

	PAGE
Annual Report of the Chief Superintendent for the year 1852	131	Ann
General Remarks on the School System of Upper Canada	141
Reply to Certain Objections made to the Upper Canada School System..	142
Objections of Certain Advocates of Separate Schools	147
Regulations Respecting Religious Instruction and Exercises in the Schools	150
Objections to this Feature of our School System	150
The London Times on Defence of Religious Regulations of the Irish
National System of Education	152	Ann
Papers on the School System of Upper Canada, by the Chief Superintendent:—
I. The Spirit in which the Present Educational Movement should be Directed	153
II. Origin of the Principle of Free Schools	155
III. Progress of Education in Upper Canada.—Extract from Lord Elgin's
Despatch to the Colonial Secretary, December, 1852	158
Annual Report of the Chief Superintendent for the year 1853	158	Ann
Papers Illustrative of the State of Popular Education in Upper Canada, 1853....	161
I. Educational Progress of Upper Canada, 1853	161
II. The Other Side of the Picture: Educational "Deficiencies".....	162
Annual Report of the Chief Superintendent for the year 1854	166	Ann
Statement Showing the Money Appropriated to the Grammar Schools for the year 1852 under the District Schools of 1841.....	172
A Paper Illustrative of the State and Progress of the Common School System of Upper Canada, 1842—1854	177
NOTE.—This Paper had to be repeated on pages 218—222, as, when inserted on pages 177—179, it was not then very complete, as stated in the Note on page 180.
Annual Report of the Chief Superintendent for the year 1855	182	Ann
Religious Instruction in the Irish National Schools.....	197
Annual Report of the Chief Superintendent for the year 1856	202
Grant for the Improvement of School Architecture.....	211
Grant for the Promotion of a School Museum	211
The Department of Education for Ontario, its Branches, Objects and Duties	215
Progress of the Public School System of Upper Canada, 1842 to 1854	218
NOTE.—The Paper on the Progress of the Public School System of Ontario, (as given on pages 177—179), is inserted here, as enlarged and extended, as the former Paper was not very complete, as stated on page 180.		