The episcopal ring which was presented to Dr. Roper by the members of the Faculty of the General Theological Seminary, New York, was made by Tiffany, after a design approved and partly suggested by Dr. Roper himself at the request of the Faculty. The design includes the seal of the diocese of Columbia, the Roper arms and other appropriate designs.

The new chantry and cloister of St. Michael's Church, Bristol, R.I., was consecrated by Bishop Perry on Sunday evening, January 28th, it being also the fiftieth anniversary of the consecration of the present church building. The chantry is erected by Col. Samuel P. Colt in memory of his son, Samuel P. Colt, jr., who died many years ago. The new addition to the church is 27 feet long by 17 feet wide, built of the beautiful brown Portland stone to correspond with the church, and will be used as a choir room and for week-day services, small weddings and baptisms. The entire church as well as the new addition is now lighted by electric lights, also the gift of Col. Colt. The Rev. Dr. Locke, the rector, gave an historical address on St. Michael's Church covering nearly 200 years. The parish was founded in 1718 and the present building, the fiftieth anniversary of the consecration of which was observed on this occasion, is the fourth edifice to be erected by the parish; the first and third buildings were burned down. Bishop Perry preached the sermon and the offering was devoted to the famine sufferers in China.

Archdeacon Sinclair was on Tuesday presented with a motor-car by a large circle of friends in the city as a parting gift in connection with his recent retirement. An illuminated album contained the names of the subscribers. The presentation was made by Sir T. Vezey Strong, the ex-Lord Mayor, London.

The Rev. James George Scott, D.D., formerly Archdeacon of Dublin and rector of Bray, died lately at Bray where he had continued to reside after his retirement. By his death a truly distinguished and venerable figure has been lost to the Church of Ireland. The Archdeacon, who graduated with great distinction in Dublin University in 1850, was appointed by Archbishop Whately to the living of Bray in 1863, and became at the same time one of the Prebendaries of St. Patrick's Cathedral, Dublin. Dr. Scott was 85 years of age at the time of his death.
