

/11.....

Q-195. Was there anyone between you and Sgt Featherstone ?
A-195. No, sir.

Examined by the Court:

Q-196. Was Sgt Featherstone and Gnr McKinnon talking in loud voices as they come out?
A-196. They seemed to be speaking a bit loud.
Q-197. While you were standing in the doorway, did you see Sgt Featherstone fall?
A-197. No, sir.

The Defence proceeds to call the next witness.

4th Witness for the Defence. M-24309 Gnr Jones, L.G. having been duly sworn is examined by the Defending Officer.

Q-198. Gnr Jones, do you recognize the accused?
A-198. Yes, sir.
Q-199. Do you remember where you were on the night of 30 Oct?
A-199. I was standing in the Cock Hotel, sir.
Q-200. Do you remember seeing Gnr McKinnon in the Hotel?
A-200. Yes, sir.
Q-201. Were you with him at any time ?
A-201. Yes, sir, we walked to the Hotel and had a couple of drinks.
Q-202. And then what did you do?
A-202. We were talking back and forth and an argument started and I didn't pay much attention. At first the Sgt was having a few drinks.
Q-203. Did Sgt Featherstone have anything to drink?
A-203. He had a glass in his hand, right hand.
Q-204. You were with McKinnon at that time ?
A-204. Until the argument then Sgt Featherstone took me out of the Pub.
Q-205. Was Gnr McKinnon involved in the argument ?
A-205. Yes, sir, he was with me.
Q-206. What did he have to do with it, this argument in the Pub which resulted in you being put out of the Pub, what I mean is who was in this argument ?
A-206. I was, sir.
Q-207. Was Gnr McKinnon, did he have any marks after that night?
A-207. Yes, sir, the scar on the eyelid.
Q-208. He didn't have that scar before ?
A-208. No, sir.

Defence: That is all, sir.

Cross examined by the Prosecutor.

Q-209. Did you come over to this country with this regiment ?
A-209. No, sir.
Q-210. How long have you known Gnr McKinnon ?
A-210. 9 months, sir.
Q-211. Have you been on any parties or entertainments with Gnr McKinnon ?
A-211. I have not been on any parties with him up to that time.
Q-212. Was Gnr Swallow drinking with you and Gnr McKinnon ?
A-212. He was in the same bar.
Q-213. Did Gnr Swallow buy you any drinks ?
A-213. No, sir.
Q-214. Gnr McKinnon appeared the next morning to have a bruised right eye, is that true ?
A-214. Yes, sir.

Defence: No more questions, sir.

With permission of the Court Sgt Featherstone is recalled and re-examined by the Prosecutor.

Q-215. As the President of the Court said, you are still under oath, did you at any time on the evening of 30 Oct 42 partake of any alcoholic beverages ?
A-215. No, sir.

.....12/