Nova Scotia.—The Railway Bill based on the proposition of the Colonial Secretary, has passed the House of Assembly in Nova Scotia—14 only, voting in the minority. The Provincial Secretary strongly supported it. It will be recollected by our readers, that the committee of the house, to whose consideration the proposition was submitted, [illegible] that it was not prepared to accept it. From [illegible] that New Brunswick would loaf or no bread, and that New Brunswick would assent to the arrangement, a more favorable conclusion was subsequently arrived at. According to the figures of the Hon. W. Johnston, New Brunswick will now construct 38 miles less than under the original agreement, and thereby save £100,000. Beside obtaining a far better route, St. John will become the terminus of the Canada and United States railway. We presume that our Legislature will not hesitate to close the bargain.

"OH! FOR A LODGE IN SOME VAST WILDERNESS."

"Oh, that we had a tongue in that House when the great question came up, we think we should make some people hear."—Morning News.

Using your tongue when at the Mayor's feast last spring, procured for your impudence a well merited castigation from several of your more enlightened contemporaries, which ensured its silence on the Bank parlor occasion, whilst you received the "fatty save one," from the eloquent, but indignant, Hon. J. H. Gray, will never get you into a scrape in the House, occasion as you are to annoy yourself to the people's branch. The blackness of your venom flows only in printer's ink, where like the malignancy of your tongue, it is perfectly inert upon every occasion.

PROTESTANISM IN TURKEY.

The following firman has been issued by the Sultan, for the purpose of legalising and facilitating self-government by the Protestant communities of Turkey:—

"To my Vizir Mohammed-Pasha, Minister of Police in my capital, the honourable minister, the glorious councillor, the model of the world, and director of the affairs of the community, who guiding the public interests with a sublime prudence, establishing the building of the empire with wisdom, and consolidating the columns of its prosperity and glory, is the object of all the grace of the Most High. May God prolong his glory. When this sublime and august order shall come to thee, may it make known that: Whereas, up to the present time, those of my Christian subjects who have embraced the Protestant faith, have suffered vexations and difficulties, because the patriarchs and primates of the ancient faith that they have abandoned naturally could not administer their affairs. And whereas, on account of their belief the subjects above-mentioned form a separate community, my Imperial and compassionate will is, that measures should be adopted by all possible means to facilitate the administration of their affairs, so that they may live tranquilly in peace and security. Thou will, then, allow a respectable person, and one worthy of confidence, chosen by them from among themselves, and who shall be confirmed in his post, to be attached to the department of police. The duty of this agent will be to keep the registers of the members of the community, who will be guarded by the police. He will inscribe in it all the births and all the deaths of the community. Passports, marriages, licenses, and special transactions of the community, required to be remitted to the Sublime Porte, or to any other department, will be delivered with the seal of this agent. For the execution of my will, my present Imperial mandate and my august orders have been specially given and delivered from my Imperial chancery. Thou will then lay above named minister, to conform thyself to the explanations given, will execute to the letter the proceeding ordinance, except so far as regards personal taxes and the delivery of passports, which are subjected to special regulations, against which regulations thou will not cause anything to be done. Thou will not permit that anything shall be exacted under the pretence of fees or charges for marriage licenses or for registration. Thou wilt take care that like other communities of the empire, they have the facilities and assistance of which they may stand in need, in all affairs and in all matters concerning their burying places, and their places of meeting. Thou will not permit any other community to intermeddle in any way with their rights or with anything concerning their religion, in accord, with any of their affairs whether secular or religious, so that they may follow the usages of their faith in security. And it is enjoined thee not to suffer them to be molested upon these points, or upon any others; and that all attention and all perseverence shall be put in requisition to maintain them in repose and security; and in case of need, they are permitted to make representations to the Sublime Porte touching their affairs, through the medium of their agent. When my present Imperial will shall have come to thy knowledge and appreciation, thou wilt cause this august edict to be respected."

☞ POSTSCRIPT.—[By Telegraph from Fredericton, February 13, 4 o'clock p. m.

The Bill to amend the Fire Law has been rejected in the Legislative Council, without a division.

This Bill as it passed the House, permitted the erection of buildings "in the Burnt District," above the height which a former law prescribed.—We trust the question is now at rest and forever.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We lately received a letter from the celebrated Elihu Burritt, "the learned blacksmith," on the subject of "AN OCEAN PENNY POSTAGE," a matter which has long engaged the attention of this extraordinary man. The communication will appear in our next.

☞ The extract of a letter, from Fredericton, is very graphic, in its way—but came too late for insertion this week.

☞ The Secretary of Hibernian Lodge, No. 301, (Freemasons) begs to acknowledge the receipt of a brotherly communication from Virgin Lodge, No. 558, Halifax, Nova Scotia—and will take great pleasure in submitting it on the next communication.

[FOR THE CHRONICLE.]

MR. DURANT:—SIR—I arrived in St. John, this morning, from Fredericton, and found my Horse and Sleigh were missing. I surveyed all the Air holes on the Bay, and found the Ice good,—but for want of the road being properly staked, I found that my Horse had taken a wrong course, got drowned, and my boy almost frozen to death.

JAMES BRADLEY, POSTMAN.

Friday, February, 13, 1852.

[From what we can learn of this accident, we think the authorities guilty of gross dereliction of duty in not having the road properly staked.]

ED. CHRON.

CONSUMPTION PREVENTED.

That consumption, when once firmly fixed and seated, can be cured, we much doubt; but that it can be prevented, if the proper remedies are applied in season, is a fact beyond dispute. A slight cold, a cough, a general derangement of the nervous system, these are the symptoms which herald the approach of the fell destroyer. If these be attended to in season all may be well; but neglect them and they will be sure to open the quarters, and what was at first only troublesome and annoying, at last becomes alarming, and often fatal.

For incipient consumption, we know of no better remedy than WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. It is soothing and healing in its nature, and is eminently adapted to allay and suppress that annoying and distressing irritation which so much prevails at this season of the year, caused by colds, coughs and chills, brought on by frequent and sudden changes in the weather. We know of several severe cases which have been radically cured by the use of this Balsam.

Consumption, however, is a disease which differs very much in the severity of its symptoms and the rapidity of its progress, and has long baffled the skill of physicians, it cannot be supposed that this or any other remedy is capable of effecting a cure in every case and every stage of the disease, on the contrary, we must expect it to fail sometimes, a circumstance which occurs daily with all the most valuable remedies we possess.

The success which has attended this medicine for the past twelve years, has overcome the prejudices of all unprejudiced men, and the article has taken a stand among the first class of discoveries and blessings of the age; and when resorted to in season, eradicates the disease for which it is recommended.

CROWN LAND OFFICE, Jan. 6, 1852.

(No. 419.)

THE attention of the Deputy Land Surveyors throughout the Province, is hereby called to the necessity in future, of preserving more uniformity in their Surveys of Crown Land. All lots must be rectangular, and extending not less than 50 chains from front to rear. The direction of the side lines must conform to the nearest general Survey, unless there be special reasons to the contrary, of which a full Report is to be made to this Office, in the first place, for approval.

No Survey of detached irregular sized Lots, will be hereafter recognized; and no Survey is in any case to be made before the issue of the Warrant.

Petitions for the purchase of Land must describe the exact situation wanted as correctly as possible; and if in a tract which has been heretofore partly surveyed and numbered, the particular Lot must be mentioned. When the descriptions are defective in these respects, the Petitions will be set aside.

CHAPTER III.—On Solitary Habits; their various effects on the Annual Economy; the concealed cause of Debility of the functions of the Stomach, Lungs, and Brain, and general weakness of the Mental Faculties.

CHAPTER IV.—On the Secret Disorders of Youth and Maturity and the Treatment of Nervous and Local Weakness, Mental Debility; and Premature Decay.

CHAPTER V. and VI.—On the Disorders arising from the discriminate Excess, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, and other Diseases of the Urethra.

REVIEW OF THE WORK.

Marriage requires the fulfilment of several conditions, in order that it may be really the cause of mutual happiness. Could the veil, which covers the origin of domestic wretchedness, be raised, and its true source of every instance be disclosed, how many could it be traced to physical disqualifications and their attendant disappointments.—Excesses are always injurious; the gift, which when used in moderation is fraught with advantage, becomes, when abused, the prolific source of mischief, and of greater or less injury to the constitution and vital powers. The particular excesses, or the nature and consequences of which this Treatise proposes to dilate, are productive of greater misery to the human frame than any other to which it is subject.

This work contains an accurate and complete account of the Anatomy and Physiology of the Reproductive Organs, and of their relative conditions in health and disease. Nor are these the sole contents of the work, the means of escape, as well as the nature of the danger, are pointed out in clear and intelligible language. It deservedly requires the closest attention and study, for what subject can be of more importance than the preservation of health, and of the physical capabilities of which every man should be possessed. It unfortunately happens, that the unhappy victim of excessive indulgence and vicious habits, whether acquired in early life, or from the follies of advanced age, while suffering from their invariable consequences, unwisely ascertains a fear of applying to a qualified physician for relief, till time and the disease so frequently but erroneously entertained and these complaints are beyond the reach of art alike restrict him, and prevent him seeking for assistance where alone it can be procured. In acting thus, he forgets that accurate discrimination in ascertaining the causes of disease, sympathy with the sufferer, and above all, secrecy, invariably characterize the intelligent and practised physician, and to be a medical man, who can show by his possession of the requisite legal qualification that he is entitled to esteem and respect in his professional pursuits the utmost confidence should be extended. DR. LAMERT has obtained the highest medical honors, as his diplomas testify, and the great extent of his practice for many years, is a guarantee for his professional experience, which has related almost solely to the treatment of these diseases.

☞ The work may be had in Saint John, of H. Chubb & Co., price 2s. 8d. Stg.; Halifax, Messrs. Morrow & Co.; Quebec, Mr. Neilson.
