

tation has asked the Minister of Public Works to have a dock and breakwater constructed here. Estimated cost $150,000.

HESPELER, ONT.—J. R. Phin will receive tenders up to April 10th for additions to the Methodist church here. Plans at post office or at Phin's drug store.

MIDLAND, ONT.—The Legislature has granted permission to the town to issue debentures for $20,920 for sewer construction, and $30,000 for permanent sidewalks.

ROSTHERN, SASK.—Willis Chipman, C.E., Toronto, has reported regarding a system of waterworks for fire protection, also electric light and telephone systems, cost $30,000.

BROCKVILLE, ONT.—The Board of Works will receive tenders up to May 1st for lumber for sidewalks, salt glazed sewer pipes, Portland cement, cut and steel wire spikes and macadam.

STRATFORD, ONT.—The following building permits have been granted: A. F. Waddell, residence, Birmingham street; Mr. Schlotzhauer, residence, Water street; A. Knechtel, residence, Elm street.

HALIFAX, N. S.—Tenders will be received up to April 12th by F. Gelin, Department of Public Works, Ottawa, for electric wiring and fixtures for the Custom House. Plans with C. E. W. Dodwell, resident engineer.

BARRIE, ONT.—Thos. Kennedy, architect, is taking tenders on a pair of brick houses for E. T. Tyrer, to be erected on John street, also on brick residences for Jas. Wynne and A. Gendron, both of Penetanguishene.

SOURIS, MAN.—The Town Council have decided to replace the wooden sidewalks on the main streets with granolithic walks.—Trustee Board of the Methodist church have decided to erect a new church, cost $12,000.

VEGREVILLE, ALTA.—Alanson, Gulley & Co. will build a large hotel here.—A large addition is to be built to the Queen's Hotel.—A public school is to be erected, cost $10,000.—The Presbyterian congregation will build a new church.

KENORA, ONT.—Tenders will be received by D. H. Currie, Town Clerk, or by T. Pringle & Sons, engineers, Montreal, up to April 16th for work in connection with the construction of water power development here. Plans with above named.

AMHERST, N. S.—The Nova Scotia Telephone Co. will receive tenders at 26 Saultier street, Halifax, for the erection of a brick and stone building, corner LaPlanche and Victoria streets. Plans at office of Company here or with H. E. Gates, architect, Halifax.

ST. MARY'S, ONT.—The Council will submit a by-law to provide $7,500 for road improvement and $2,000 for permanent sidewalks.—The Town Clerk will draft a by-law providing $2,000 to purchase a site for the new cordage factory.

WELLAND, ONT.—W. W. Wilson will receive tenders up to April 18th for an addition to the Mansion House. Plans with T. L. Nichols, architect, W. W. Nichols, architect, Niagara Falls, and with above named.—O. H. Garner has taken tenders for the erection of five frame dwellings here.

VICTORIA, B.C.—Hooper & Watkins, architects, have taken tenders for the erection of a residence corner of Cadboro Bay road and School street.—The Corporation has given notice that work will soon begin on con-

Quebec, Toronto and Montreal capitalists have a controlling interest in the Quebec Gas Co. and purpose improving the plant at a cost of $150,000. W. H. Pearson, Toronto Gas Company, is interested.—Tenders are invited by Ouellet & Levesque, architects, for a presbytery to be built at St. Ludger, Temiscouata county.

ST. JOHN, N. B.—S. L. Gorbail, manager of the Seamen's Institute, is soliciting funds for a new building, to cost about $10,000.—The Salvat Army expect to build a Provincial headquarters building on the site of the barracks on Charlotte street, to cost $12,000.

AURORA, ONT.—Tenders will be received by S. H. Lundy, Town Clerk, up to April 21st for a covered wooden tank 18 feet high and 23 feet 9 inches diameter, for the necessary steel trestle to support the tank and for a covered steel plate tank with supporting trestle.

BRANTFORD, ONT.—The trustees of the Y. W. C. A. are considering extensive improvements for Victoria Hall.—City Engineer Jones has recommended a sewer on Rawdon street to cost $7,000.—J. H. Schultz has taken out a permit for a residence on William street, cost $2,500.

SASKATOON, SASK.—A. Melville, architect, will receive tenders up to April 14th for construction of a block for the National Trust Company.—E. F. Hutchings, of the Great West Saddlery Co., has purchased a site for a factory, warehouse and store.—The Town Council will submit a by-law to raise $12,000 for addition to school.

PETERBORO, ONT.—E. M. Elliott, County Clerk, will receive tenders up to April 14th for construction of two steel highway bridges over the Indian river, also for concrete or stone abutments for Evans and Keene bridges over the Indian river. Plans with J. E. Belcher, C. E.—The Public Works Department, Ottawa, are preparing plans for the new armouries here.

EDMONTON, ALTA.—The following building permits have been issued: J. A. Paul, residence, Roland street, cost $1,900; D. W. McDonald, block, corner of Second and Jasper streets, cost $4,000.—C. V. Semerad and other business men propose organizing a company to build an opera house, cost $40,000.—The British Pacific Railway Co. are applying for a charter to build a road from Victoria, B. C., to this city.

CALGARY, ALTA.—A prominent company of Eastern Canada has decided to erect a large office building here to cost $150,000.—The following have been granted building permits: McDonald, Dunlop Co., warehouse, cost $8,000; Moodie & Co., hotel, cost $35,000; Jesse Morrice, residence, cost $1,500; Mrs. James Grant, residence, cost $1,400.

LONDON, ONT.—A. O. Graydon, City Engineer, will receive tenders up to April 12th for sewers on Dufferin avenue and Ontario street.—The congregation of Talbot street Baptist church have decided to build a new church, cost $50,000.—The Dominion Office & Store Fittings Company have applied for incorporation and purpose erecting a factory on Dundas street. D. H. Gillies is interested.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I.—L. B. McMillan has taken tenders for erection of a 70 foot steel bridge over the Dunk river.—Tenders will be received by the Secretary of Department of Railways and Canals, Ottawa, Ont., up to April 17th for the construction of two rest piers for the Hillsborough bridge, P. E. I. Specifications at office of Resident En-

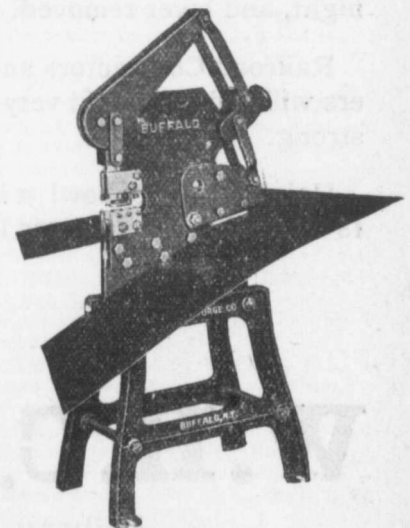

HAMILTON, ONT.—E. B. Patterson, architect, has taken tenders for alterations and additions to school buildings in S. S. No. 1, Barton.—The following permits have been issued: D. Barton, brick store, corner Barton and William streets, cost $2,600; T. W. Stewart, brick house, West avenue; Wm. Kirpatrick, brick house, corner Barton and McNabb streets, cost $1,900.—The T. H. & B. Railway will soon erect new shops on Garth street.—Stewart & Wotton, architects, will receive tenders up to April 14th for the erection of a new theatre here.

TORONTO JUNCTION, ONT.—The Bank of British North America have purchased a site next to the post office on which it is understood they will erect a new building.—The Heintzman Piano Company purpose building extensions to their factory in the near future.—The Royce avenue Presbyterian congregation will build a mission church, to cost $5,000.—The Kerr Manufacturing Co. will erect a three-storey building on Pelham avenue.—J. G. Wright will erect a brick dwelling on Louisa street.—I. Woods will build a brick cottage on Mullock avenue.—J. Mooney will build several houses on Cooper avenue.

EAST TORONTO, ONT.—C. F. Wagner, architect, will receive tenders up to April 13th for the erection of a Masonic Temple at Balmy Beach. Same architect is preparing plans for four brick stores on Queen street near Luety avenue, cost $15,000.—Thomas Clayton has purchased a site, corner of Wheeler avenue and Queen street, on which it is expected a store will be built.—C. F. Wagner, architect, has purchased two lots on Hamby and two on Wineva avenues and will build houses thereon.

BRANDON, MAN.—G. F. Sykes will receive tenders up to April 12th for $90,000 4½ per cent. waterworks debentures.—The directors of the Agricultural Association purpose increasing their stabling accommodation at a cost of $6,000.—Messrs. Borbridge intend erecting a four-storey building 30x115 feet on Eleventh street, at a cost of $10,000.—Tenders have been taken for the erection of the new building for the Merchants'

ARMoured PLATE PUNCHES AND SHEARS

No. 42 in. Combined Punch and Shear

CANADIAN BUFFALO FORGE CO. LTD.