He speaks very little, and seems to suffer a par-tial paralysis of speech, owing to his long silence. Even on board the Sfax he had to communicate with the offilong silence. Even on board the Sfax he had to communicate with the offi-cers by writing. He is credited on good authority with the following utterance: "My condemnation and sentence were the symbol of anti-Jewish odium. My judges were in-voluntarily deceived. May my unde-served explation put an end to all radical or religious feuds in the army and in that France which I have pas-sionately loved and served." Today sionately loved and served." Today Maitre Demange will give him a writ-ten statement of all that has hap-tering the room Demange and Drey-tering the room Demange and Deep Tus threw themselves into each other's arms. The scene was most touching. Neither was able to utter z word, but Neither was able to utter z word, but

BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

and in that France which I nave passion that be a service of the statement of all that has happened, and fully explain the situation.
The Prince of Monaco has written to Madame Dreyfus a sympathetic letter, inviting her husband to sojourn at his chateau after the acquittal, which in the judgment of the prince is certain to be announced.
TONDON, July 3.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Brest, says: "Dreyfus was guarded on board the Stax like a wild beast. He was isolated like a cholera stricken patient. If the cruiser had foundered he would have gone to his grave believing that General de Boisderre was his courageous friend and champion, and altogether ignorant that such a man as Colonel, Picquart exists."
RENNES, France, July 3.—Maitres Labori and Demange, counsel for LONDON, July 3 .- In the house of and altogether ignorant that such a man as Colonel, Picquart exists." RENNES, France, July 3.—Maitres adopted by a vote of 223 to 101. The part of the lawyers counsel for reading of the military works bill John Dillon, nationalist, objected to the proposed expenditure on the de-fences at Halifax and Bermuda, add-ing the formit believed all the grand bore the inscription: "Tenth army corps, tribunal of the outre descent the inscription: "Tenth army corps, tribunal of the court martial. Permit to communicate with Captain Drey-fus, whom he is charged to defend." This was the first time M. Demange the defender of Dreyfus at the court martial of 1894, and Dreyfus had seen each other since the sentence. On en-tering the room Demange and Drey-