Magazines for Young People

The Boy's Own Paper and the Girl's Own Paper are planned to meet the needs of the growing youth. The interests of young people are distinct from those of more mature minds. They are more interested in sports than in science, in fiction than in history. These magazines reflect their tastes, while stimulating the manly and womanly spirit. They are full of good things—fiction by the best writers—stories of travel and adventure—articles on useful subjects such as mechanical work, care of household pets, outdoor sports and indoor amusements—and every copy is splendidly illustrated.
