L. W. KNAPP, M. D.

How any man may quickly cure himself of all ailments of weakness, loss of vitality, light losses, varicocele, etc., and enlarge small weak organs to full size and vigor. Simply send your name and address to Dr. L. W. Knapp, 2009 Hull Bldg., Detroit, Mich., and he will gladly send the free receipt with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer and the following extracts taken from his daily mail show what men think of his remedy.

"Dear Dr. Knapp:—Please accept my sincere thanks for yours of recent date. I have given your treatment thorough test and the benefit has been extraordinary. It has completely braced me up. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and you cannot realize how happy I am."

"Dear Sir:—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sir:—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men. I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor. All correspondence is strictly confidential. Enclosed in plain sealed envelope. The receipt is free for the asking and I want every man to have it."

WRITES IN HER SLEEP.

Miss Metcalf, of Chicago, a Roman Catholic. Author—Critic Fraze Her.

Chicago is at present getting and favoring with literary carriages a new light in the world of letters, a typical Chicago poet and novelist, a young woman who, leaving the beaten paths of literature, composes and writes all poems, novels, novelettes, tales of love and adventure and magazine articles in her sleep.

Miss Eureka D. Metcalf draws from her inner consciousness, while asleep, a vocabulary and a style regarded by Chicago critics as unexceptional.

Miss Metcalf, it must be remembered, writes all her stories and poems while actually asleep. When she has sunk in to a quiet untroubled slumber, her relatives gather noiselessly about her bedside and while one slips a pencil into her flexed hand another places a pad of paper beneath the pencil's point. Nothing more is necessary. The moment she feels the pencil in her fingers she grips it fiercely and starts off at once.

Chicago literateurs declare with something of hauteur that William Dean Howells could not write a soap advertisement in his sleep, while Kipling, the pride of England and India, has never shown the slightest indication of the power of writing while in slumber.

The following summary of one of Miss Metcalf's stories will show her mastery of plot while the concluding paragraph is an expurgated and unedited extract from the story itself. The story was written, according to local authorities, while Miss Metcalf was sound asleep.

"It tells of a spirit who has come from some far-off land of mistiness to discover whether woman is constant. He slides down a cobweb ladder and finds himself on a stenographer's desk in a physician's office. The doctor is making love to his stenographer, a beautiful young Jewess, who is about to accept him for her husband, despite religious differences, when the physician's sister brings in the girl to whom he had been engaged, but toward whom he has lately grown cold. The stenographer, promising to aid her rival to triumph, writes a letter of farewell, and the spirit goes back to tell his story to the gods, and across the blue infinite space his voice fell with musical cadence through starry aisles to distant earth; 'Woman's heart is the playground of pain; woman's love is a crown of angelic glory.'

Three months later Miss Rennie Dreyfus, reading the society news to her sister, who was converting a bare frame into a modish hat, exclaimed: Listen Leah! Married at St. George's, London, Dr. Edward Arthur to Miss Imogen Smiley, both of Chicago. Leah poised the dainty creation on her head. Do you like it? she asked quietly, knowing the crimson poppies generally lent their color to her cheeks.

The Real Passion Play.
There is a great deal of interest taken in the first true presentation of the famous Overmarrage Passion Play given in Toronto. Rev. Dr. Lewis of Boston, the apostle of the Passion Play in America, stayed with Joseph Mayr, the Christus of several productions and the burgomaster in 1900. He secured motion pictures of the village and surroundings and finely views of the play authorized by Mayr. Dr. Lewis is himself an eloquent lecturer.

Preserving Valuable Manuscripts.
The original manuscripts of old books and old records are exceedingly valuable and are preserved with great care, for if destroyed of course they cannot be replaced. They can be guarded from fire and from overmuch handling, and now an additional safeguard has been found in Japanese silk.

Its use, says the Washington Star, has removed a fear that has long existed in the minds of librarians that there was no way out of it, and that the rare old manuscripts would simply have to have their day.

There is only one sword factory in the United States, a Massachusetts concern, and that one has ample capacity for supplying the domestic demand for swords. The sword lost its efficiency as a cavalry weapon as far back as the war of the rebellion, and the increased range of rifles has made the sword equally obsolete as an implement of actual combat. It is about as dangerous now as a band-master's baton and serves much the same purpose.

Scrofula

What is commonly inherited is not scrofula but the scrofulous disposition. This is generally and chiefly indicated by cutaneous eruptions; sometimes by paleness, nervousness and general debility.

The disease afflicted Mrs. K. T. Snyder, Union St., Troy, Ohio, when she was eighteen years old, manifesting itself by a bunch in her neck, which caused great pain, was lanced, and became a running sore.

It afflicted the daughter of Mrs. J. H. Jones, Parker City, Ind., when 15 years old, and developed so rapidly that when she was 18 she had eleven running sores on her neck and about her ears.

These sufferers were not benefited by professional treatment, but, as they voluntarily say, were completely cured by

Hood's Sarsaparilla

This peculiar medicine positively corrects the scrofulous disposition and radically and permanently cures the disease.

Of Course Not—Muggins (in the middle of a conversation)—It's kinder too, bad, tew, that there won't be any wimmen in Heaven. 'Scroogine—'W'y, why won't there?' Muggins—'Because the men are giving them the earth; you can't expect them to have Heaven, too.'

MAN AND WIFE IN DISTRESS.
Rev. Dr. Bochrer, of Buffalo, says: 'My wife and I were both troubled with distressing Catarrh, but we have enjoyed freedom from this aggravating malady since we first used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. Its action was instantaneous, giving the most grateful relief within ten minutes after first application.' 50 cents.—Sold by A. Chipman Smith & Co.

In The Steam-Heated Flat—'John, I've just been to see the doctor, and he says I must stay in the warmest and most evenly heated room in the house.' 'Then get into the refrigerator.'

MISERABLE FOLKS could trace both state of mind and body to some one or other form of stomach disorder. Dr. Von Saa's Pineapple Tablet is a 'vest pocket remedy' that nature provides and that medical science has proved a wonder in preventing and curing stomach ailments. If you've a symptom of distress in your stomach test the Pineapple cure. 35 cents. Sold by A. Chipman Smith & Co.

'What business brings the heaviest returns?' asked the man who wanted to know. 'The literary business,' sighed the struggling author, as he opened a two pound rejected book manuscript.

'MY WOMAN, IS IT THE KIDNEYS?'—Investigation in half the disorders peculiar to women would prove faultily kidneys the seat of the trouble. If you're troubled with that tired, dragging feeling, have an almost constant heaviness, maybe sharp pain in the head, put South American Kidney Cure to the test. You'll find it the long sought friend, and it never fails. Sold by A. Chipman Smith & Co.

For Concentration.—Desmond—'If you buy this elegant fur coat, Dorothy how are we ever going to pay for it?' Dorothy—'On Desmond, don't let us talk about two things at once! Let's talk about the coat.'

SALT RHEUM CURED QUICK.—Dr. Agnew's Ointment cures Salt Rheum and all itching or burning skin diseases in a day. One application gives almost instant relief. For Itching, Blind, or Bleeding Eyes it stands without a peer. Cures in three to six nights. 35 cents.—Sold by A. Chipman Smith & Co.

THE ICEMAN'S TROUBLES.—My business, says John Gray, ice dealer, of Wingham, Ont.; 'is one of the most fertile fields under the sun for sewing the seeds for rheumatic ordering. For five years I was a great invalid, words cannot convey the faintest idea of any intense suffering and constant pain I endured. 6 bottles of South American Rheumatic Cure permanently cured me.' Sold by A. Chipman Smith & Co.

Cynical—'See here!' exclaimed the city editor. 'You speak of the bride as being 'led to the altar.''

'Yes, sir; well?' replied the new reporter. 'Well, that's nonsense. There never was a bride who couldn't find her way there.'

PILL FAME.—10 cents a vial for Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills would not make them the same they enjoy to-day if the curative powers were not in them. Worth will get to the top and that accounts for the wonderful demand for these little gems. They positively cure Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache.—Sold by A. Chipman Smith & Co.

'FOR RUN-DOWN' PEOPLE there's nothing known in medical treatment to-day so effective and certain of a cure and so magical in its building up power as South American Nerve, because it strikes at the root of all nervous ailments, the digestive organs, makes rich red blood, drives away emaciation, puts on flesh and makes over physical wrecks generally.—Sole by A. Chipman Smith & Co.

APPOPLEXY.—Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is effective in apoplexy symptoms. If you have unpleasant dizziness, lightness or sudden rush of blood to the head, take precautions against a recurrence. This great remedy will remove the cause. The press of the land has daily a list of sudden deaths which would not be chronicled if Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart were used.—Sold by A. Chipman Smith & Co.
