My dear Mr. McQueen -

Having had my interest intrigued to high pitch by the rumors & opinions in the press the last few days regarding your prospective appointment to the Senate, I can no longer restrain an impulse to take this liberty. though I have hesitated too far from trespassing at a time when your resources of energy & time must be turned to the debate?

But it has occurred to me that I should much enjoy the privilege of being amongst the
