BARNES REPLACES HENDERSON;
CABINET CRISIS AVERTEDRetired Labor Member Defends His Position in Debate With Premier;
No Passports for Delegates

London, August 13.—A day of great political excitement in London concluded to-night with the announcement that George Nicoll Barnes, minister of pensions, had been appointed to replace Arthur Henderson as Labor member of the War Cabinet. The appointment, according to a semi-official statement, has the approval of all the other Labor members of the Government.

Thus the crisis which seemed to threaten the existence of the Government was at least temporarily solved, and unless unexpected developments occur there will be no appeal to the country.

Prohibit Passports.
The Government announced to Parliament to-day that the ministers had decided not to grant passports to delegates to the Stockholm international Socialist congress, thereby falling in line with other allied governments in this respect. It is not known whether this decision will be accepted by the major section of the country and by the newspapers.

Mr. Henderson in the House of Commons to-day made an impassioned defense of his position in the conflict that has arisen between himself and Premier Lloyd-George. He entered into great detail on the recent events, but still left much mystery regarding his relations with the premier since his return from Russia.

Impressed House.
Mr. Henderson's supporters contend that the entire misunderstanding has arisen through the Government having previously failed to take a decisive line on the Stockholm conference. They say that had the decision announced to-day been formulated a week ago the entire crisis would have been avoided.

Mr. Henderson impressed the House considerably by showing that the question of his visit to Paris was the subject of a special Cabinet meeting, and much sympathy was aroused in his behalf by his having been kept waiting for an hour outside the doors of a Cabinet meeting, and the fact that he first learned through the columns of an evening newspaper that his resignation had been accepted.

Lloyd-George Differs.
The debate in the House of Commons did nothing to reconcile the conflict of evidence between Mr. Lloyd-George and Mr. Henderson as to the line Mr. Henderson intended to take at last Friday's labor conference. Mr. Lloyd-George maintained that the ministers had received the impression that Mr. Henderson intended to turn down the Stockholm conference while Mr. Henderson denied that he ever had hinted that he would take any other course than that he had followed. He said that he had been asked to state the Government's position to Friday's conference he would have had no alternative but to resign.

The minister spoke with great bitterness of what he characterized as the shameful treatment he had suffered at the hands of the premier.

Admits Fault
He said there was no better press

The Provost Marshal-General has decided that all aliens, exclusive of Germans, may enlist in the new draft army. That will mean that thousands of men in New York city, who have been barred, and who are eager to bear arms against the Kaiser, will be accepted in the draft army.

At Pittsburgh twenty-one Austro-Hungarians, who were examined before the zone draft board in one day, although enemy aliens, refused to accept enlistment and pleaded with the officers of the board to certify them for the new army which is to fight against the troops of their native land in Europe.

bureau than the one controlled by the prime minister. Before he resigned he had a dose of it, and since his resignation he had had an overdose. He admitted that in the hurry of the moment he did not fully explain to the conference the situation as shown in the telegram from the Russian Government, but he had no authority to quote Government despatches and no thought of withholding information which he was entitled to reveal to the conference.

The debate was the occasion of many exciting incidents. Herbert Henry Asquith, former prime minister, wound it up with a tactful speech in which he expressed the belief that the entire Labor party, with the exception of an insignificant minority, was against any precarious peace.

No Serious Split.

Judging from the comment of the lobby correspondents of the newspapers, Mr. Henderson will experience no great sympathy from the general body of Parliament, and there is no great danger of a serious split in the Labor party.

An attempt was made to hold an executive meeting of the Labor party last night, but owing to the impossibility of assembling all the members from the country, it was adjourned until to-day, when the whole situation will be reconsidered. The impression last night was that since the Government refuses to grant passports to the delegates to the Stockholm conference, it will be needless to try to revoke the decision of Friday's Labor conference.

Press Campaign.
Mr. Henderson, in opening his address, complained against the "unprecedented press campaign against myself and the difficulty, if not the impossibility, of finding a precedent in history for the conduct pursued by the prime minister and his colleagues in regard to the case."

"The press campaign," Mr. Henderson continued, "was not perfect. The first I knew that my resignation had been accepted was through The Pall Mall Gazette. After the decision of the Labor conference on Friday I interviewed the prime minister, who made clear that my resignation was incompatible with my remaining in the war council. When I came to a choice only one course was taken."

STRIKE FOR WAR

Messages From Stewart
Lyon and Gen. Currie
Received Here

Toronto Aug. 14.—The following cablegrams have just been received at the offices of the Win-the-War League, from the front:

"France, Aug. 11, 1917
"Quality of troops Canada has sent to battlefields where long struggle to decisive end, adequately. In numbers Canada is not adequately represented. Moreover, there is serious danger that when man-power is most required Canadian forces will be rapidly decreasing. There is urgent need for such a suspension of party strife as will enable men everywhere in Canada to unite for immediate enforcement of compulsory service measures. Sons of Canadian fathers and mothers, who in flower of their youth go out to die in freedom's cause, should be given assurance that filling of their places in ranks is regarded in Canada as solemn national obligation transcending all party ties and rivalries. Men at front confidently look forward to immediate and adequate enforcement of conscription law."
"STEWART LYON."

"France, Aug. 11, 1917.
"Greetings of Win-the-War Convention held at Toronto are much appreciated by all rank and file Canadian Corps. We sincerely sympathize."

with your endeavors to arouse our countrymen to necessity of remaining united and firm in their determination to furnish troops in the field all necessary support. We deplore the fact that wisdom of doing so has become a subject for debate and controversy by those at home, and we have hoped that example of what corps have been able to accomplish by united efforts of men who have already sacrificed so much would serve to inspire rival political factions to sacrifice their party prejudices in this hour of their country's peril. If support is now withheld, or even delayed, it means that additional burden will have to be borne by men already doing the seemingly impossible. The fight must go on until final and complete victory is attained. From agony of battlefields goes forth prayer that our homeland does not desert us in hour of our need and of our approaching triumph.

"GENERAL CURRIE."

FAST TIME.

Quebec, Que., Aug. 14.—Ray McNamara, the famous chauffeur, drove a car this morning from Montreal to Quebec City in four hours and one minute, beating the fastest railway express by fifty-nine minutes. And McNamara did not calculate his time when reaching the city limits, he drove right up to the Chateau Frontenac. He left Montreal at twelve fifty this morning reaching the Chateau at 5.01. On the way he suffered a delay of ten minutes at the ferry boat at Batiscan. The car contained thirty passengers. This fast trip constitutes McNamara's twenty-ninth record. Last week he drove a Maxwell from Toronto to Montreal in 11 hours and 45 minutes.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Tutela Women's Institute held their regular meeting on August 13th at the home of Mrs. Moyie, with Mrs. Hird in the chair.

The meeting opened in the usual way, after which the secretary read the minutes of the last meeting.

A most inspiring paper was given by Mrs. Tomlinson, on "Institutions, Their Aims and Achievements." Miss N. Hargreaves, in her usual gracious manner, gave a couple of readings, which were very much enjoyed.

A paper "Household Economy in War Time" was read by Miss H. Morrison. A collection for Red Cross was taken up, and more yarn was distributed for knitting.

The National Anthem brought a pleasant and profitable meeting to a close, and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The September meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Moffatt, Bow Park.

ON THE TURF

By Courier Leased Wire.
Cleveland, O., Aug. 14.—Owing to the rain yesterday the second North Randall Grand Circuit meeting will open to-day with yesterday's card having been set over one day. There are four events on the card, but chief interest is centered in the 2.09 trot, in which Mack Forbes and the Woodman are expected to settle the question of supremacy. Neither trotter has been defeated so far in the 1917 campaign. The other events carded are the 2.07 pace, purse $1,000; the three-year-old trotting sweepstakes and the 2.17 pace, purse $1,000.

BOYS' SUIT.

By Anabel Worthington.

Little men must be supplied with play-time suits with alarming frequency—their mothers well know—and therefore the simplest and most easily made pattern obtainable is the most sensible choice. No. 8360 is a good looking play suit, sometimes called a beach suit, and it will give splendid service if made of durable material. The blouse section is really a slip-on middie, slashed for a charming distance in the centre front. The neck may be finished with square outline, trimmed with a bias band of the material or the regulation sailor collar may be used. The two useful breast pockets will surely add to his happiness. The trimming band around the lower edge of the blouse will be very effective if it matches the other trimmings. The sleeves may be made long or short. Straight trousers are included in the pattern.

The boys' suit pattern, No. 8360, is cut in three sizes—2, 4 and 6 years. The 4 year size requires 1 3/4 yards 36 inch, with 3/4 yard 36 inch contrasting goods and 1/4 yard 36 inch lining.

To obtain this pattern send ten cents to the office of this publication.

It is different with Herzog, cher Kauff and Zimmerman. Aggressive individuals deserve of the censure that comes their as often they deliberately quarrels and stir up trouble. One of Fletcher's favorite expressions is:

"Drat the ball game—let's get an argument." And it must be that in the art of repartee, Pl has no equal. He wins every conversational battle with ease. Sometimes he is rather sharp and peal and he has been threatened times by both players and fans the field Fletcher is very quiet soft spoken—and very popular one meeting him in citizen's dress would find it hard to believe this is quarrelsome on the diamond.
