Programme

Depositing the Colors of the 147th Battalion

At 10 a.m. the Officers and men of the 147th Battalion will fall in on 10th St. E., in front of the Y. M. C. A. under Col. G. F. McFarland, led by the Bugle Band, will march by 10th St., 2nd Ave. E. and 8th St. to the Public Library where the colors will be deposited.

At the Library the ceremony of depositing the Colors will be performed by Major (Rev.) Thurlow Fraser, late of the 2nd Canadian Brigade, assisted by Capt. (Rev. Father) M. J. Pickett, 1st Division Artillery. An altar will be erected for this purpose in front of the Library and from there the colors will be taken to their repository inside.
