Breeders and Importers.

front with a large number of fine bacon swine of the medium bacon type. His present herd boar, King David, was purchased from the well known herd of Mr. J. E. Brethour, of Burford, Ont., and is a good representative of that breeder's type of hog. Three sows from the same pens, but of different strains of pedigree, are in the herd, and are producing litters of piglets large in number and of a uniformity of type that should recommend them to purchasers as young breeding stock that will do the same in turn. He is also beginning to breed Shorthorn cattle and has on the farm a few registered Clydesdales of the right kind. This is a section where the breeding of pure-bred stock has not received the attention it ought to, and Mr. Nichol is setting an example that it is hoped that many will follow.

R. Corby, Belgrave, Ont., proprietor of the Clover Leaf Lodge, and a splendid herd of Shorthorn cattle, has recently purchased the fine imported bull, Scottish Challenge, from Jas. Douglass, Caledonia, Ont. This bull is a fine, thick, sappy fellow, red and white in color. He was bred by Robt. Turner, Cairnston, Scotland, and is sired by Daybreak, of which animal W. D. Platt remarked that he was one of the best he saw there. His dam is Royle Lady, of noted prize winning strain.

Shorthorn cow Lady Ethel. Sire, Silver King; dam traces to Imp. Beauty. To be sold at Brantford by T. A. Cox, August 10th.

Mr. Robt. Shaw, of Brantford, the wellknown Galloway breeder, is getting into shape to do things at the shows this fall. His herd is in fine bloom, and one of the best of them all is "Little Toronto Maid," calved last year at the Toronto show, and photographed for THE FARMING WORLD.

E. C. Attrill, Goderich, is going to turn out a splendid herd of Shorthorns this fall. His young stuff is particularly fine, and under the able superintendence of Mr. A. Marr, can be depended upon to land the prizes.
The death of his fine Clydesdale stallion, Corb Squire, was a serious loss that Mr. Attrill suffered a short time ago.

The sale of pure-bred stock to be held by Mr. T. A. Cox, August 10th, at his farm near Brantford, is an event that should not fail to interest stockmen and horsemen generally. A large number of pure-bred Clydes and Hackney horses, Shorthorns, Holsteins and Galloway cattle and Ber-shire swine, of prize-winning quality, will be sold under the hammer, and the opportunity to obtain some of them is one that should not be missed by breeders and others. A fine Clydesdale stallion, Prince Robert, 4 years of age, will be among the offerings. He is a good, solid, stylish horse, dark bay in color, good at the ground and a good mover. He is
