NEW YEAR'S GREETING.

BY REV. G. M. MILLIGAN, D. D.

The years, how they slip
Like words from the lip,
To blight or to bless,
Bring joy or distress
Do the years !

The years as they fly
Ne'er falter nor lie,
Doing nought to rue,
They'll bring us out true,
Will the years !

Through the years keep leal,
All wounds they will heal,
Our foes they'll disperse,
The joy of my verse—
Are the years !

The ancient of days,
In most diverse wars,
Will bring us full blest
To His own great rest,
Through the years.

Then let us obey
His own gracious sway,
Ripening the Soul
For its glorious goal—
Past the years.

Malto-Yerbine

As a substitute for Cod Liver Oil in Pulmonary Diseases I have obtained the happiest results, and in several cases where the Oil had been administered for a considerable time without exhibiting any beneficial change, I have been enabled to effect a complete cure by giving MALTO-YERBINE and MALTINE with PEPsin and PANCREATINE in conjunction with a few other simple remedies.—
