Obituary.

The death occurred at Buffalo this week of Mrs. Ellen Birks Wilkes. Her age was 86 1/2 years. Her deceased husband William Arthur Wilkes, an old boy of Brantford, was during his life time well known here. He was brother to James Wilkes, who was known far and wide as Brantford's grand old man. It will be remembered that he was our city treasurer for nearly forty years.

Mrs. Ellen Birks Wilkes was the mother of Arthur B. Wilkes of this city. She was the only sister of Henry Birks the great jewelry merchant of Montreal, and Toronto. This gentleman with his two brothers Frederick and Arthur Birks traded cleared nearly one hundred miles from Montreal to Buffalo and back again to be present at the funeral.

Buffalo papers have this to say of the life in that city during sixty-four years, of Mrs. Ellen Birks Wilkes: "She was especially interested in church, missionary and charitable work. She was active in the Home for the Friendless, and when the Ingleside Home was opened in 1869, she was active in it until her death, serving several times as president. In this connection she would frequently attend the sessions of the early morning court, and often was the means of rescuing unfortunate women. She was also an organizer of the White Light mission, and was known as the mother of that rescue work for men. She was also the real and faithful mother of six boys and six girls. Seven of these children survive here. Four of her sons are well known business men of Buffalo."

IN MEMORIAM

Died January 10th, 1912.
In ever loving memory of our dear son, Bert Barron:
Just one year ago today, Dear Bert, since you were called away, How well we remember, That sad and sorrowing day.
No one knew how sad the parting, Or how the farewell cost; But God and his loved Angels Have gained what we have lost.
In the cold grave, Lies our dearly loved son, We tried our best to save, Never will he be forgotten.
From his heartbroken mother, father, brothers and sisters.
Mr. Redferne Hollingshead, tenor, who has recently finished his studies in Italy, will sing at the Schubert Choir Concert, Feb. 4th.
