I. Any Member in arrears of subscription for two years, shall be considered as having withdrawn from the Society.

II. No Member shall be entitled to vote at the Annual Election of Officers, or at any subsequent meeting, who shall not have paid his previous year's subscription.

III. The duty of the President shall be to preside and preserve order at all meetings of the Society, and generally to watch over and superintend its concerns to the best of his ability. In his absence, the senior Vice-President present shall exercise the authority and duty of the President. In case of the absence of the four first Officers from any meeting, the members present shall be empowered to elect a Chairman out of their number.

IV. The Secretary shall have charge of the Seal, Banners, and other Insignia of the Society. He shall keep a fair register of all proceedings, orders, rules, and regulations, and manage the correspondence. He shall issue certificates of admission to each member on his having signed the Constitution, to which he shall affix the Seal of the Society. He shall, when necessary, summon the Society to its various meetings, and shall sign such cards of invitation to the Anniversary Celebration as may be required of him by the Stewards.

V. The Treasurer shall have the custody of the funds. He shall countersign such certificates of admission as may be issued by the Secretary. His accounts shall be fairly kept, and exhibited to the President and Managing Committee, when-
