repairs of schoolhouses, and other necessary purposes connected with the schools; and if the said trustees shall find that the said quarterly payment is not sufficient in amount for the purchase of books, and other purposes as aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the said trustees to order and require a further payment to be made by each scholar, not exceeding, however, in any case, the sum of two shillings and six pence quarterly, in addition to the first mentioned quarterly payment of two shillings and sixpence; and if the said sums, or either of them, be not paid, the scholar in arrear may be debarred from further instruction until the same is paid; and the said payments shall also be recoverable by the teachers, in the name of the said trustees, or a majority of them, before the Court of Commissioners for the recovery of small debts which hold its sittings in or nearest to Georgetown, from the parents or guardians of the scholars.

LXXX. Two of the said trustees of the Georgetown school shall go out of office annually on the first Tuesday in June, in rotation, in the manner provided in respect to district schools; that is to say, the two persons first nominated shall go out, and the inhabitants of the said town, and the common and royalty thereof, at their annual meeting, as hereinbefore provided, shall elect two persons to supply their places, power being, nevertheless, given to the said inhabitants to reelect such two retiring trustees, or either of them, if they shall see fit so to do, their names, or the name of such one of them as may be reelected, being then placed at the bottom of the list; and in all cases of election or reelection of trustees, notice thereof shall be thereupon immediately forwarded by the trustees of said schools to the Secretary of the said Board of Education.

LXXXI. The introduction of the Bible to be read in all the public schools of this Island of every grade, receiving support from the public treasury, is hereby authorized; and the teachers are hereby required to open the school on each school day with the reading of the sacred scriptures, by those children whose parents or guardians desire it, without comment, explanation or remark thereupon by the teachers; but no children shall be required to attend during such reading as aforesaid, unless desired by their parents or guardians.

LXXXII. The Normal school heretofore established in Charlottetown for the training of male and female teachers, shall be continued under this Act, and such school shall continue to be held in the building or schoolhouse now used for that purpose.

LXXXIII. The mode in which such normal school shall be conducted, unless when otherwise provided for in this Act,
