

Appeal to the High Court of Admiralty in Cases of Costs.

V. And be it further enacted, that in all cases in which proceedings may be had in any of the said Vice-Admiralty Courts, if any person shall feel himself aggrieved by the Charges made by any of the Officers or Practitioners therein, and the Allowance thereof by such Vice-Admiralty Court, by reason that such Charges are not warranted by the Tables herein-before mentioned, it shall be lawful for such Person or his Agent, under the Regulations to be established in pursuance of the Powers given by this Act, by summary application to the High Court of Admiralty to have the said Charges taxed by the authority thereof.

ses.

VI. And whereas in certain cases doubts may arise as to the Jurisdiction of Vice-Admiralty Courts in His Majesty's Possessions abroad, with respect to Suits for Seamen's Wages, Pilotage, Bottomry, Damage to a Ship by Collision, Contempt in Breach of the Regulations and Instructions relating to His Majesty's Service at Sea, Salvage, and Droits of Admiralty; be it therefore enacted, That in all cases where a Ship or Vessel, or the Master thereof, shall come within the local limits of any Vice-Admiralty Court, it shall be lawful for any person to commence proceedings in any of the Suits herein-before mentioned in such Vice-Admiralty Court, notwithstanding the cause of action may have arisen out of the local limits of such Court, and to carry on the same in the same manner as if the cause of action had arisen within the said limits.
