

FROM GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Mothers Should Watch the Development of Their Daughters—
Interesting Experiences of Misses Borman and Mills.

Every mother possesses information which is of vital interest to her young daughter. Too often this is never imparted or is withheld until serious harm has resulted to the growing girl through her ignorance of nature's mysterious and wonderful laws and penalties.

Girls' over-sensitiveness and modesty often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians as they so often withhold their confidence from their mothers and conceal the symptoms which ought to be told to their physician at this critical period.

When a girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness or a disposition to sleep, pains in back or lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude; when she is a mystery to herself and friends, her mother should come to her aid, and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change, and start the menstrual period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Hundreds of letters from young girls and from mothers, expressing their gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished for them, have been received by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., at Lynn, Mass.

Miss Mills has written the two following letters to Mr. Pinkham, which will be read with interest:

Dear Mr. Pinkham:—(First Letter.) "I am but fifteen years of age, am depressed, have dizzy spells, chills, headache and back-ache, and as I have heard that you can give helpful advice to girls in my condition, I am writing you."—Myrtle Mills, Quakwaka, Ill.

Dear Mr. Pinkham:—(Second Letter.) "I write to you to tell you what your valuable medicine has done for me. When I wrote you in regard to my condition, I had consulted several doctors, but they failed to understand my case and I did not receive any benefit from their treatment. I followed your advice, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now healthy and well, and all the distressing symptoms which I had at that time have disappeared."—Myrtle Mills, Quakwaka, Ill.

Miss Matilda Borman writes Mrs. Pinkham as follows:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound my months were irregular and painful, and I always had such dreadful headaches. But since taking the Compound my headaches have entirely disappeared, my months are regular, and I am getting strong and well. I am telling all my girl friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Matilda Borman, Farmington, Iowa.

If you know of any young girl who needs and needs motherly advice, ask her to address Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her every detail of her symptoms, and to keep nothing back. She will receive advice absolutely free, and a source that has no rival in the experience of woman's ills, and it will, if followed, put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of cures of female ills of any medicine that the world has ever known. Why don't you try it?

ELECTRIC CARS FOR THE ISLAND.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., Nov. 7.—It is understood that the business men of Summerside have held a survey for establishing a line of electric cars taking in the surrounding villages to Summerside, such as St. Eleanor's, Traveller's Rest, New Annan, Kensington, etc. This line, it is proposed, should form a circle, with Summerside as the starting point, and embracing the above places, with extensions to Miscouche and other villages, it deemed desirable after the first experiment. There are no electric roads as yet in the province. A bill was introduced into the legislature some years ago asking for power to a company to establish a line in Charlottetown, with extensions to hotels on the north shore, but owing to strong opposition to a clause which provided for running cars on Sunday, the measure was killed.

John Aban McDonald was tried before Stipendiary Magistrate yesterday at Georgetown on a charge of establishing his son Murdoch, during a potato digging frolic on Thanksgiving evening at Piquet Road, and was sent up to the supreme court.

LONDON STATISTICS.

London has 1,000 ships and 9,000 sailors in its port every day. It has on an average upwards of 75,000 persons annually taken into custody by the police, 27,000 persons living in its common lodging-houses, 25,000 persons annually arrested as drunk and disorderly, and more than one-third of all the crime of the country is committed within its radius.

Don't Neglect a Cough or Cold

IT CAN HAVE BUT ONE RESULT. IT LEAVES THE THROAT OR LUNGS, OR BOTH, AFFECTED.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP IS THE MEDICINE YOU NEED.

It is without an equal as a remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Pain in the Chest, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Quinsy and all affections of the Throat and Lungs.

A single dose of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will stop the cough, soothe the throat, and if the cough or cold has become settled on the lungs, the healing properties of the Norway Pine Tree will proclaim its great virtue by promptly radiating the bad effects, and a persistent use of the remedy cannot fail to bring about a complete cure.

Do not be lured into buying so-called Norway Pine Syrup, but be sure and insist on having Dr. Wood's. It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, and price 25c.

Mrs. Henry Seabrook, Hopworth, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup in our family for the past three years and I consider it the best remedy known for the cure of colds. It has cured all my children and myself."

Athol.

ATHOL, Nov. 6.—There have been several interesting changes in real estate worthy of note. Gilbert Harrison has sold the estate of his late father, Moses Harrison, to Guilford Brown, but has the privilege of remaining on the property until spring. Guilford and Victor Brown have also purchased the estate of the late Fred Gilroy in Macdonald from his daughter, Martha, the only survivor of the family. In addition to these properties, which are both well timbered, the Brown brothers have bought a block of timber land from Hibbert Hunter.

Albert Pugsley having assigned, his effects were sold by Official Assignee A. E. Eller, last Thursday, on Friday a meeting of creditors was called in Amherst. It was found that the claims against the estate amounted to $2,100, and the assets were nil. Jephtha Harrison, mortgagee of the farm, has been closed and the real estate will be sold in Amherst court house on the 17th instant.

Cecil Baker's infant child is very seriously ill of diphtheria.

An accident that might have cost the life of one of our best citizens, occurred on Saturday. Reid Baker was crossing the track with a horse and cart near Little Fork Mills, when the train ran into his cart, separating the hind wheels and throwing the horse and the remainder of the cart with its occupant into the ditch. Had the cart been strong enough to have held together, it would have swung it around before it, carrying a man and team to inevitable destruction. The train hands saw the team too late to avert the accident, but stopped and Conductor Dixon went back and found Mr. Baker, a very old man and team to inevitable destruction. The train hands saw the team too late to avert the accident, but stopped and Conductor Dixon went back and found Mr. Baker, a very old man and team to inevitable destruction.

Town Clerk Kelly was brought home yesterday from the Victoria General Hospital on a stretcher, and arrived at his home on Sunday morning. He is not near of his son's death until he reached Springfield Junction, as the message did not reach Halifax until after he left. Dr. McConnel of the hospital said he is much improved, but is still extremely weak. Mr. Kelly has had far more than the usual amount of trouble, in addition to personal illness, he has lost four children within a few years. Much sympathy is felt for the afflicted family.

ELECTION RETURNS.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The closeness of the vote for Draper and Whitney for lieutenant governor was the principal feature of the elections. The first towns which reported were nearly all in the southeastern part of the state, and while Bartlett fell far behind the vote of Douglas last year, and Guild, this year's republican candidate, gained steadily on his democratic opponent, Whitney clung tenaciously to Draper, and at times during the tabulation was ahead of him in the totals. The 25,000 which Boston gave the second place, which was the ticket sent Whitney up into the lead and aroused the hopes of his followers.

Worcester gave Draper 1,800 votes over Whitney, and Springfield 600 more, which practically clinched the contest for the Hopeless candidate. It is many years since there has been such a close vote for the second place on the ticket.

Locally, the contest for district attorney was the feature and a very unexpected one. Michael J. Sughrue, who was appointed last spring after the death of Oliver Stevens, was endorsed by both democrats and republicans, while John E. Morse, a local lawyer, obtained a place on the ticket through individual endorsements. It was expected that Mr. Sughrue would win without difficulty, but at a late hour tonight it looked as if Mr. Morse's short but aggressive campaign had given him the victory.

Another incident was the defeat in the Suffolk representative district of Thomas F. Curley, the democratic candidate who was dropped from last year's house because of his conviction in the United States court for conspiracy in a civil service examination.

IN RHODE ISLAND.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 7.—An unexpected heavy poll for the republican candidate for the executive chair, Governor George H. Utter, which was expected to give him a plurality of about 3,000 over the democratic nominee, Lucius F. C. Garvin, was the greatest feature of the state election today.

Governor Utter's running mates on the ticket also seemed sure of abnormal large pluralities at midnight.

Republican gains were made in each branch of the legislature, and in the two principal cities of the state republican mayors seemed assured of election after democratic successes almost unbroken for the past decade.

IN CONNECTICUT.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 7.—The election in Connecticut today was confined to the cities of Bridgeport and Ansonia, where the regular city elections were held. Mayor Mulvihill of Bridgeport, known as the "stoker mayor," was defeated by Marcus L. Reynolds, the republican candidate, by over 500 votes, and in Ansonia, Alton Farrell, the republican nominee, defeated Mayor Stephen Charters by 289 votes.

IN MARYLAND.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 7.—The election in Maryland today was for state comptroller, legislature and county officers, and in Baltimore for a judge of the supreme court, sheriff, city clerk and surveyor. The issue which engaged popular attention was a proposed constitutional amendment, the avowed purpose of which was to disfranchise negro voters, but which aroused widespread opposition among democrats and foreign voters in both parties. The returns have been slow but so far as received they make certain the defeat of the proposed constitutional amendment by a decisive majority of 30,000 or more. The very probable election of McCulloch, republican, state comptroller, over Atkinson, democrat, and the election of republicans in three out of four of the legislative districts, the republican candidates for sheriff, city clerk and city surveyor in Baltimore are also elected. Chief Judge Harlan, democrat, is re-elected by 10,000 majority. The political complexion of the next legislature is uncertain.

IN NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 7.—The election in New Jersey today increased the republican hold upon the state legislature, and made it impossible that a democrat should succeed U. S. Senator John P. Dryden in 1907. In the state senate the republicans made a gain of three.

Colby, the independent republican in Essex county, whose fight against the organization of his party attracted wide interest, was swept into office by a majority probably of 10,000.

In Jersey City, Mayor Fagan, despite the active opposition of the republican machine, he being an independent republican of the Colby type, was again elected.

POLITICAL CLASHES.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—One hundred and forty-two precincts out of 184 in the city of Louisville gave Paul C. Barth, democratic nominee for mayor, 15,375, and O'Neil, fusion, 12,978. Barth's plurality, 2,396. Charges of extensive frauds are made by the fusionists against the democratic city administration. Several clashes occurred during the day, two political workers receiving slight pistol wounds, and a large number, including several prominent citizens, being clubbed or arrested.

The complexion of the legislature will be practically unchanged.

MECHANICAL SCULPTOR.

Machinery is being used to do a lot of work in turning out fine arts for the world's consumption. The "mechanical sculptor" is a case in point. It works on the principle of the American automatic turning lathe, reproducing absolutely the outlines of any pattern placed in it. The mechanical sculptor turns a block of marble fresh from the quarry into a statue in an amazing short time. The operator passes a "pointer" over the statue to be copied, while a chisel at the other end of the machine whittles off the marble block to correspond.

ARREST TWO GIRLS WHO RAN MISSION

Pretty and Demure, the Misses Shand Believe That Charity Should End at Home.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Agnes and Kitty Shand, sisters, young, pretty and demure, pleaded guilty in Essex Market court to obtaining money under false pretenses through the agency of a mission which they established and conducted for their own personal benefit.

It was their idea that charity should begin at home and stay there. They opened what they called the Samaritan Mission at No. 63 Thilly street, Brooklyn, last March. They then donned a garb that suggested membership in some religious order. Next fitting tailor made suits, with small poke bonnets to set off their pretty faces helped them in their appeals for contributions.

A piano, a table and chairs, with a supply of Bibles and hymn books made the mission look like the real article.

Kitty Shand, who is eighteen years old, conducted the meetings, and Agnes, who is sixteen, stood at the door and invited all of the poor people of the vicinity to enter and be saved. A poorly dressed woman, with a little baby in her arms, was a frequent visitor at the mission. She was pointed out as an unfortunate whose husband had left her to starve in the streets.

In the daytime the sisters visited residents, stores and offices and begged for contributions to work among the poor. James Forbes of the Charity Organization Society, made an investigation which resulted in the arrest of the girls. He was unable to discover that any one had been helped except members of the Shand family. The woman with the child was found to be the mother of two missionaries. Her father, Thomas Shand, sometimes peddles artificial flowers for a living. A brother of the girls is a truck driver. The family lived in a tenement at No. 25 Hudson avenue, Brooklyn.

The records of the Charity Organization Society show that the family had been objects of charity at intervals for years.

Agnes was arrested in Forsyth street, Manhattan. She had $9 in her purse. From her neck a gold cross was suspended and at her throat she wore a silver star inscribed "Samaritan Mission."

Kitty was arrested later at the Brooklyn bridge.

According to Mr. Forbes the girls said they had collected on an average of $3 a day, and had used part of the money to pay instalments on the piano and the rent of the "mission." The balance had gone to the support of themselves and their parents. They admitted spending some money on theatres. Both girls acknowledged that they had gone wrong and promised to abandon their work. They were paroled for six months in custody of the court probation officer. Their case is unique in the experience of the Charity Organization Society.

THE TRUE BLUE SISTERS

The True Blue Sisters held a social evening recently regarding an interesting programme. Each member invited one guest and at the close of the entertainment a donation was made. Numerically the society is small, but its members have push and talent so that their meetings are full of interest and several are coming in.

The brothers had a most enjoyable time and the host, proposed by Fred Fillmore to our host, and spoke of the oyster stew as being very hearty. CRANE BENNETT.

MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 7.—Mrs. J. P. Delahunt, this city, received a telephone message from Hopewell Cape today informing her of the death of her brother, Crane Bennett, a well known young farmer of the Cape.

Mr. Bennett had been ailing for the past year, but was not considered to be seriously ill. He was about 40 years of age and was a native of Long Island. He was a brother of A. W. Bennett, the well known Sackville barrister, of Powell, Bennett & Harrison. A brother and two sisters live in New York.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—A revolutionary movement has developed in San Domingo and an uprising is threatened. News to this effect has been taken by the navy department and steps are being taken by the State Department to maintain the peace.
