ST. ANDREWS, N. B. CANADA. Saturday, 8th January, 1916. PROGRESS OF THE WAR [December 30 to January 5]

IN the week under review we entered the eighteenth month of its course, and it does not seem very far off. Nothing in the week's hostilities has been in any way decisive, though the fighting took place at many points in the long-drawn-out battle fronts, which must extend to a total distance of two thousand miles or more, in all.

On the Western front no change of any consequence was observed. The fierce activity prevailed at many points, more especially in the Vosges. On the Russian front, particularly from the Pripiet marshes south and south-eastward to the Romanian front in sanguinary struggles; and the reports indicate that the Russians have been on the offensive and were pressing the Teutons back.

The heights of the north-east of Capriotti, in Bukovina, were taken by the Russians, and it is believed that the capital city itself has again been occupied by them. The week has evidently been a successful one for the Russians on their western and south-western fronts.

Minor engagements only were reported in the Caucasus and in Persia, and no great success was claimed by either side. Severe fighting seems to have taken place on the Tigris in and about Kut-el-Amara, and the British seem to have more than held their own against the Turks.

granting compliance with a request of the Canadian Pacific Railway for certain concessions in connection with the proposed installation of a system of waterworks adjoining the town of St. Andrews. Mr. R. E. Armstrong was Mayor of the Town at that time; and the resolution was moved by Alderman Everett and seconded by Alderman Wren.

Obviously there must be other trades, professions and mercantile establishments in a town with the population of St. Andrews, which is, moreover, the Shire Town of the County of Charlotte, and boasts of a Mayor and eight Aldermen and the usual Town Officers.

THE WEEK'S ANNIVERSARIES Jan. 8.—St. Lucian. Willie Collins born 1824; British take Cape of Good Hope, 1806. 9.—Napoleon III died, 1873; King Victor Emmanuel died, 1878.

NEW YEAR'S HONOR LIST The New Year's Honor List of His Majesty, King George, includes the names of fourteen Canadians. The highest honor accorded to a Canadian on this occasion is that of Knight of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

THE DEAD TOWN DID you ever go into a town and, as you stepped from the train, have it strike you suddenly that the town was dead? Have you ever had a town described to you as a "dead" town? Have you ever stopped to analyse what is meant by these words "dead town"?

WATERWORKS ALL persons who have an interest in the welfare and prosperity of St. Andrews will feel the deepest regret that the Town Council have made no progress in the matter of placing before the ratepayers a well-considered scheme for the installation of waterworks.

At a meeting of the Town Council on January 17, 1916, a resolution was passed granting compliance with a request of the Canadian Pacific Railway for certain concessions in connection with the proposed installation of a system of waterworks adjoining the town of St. Andrews.

London, Jan. 4.—Robert N. McNeely, who was proceeding to his post as United States consul at Aden on the Persia when she was torpedoed, had been given a place in the fifth lifeboat, but he refused to take it with a woman and two little children replacing him in the boat.

—Gallipoli, Ohio, Jan. 5.—Reports received here say that more than twenty persons were drowned when the steamer Kanawha capsized in the Ohio river near Parkersburg, West Va., to-night. Of the sixty-five persons on board the steamer, only fifteen had been accounted for late to-night, it was said.

—London, Jan. 3.—British steamer Persia of the P. & O. Line was torpedoed on Thursday in the Mediterranean without warning and sank within a few minutes.

—Washington, Jan. 3.—Advices to the State Department today from American Consul Garretts at Alexandria, Egypt, indicate that Robert N. McNeely, consul at Aden, Arabia, who was on the steamer Persia when it was torpedoed in the Mediterranean, was lost. He was last seen in water after the vessel sank. No submarine was seen by survivors, according to Garretts's report, but an officer of the Persia saw the wake of the torpedo which struck his ship. About 150 of those on board were saved.

—Fort William, Ont., Jan. 3.—Local option was defeated to-day in Fort William. Port Arthur gave a majority for, but fell eight votes short of the necessary three-fifths.

—Columbus, O., January 3.—Francis Marion Webster, scientist of the Federal Government Bureau of Entomology, Washington, died here early to-day, following an attack of pneumonia, which he contracted while attending the meetings of the American Association for the Advancement of Science last week.

A THRENODY Not in the ancient Abbey, Nor in the lofty mountains, Nor in the blue profound, Lay him to rest when his time has come And the smiling mortal lips are dumb; But here in the quiet Under the whispering pines, Where the dogwood breaks in blossom And the peaceful sunlight shines, Where wild birds sing and ferns unfold, When spring comes back in her green and gold.

And when that mortal likeness Has been dissolved by fire, Say not above the ashes, "Here lies a man's desire." For every year when the bluebirds sing, He shall be part of the lyric spring. The dreamful-hearted lovers Shall hear in wind and rain The cadence of his refrain.

For he was a blade of the April sod That bowed and blew with the whisper of God. Bliss Carman, in the January Scribner's. "Does that girl next door sing just for her own amusement?" No; I guess it's mostly spite. —Buffalo Express.

IT PAYS TO DO THINGS RIGHT ALWAYS

This Remark, often heard in conversation, has a peculiar connexion with Advertising. It Pays to Advertise Good Value in Every Branch of Trade.

This is the consensus of Public Opinion. ADVERTISERS know this. That is the reason why they advertise. No one cares to advertise an indifferent stock, as too many people would get to know about it. You are, therefore, always safe in buying ADVERTISED GOODS. It Is TRUE Economy.
