A Glorious October

The weather man predicts that the present warm and balmy weather will continue for some days longer. The temperature has been much higher out west the past few days, more particularly in Saskatchewan and Alberta. Major Nelles Ashton of the Mohawk Observatory gives the following figures for the first eight days in October, this year, compared with eight last year:

|                             |                             |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1913.                       | Maximum Temperature .. 74.1 |
| Mean Temperature .. 47.3    | Compared with 1912.         |
| Maximum Temperature .. 66.4 | Mean Temperature .. 41.5    |

The maximum average temperature for 1913 was 69.7, compared with 53.9 in 1912. It will thus be seen that the weather this October has on the average been nearly seven degrees warmer than in 1912. Altogether October so far this year has been quite a record month, almost equalling the ordinary summer month.

Social and Personal

Nuptial Notes

PARSON—MARTIN.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin, Brock street, yesterday was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their eldest daughter, Lurant, was united in marriage to Clarence E. Parson, formerly of this city and now of Windsor and Detroit, where he holds an excellent position with the Maxwell Motor Car Co. Rev. Llewellyn Brown of the First Baptist church, performed the ceremony in the presence of about 20 guests, after which a very dainty wedding breakfast was served. The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and useful presents from a large circle of friends. The happy couple left on the 4.35 for the West, carrying with them the best wishes of many in Brantford who have been associated with them and who regard them very highly. Both of the contracting parties were members of the First Baptist church and had sung in the choir for some time. They were also active in the bible school and had been prominent in their classes and in the Young Peoples' Society. They will make their home in Windsor, Ont.

At the Y.M.C.A.

Mr. W. G. Raymond was the speaker at the reception at the Y. M. C. A. last evening to clerks in stores, banks and offices, and their gentlemen and lady friends. Fully 500 were shown through the building. The number gathered to hear the address was not so large, however. Mr. Raymond spoke of what constituted happiness, and how to obtain it. The young man should give his mind to useful thoughts. The speaker showed that happiness did not necessarily mean the satisfying of all desires. The desires grow with the satisfaction. The principal of happiness was the control and proper management of desires.

Yesterday afternoon the boys attending the Ryerson and Central schools were shown through the building.

This afternoon the boys attending Victoria, Dufferin and Grand View schools were shown through the association.

Mr. W. F. Whelan, general manager of the Park-Davis Drug Co., Buffalo, will be the speaker this evening at the reception to pastors, men's clubs and brotherhoods, with gentlemen and lady friends. Mr. Whelan is a prominent Buffalo churchman.

The musical program will be provided by the Colborne street church choir. Mrs. Frank Legging will be the soloist.

Peter Miller, awaiting trial in a Toronto jail on a theft charge, walked out while coal was being stored away yesterday.

Women fainted, and men jumped through windows when a Windsor street railway Belt Line car, with 54 passengers aboard, jumped the track near the Grand Trunk embankment last night. At this point the embankment is 30 feet deep.

A REAL SHOWER.

Miss Letta Hutchinson, 148 Brock street, on the eve of her approaching marriage, was the victim of not an ordinary shower, but a veritable rain of kitchen utensils. Those who caused the downfall were the members of Colborne Street Church, choir, 50 strong. It not only rained, but it poured; aluminum, granite and even a rolling pin. The bride to be was made extremely happy, and as hostesses, she in turn made the others at home and happy too. Dainty refreshments were served. A feature of the evening, was a mock marriage. At an early hour the party broke up.

The Late Mrs. Liazier.

It will be learned with much regret that Catherine Sarah, the beloved wife of George Glazier, 21 Sarah St. passed away yesterday afternoon. The deceased was 27 years of age and had been a life long worker in the Salvation Army. She was very actively associated with the local army, was a member of the songsters, and gave her services to many other portions of army work. On Sunday evening a Memorial service will be held in the Citadel.

Besides the numerous friends, there are left to mourn the loss of a fine Christian woman, a husband, three small children, a mother, Mrs. Paling, and two sisters, Misses F. and E., residing with her.

The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon. A short service will be held at her late residence, afterwards a service will be held in the Army Citadel, and interment will take place in Mt. Hope cemetery.

PATRICK HAFEEY.

There passed away this morning Patrick Hafeey a prominent figure in Trades and Labor circles, at the age of 63 years. The deceased was a moulder by trade and was widely known. He had suffered several paralytic strokes and six weeks ago suffered another which confined him to his bed. A grown up family are left to mourn his loss. The funeral will take place Saturday morning from his late residence, 21 Brunswick St. to St. Basil's church and St. Joseph's cemetery.

No Call At Halifax.

HALIFAX, Oct. 9.—It is officially announced that the British Atlantic cruiser squadron will not call at this port. This fleet, consisting of the Suffolk, New York and Lancaster sailed from Devonport for the West Indies.

Canada will present Prince Arthur of Connaught with a gold cup as a wedding gift.

The Managers of the Widows' Home acknowledge with thanks the following donations: Turnbull and Cutcliffe, receipted account, $8.65; C. P. Class, First Baptist Church, bread, butter and ham; Mrs. LaBorde, basket of peaches; Miss Wye, basket of peaches; Mr. E. Kitchen, grocer, basket peaches, basket tomatoes and sugar; Mrs. Barber's Class, Park Baptist Church, tea, coffee, cakes, fruit, jelly and pickles; Mrs. Cameron, basket of plums; Salvation Army, papers and flowers; Mrs. Crawford, tomatoes, flowers and melons; Mrs. George Bailey, cucumbers and tomatoes; Mrs. Thos. Foster, plums and sugar; a friend, plums; Mr. Heyd, corn; Mr. Hartley, onions; Whitaker Baking Co., buns, rolls and cake weekly; Messrs. Minter, Hartley, Burns, Smith and Foulds, Livingston and Wilkinson, B'boxham and Heyd, meat weekly.

Smoking Postmen of Korea.

A decidedly quaint character is the Korean postman, says a writer in the Wide World. You come across these gentry in the morning, delivering the dignity of their office and fulfill their duties in a very quiet and grave manner. In wet weather he dons his "rain clothes" to protect him from the heavy showers. Over his white kaftan he wears a light mackintosh, provided by a thoughtful government, while his head is covered with a waterproof hat made of oil paper. He is further fortified against the wet by an umbrella. Like most Koreans, the postman could not possibly work without his pipe, and as he strolls from house to house he is invariably smoking. The letters are carried in a leather satchel strapped to his back. This individual may be taken as a typical example of the physical characteristics of these interesting people. They are tall—over a head higher than the Japanese—well built and fair complexioned.

When Critics Disagree

Professor "Lunenburg" tells a good story which serves to show that in the matter of poetry critics hold diverse opinions and that one man's opinion is as good as another's. According to the professor, Aubrey De Vere, the Irish poet, collected on the same day the opinion of three of his brother poets on the poetical standing of Burns.

One of these poets, who was Tennyson, said Burns' songs were perfect, but that one had to forget his serious places to enjoy them. The second, who was Wordsworth, said that Burns' "serious efforts" showed great genius, but that his foolish little satirical poems were worthy only of oblivion. The third was Sir Henry Taylor, who said that he found Burns' songs and his serious poems alike tedious and disagreeable.

CLEVER JACK.

"What! You've made up with Jack? Why, I thought you demanded that everything you'd given each other must be returned."

"Well, so I did, but he insisted that we begin with the kisses, and that, of course, the jig was up."

May They All Be Happy

An Englishman residing in Brantford sent for his wife and six children to join him here, and when they arrived in Quebec a week ago they were detained for some reason or other. Some Brantfordites hearing of the matter, at once took it up and five of the children were sent forward, one youngster remaining with the mother. To-day which it is confidently expected will lead to the detained ones coming on here at once.

New Capital Growth!

Two centuries ago the sum of $5 was bequeathed for the education of the children of poor inhabitants of the Lytham. In course of time the fund grew to nearly $300, and this sum was invested by the trustees of the Lytham charities in a plot of land which now forms the center of Blackpool. Within the last fifty years the corporation of Blackpool has paid about $100,000 for the freehold rights of small sections of this estate, and it is believed that in course of time the value of the property owned by the charities will reach $500,000.—London Express.

Naturally.

An American motoring through a small Scotch town was pulled up for excessive speed.

"Didn't you see that notice, 'Dead slow?' inquired the policeman.

"Course, I did," returned the Yankee, "but I thought it referred to your bloomin' town."—London Answers.

Faith, Hope and Charity.

"How did that netter do well manage to live?"

"In hope that if he happened enough faith he might live on charity."—Baltimore American.

Game.

Mother—Now, children, I want you to kiss Miss Lemon goodby. Elder Brother—Come on, Billy, be a sport. It'll be over in a second.—Life.

Man, Petty Man.

Knicker—There's plenty of room at the top. Bocker—Yes, but your wife lets you have only the bottom bureau drawer.—New York Sun.

So She Did.

"Jack proposed to me while turning the music for me at the piano."

"All I see! You played right into his hands."

By the street of Ry and Ry one arrived at the home of Jerry—Carpenter.

The 16th Regiment, Prince Edward County, has been disbanded for the purpose of reorganizing.

May They All Be Happy

An Englishman residing in Brantford sent for his wife and six children to join him here, and when they arrived in Quebec a week ago they were detained for some reason or other. Some Brantfordites hearing of the matter, at once took it up and five of the children were sent forward, one youngster remaining with the mother. Brantford Leads Ladies Aid Association Work

The United Hospital Aid Association for this district, launched in Brantford some five years ago, has proved an abounding success.

The annual meeting took place yesterday in Stratford, and there was an attendance of over one hundred enthusiastic delegates from this city, Stratford, Galt, Berlin, Hespeler, Glenora, Woodstock, Ingersoll and St. Thomas. The local representatives were Mrs. W. C. Livingston, Mrs. F. D. Seville, Mrs. W. J. Wade, Mrs. R. S. Schell, Mrs. W. J. Mitchell of the Senior Aid, and Mrs. Agnew and Miss S. Raymond for the junior association, and Mrs. Bruce Gordon, representing the Tuberculosis Hospital. The ladies were met by autos and most hospitably entertained, the events of the day including a delightful lunch.

At the meeting, much business of a practical nature was transacted, and all of them told of a great and constantly growing interest in the work. Brantford showed to the fore and the very successful methods here have been generally copied by the Aids of other places.

Among other things it was decided to enlarge the scope of the Association by adding other surrounding places.

Mrs. Rankin, of Stratford, was elected President for the ensuing year, and Mrs. Ballantyne of Stratford, Secretary.

That Distant Rasping

"Silence in court!" called the usher fiercely.

"Good gracious," gasped the judge, "what is this noise? It's quite impossible for me to conduct the case amid such an uproar."

The defendant leaned over the side of the witness-box, a broad grin upon his face.

"I don't think there's anything to worry about, my lord," he said. "It doesn't sound to me as though the disturbance is anything more serious than the plaintiff outside filing affidavits."
