A.O.U.W. OFFICERS

P.M.W.—D. Fisher,
M.W.—J. P. Lamb.
Foreman.—W. C. Smith.
Recorder.—Jas. Ross.
Financier.—Irwin Wille.

Treas.—L. C. Alguire. Overseer.—G. A. Lee. Guide.—G. W. Brown.

U.W.—A. E. Green.
O.W.—A. J. Slack.
Trustees A. W. Blanchard,
S. Y. Bullis.

Representative to Grand Lodge A. Lamb; alternate, I. Wiltse.

HONORED IN NOVA SCOTIA

Our townsman, Mr. A. E. Donove has won the esteem and admiration of leading men in Nova Scotia to such an has been asked to accept a nomination for one of the Nova Scotia Counties.

for one of the Nova Scotia Counties."

Mr. Donovan is regarded by many here as "the future member for South Leeds", and with this prospect before him, it seems hardly likely that he will accept a nomination for the Nova Scotia legislature, however much he may appreciate the proffered honor.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

"Farmersville -This village is dec tined to move forward in the march of

'good old days of rustic simplicity" are carefully judged in the light of contem

the regular meeting of Farmers lodge, No. 177, A.O.U.W., held by evening, Dec. 16th, the follow-loors were elected for 1903:—

It has been announced that wede hells are to ring in Athens on the day of the year.

The Athens High School closes Friday of this week, to re-open Monday, 5th of January.

—Fancy house slippers for men and women are nice Xmas gifts. We have them.—T. S. Kendrick.

-Sit early for your photos and have them for Christmas. A special rate is now on at Falkner's gallery, Athens.

During the absence of Mrs. Slack organist in the Methodist church.

—We have hundreds of dainty embroidered handkerchiefs to select from The Baptist Sabbath school Christmas tree entertainment takes place this evening.

What makes a more useful present than a nice fur collar or cap? See our stock.—Kendrick. Mrs. D. M. Spaidal, of Brockville, who had been visiting Mrs. Cornell for a few days, returned home last week. A few days ago, Mrs. F. W. Tribute, while coming up the hill from the woolen factory, fell and broke one Mr. R. Gainford, of Seeley,s Bay, has moved to Athens, and is occupying Mr. Geo. Gainford's house, on Well-

-Don't fail to call and see Fisher's last car load of cutters. They are beauties. In style and finish there is mothing equal to them in the market this year. One day last week, while working with a class of students in the labora-tory of the A. H. S., Mr. Graham, science master, had one of his hands quite badly burned with phosphorus. -When puzzled what to buy for Christmas, visit the furniture store of R. D. Judson & Son. You will probably find both the article and the price

Parties who promised to bring in wood last winter in payment for Reporter subscriptions, but failed to do so, are notified that unless they bring it in before the 1st of January, 1903 they will have to pay the money. -There is nothing more acceptable as Christmas gift than a nice piece of fur piture. A fine line of fancy rock-ers, jardiniere stands and fancy parlor tables is attracting deserved attention tables is attracting deserved

Mr. Arden Parish, of Smith's Falls is in Athens this week. The hockey club are very desirous that he should club are very desirous that he should remain here during the winter and ed. The addresses are of a most help them chase the puck up against the teams of the league that is to be.

This (Wednesday) evening the Re form electors of Athens and Rear Yonge and Escott will meet in the town hall for the appointment of dele-

In the Methodist church, Lyndhurst, on Christmas night, there is to ic. songs, recitations, dialogues etc. be a "good time" entertainment held Everything promises to make the con-in connection with the Sabbath-school. cert a success. The date has been fixed A Christmas tree is to be a feature of the evening, and there will be an interesting programme presented by the

The windows and store-fixtures of Athens merchants now present a decidedly holiday appearance. The the province is saura Copeland has a position as bookkeeper in Brockwille is a position as bookkeeper in Brockwille; Miss Florence Rowsome, as number the purely ornamental, but that person must be hard to suit who cannot supply his Christmas wants

Mr. Justus Bullis and wife, of Watertown, N. Y., sie on an extended visit to relatives and friends in Athens and other points in Ontario. Mr. Bul lis is a son of Mr. Pet r Bullis, an old-time resident of Elizabethtown and Kitley. It is twenty years since he was in this section, but now, having renewed old acquaintances, he announces his intention of attending the annual reunion of the Bullis family at

Last week, the teachers in training at the model school presented the prin cipal of the school, Mr. C. Ross Mc-Intosh, with an address, nicely framed and a fountain pen. The relations be tween the students and their teacher have been very cordial during the term, and in this way they expressed their appreciation of his painstaking and efficient services.

our readers this week a seasonable monies will be served with dinner and poem by Mr C. C. Slack. It breathes the true spirit that everywhere prewails at Christmastide, and we have no doubt it will be welcomed and read ladies have undertaken to provide and doubt it will be welcomed and read with pleasure in many homes, where it lace on Christmas Day.

Mr. M. B. Holmes is this w

A large party of young people spent a few hours very pleasantly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Collins Mullin

Owing to the rush of church work now on at the Methodist church, the annual Sabbath-school Christmas entertainment has been deferred until some time in February.

A Church of England Sunday school conference will be held at Brockville, Tuesday, January 21st, the clergy of the district co-operating. The Bishop will make the opening address. leading men in Nova Scotia to such an extent that they have manifested a desire to honor him with a seat in their legislative chamber. A despatch to the Montreal Gazette says:

"A. E. Denovan, of this city, of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, New York, who belongs to Athens, Ont., her heep carled to accord a nomination.

The 26th annual convention of th Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association will be held at the Assembly Hall: Normal School, Ottawa, on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday January 7, 8 and 9.

Rev. Elber Crummy, M. A., Kingkev. Eiber Crummy, M. A., King-ston, may be called to succeed Rev. F. A. Cassidy, as pastor of Norfolk Street Methodist church, Guelph. He used to labor in Japan. Mr. Cassidy leaves next week for his new work in Japan.

The members of Christ church Sabbath-school will hold their annual Christmas entertainment on the even ing of Thur., Dec 18th. A programme is being prepared and an admission fee of 15 cts. will be charged.

In Grace church, Winnipeg, on the 10th inst., Mr. B, B. Halladay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Halladay, of Deloraine, Man., was married to Miss Young, daughter of Captain George H, Young, of Winnipeg:

Mr. Thomas Beglev, one time em ployed on the B. & W., was accidentally killed a few days ago while working for a telegraph company in the vicinity of Grand Forks, Dakota. He was a brother of Mr. William Begley, fire-man on the B. & W., and his home was at Easton's Corners.

The special services being held in Christ church, Athens, by Rev. F. D. Woodcock, of Trinity church, Brock-practical character, and well calculated to stir up the hearts of people to greater zeal in the service of God.

The members of Addison Church of England Sunday-school are now busy practising for their annual enter tainment, and have been very fortunate gates to the convention to be held in tainment, and have been very fortunate the same place at 1 p. m. on Thursday. er, of Brockville, to help carry out the programme, which will consist of musfor Monday evening, December 22.

-If the success of students in finding situations is any indication of the work done in a business college, the institu tion in Brockville must be the best in Bryant has a position as cashier in Brockville, and Miss Judson has a position as stenographer in New York.

The tea and entertainment given the members of St. Paul's Presbyterian church Sabbath-school on Tuesday evening was one of the most enjoyable events of the week. After partaking of the good things provided by the ladies, a short programme of recitations and songs was given by the pupils. In addition, interesting addresses were delivered by Mr. McIntosh and Rev. Mr. Frizzell, after which an abundance of sweet-meats and candy was distribu ted to the children. The event wa voted a great success by all, the only regret being that it was over.

These are busy days for the ladies of the Methodist church, who are planning and laboring to bring to a successful issue the part assigned to them in connection with the dedication of the new church. Everything is being calculated on a large scale, so it is safe We have pleasure in presenting to to assume that all attending the cere tea in good style from an abundance of the best that can be produced. In adsuperintend the placing of certain furvill serve to awaken such sad, sweet nishings, and all this added to the thoughts as are inseparable from the usual preparations for the holiday amily gatherings that everywhere take season will very fully tax their administrative and executive capabilities.

When the snow is o'er the meadows and the winter air is keen, And the hoar frost draws its pictures on the pane, When the north wind it is sweeping o'er the moorland, through the wand drifting high the fleece snow in the lane, When the evergreens and cedars with their cloaks are drooping low, And nature sleeps in silence everywhere, Then the merry, cheery Christmas comes a stealing with its cheer, And there seems a joyous feeling in the air, When the crispy, frisky season comes to gladen all around, With its kindly ways and deeds of love and cheer, I'm as busy as a chore-boy waiting on the women folks. For it seems the busy time of all the year.

Mother got a tender letter, which she read with moistened eyes, From the children which she loves, now all away. She's committed it verbatim and her heart is full of joy, For they're all a coming home on Christmas day. So, you see, it makes it busy for their mother and for me—Sakes, it keeps me on the canter all the while !— Why, mother she is bobbing 'round the kitchen like a girl, And her face it wears a satisfying smile. She's a mixing up and cooking all the dainty little things, Lands, I wouldn't start to mame the kinds of cake! At night she'll keep me talking 'bout them 'till I fall a sleep, Then wake me up to tell me what she'll make.

She's a buying little trinkets that she sees down at the store, Never asking me how much she ought to pay, I reckon I'll be busted when the holidays are o'er, It's a lucky thing they don't come every day.

Why, I've been a chopping salad and mince meat for a week,

And mother she's a tasting everything,

You would think that she was cooking for the President and staff, You would think that she was cooking for the President and stan, Or getting up a dinner for the King.
I've shut up the biggest gobbler and I've stuffed him for a month, Why I ve fed him till I thought that he would bust,
The pcp corn and the butternuts are drying round the pipe,
And I give the old red cradle too a dust.
For I rather think they'll need it for the letter went to say
That Jimmy's wife had got another boy,
And of course they'll bring him with them, and the other children all They will make the old house echo with their joy.

have looked the apples over, picking out the biggest ones, The mellow snows, the tallmans and the spies,
And moulded maple sugar cakes and hung them in a row
With ribbons blue to catch the youngsters' eyes. And then there is the cider just as sweet as loll-a-pop, And then there is the cider just as sweet as loll-a-pop,
All fresh and pure a running from the mill,
So, putting all together, the youngsters when they come
I reckon that for once they'll have a fill.
Yes, I'm glad the children's coming for to spend the day with us,
And mother's joy, it never could be told,
For it seems as she grows older she loves them all the more,
And likes to have them round her as of old.
When this has been in actions on their behing every one Why, she thinks the sun is setting on their babies every one,
And the cutest little present has for all.
She will smother them with kisses as they flock around her chair,
And run to them at every beck and call.

progress. It contains many 'fast thinking' and strong-minded ladies— ladies capable of throwing off the 'cor-setted' ideas of custom, by adopting the Course, they'll find our heads some whiter and our step a little slow, graceful costume of the bloomer—several having done so. We have great hopes of Farmersville." We perhaps don't feel like kicking quite so high, But our love has grown no colder and we love the children all, They're dear to us as in the days gone by. As they gather round the table, it will take me back to years The above paragraph, which appeared in the Brockville Recorder of fifty years ago, reads very much like what When their prattle through the old house it was heard, When their mother's hair was golden and her face was fair to see, we sometimes hear respecting the ladies in these modern "erect front" And she was young and chipper as a bird. Yes, I'm glad the children's coming to see us once again And I never wanted them to go away,
I've enough to keep them gnawing and supply their little wants,
And I'm going to try and coax them all to stay. days. In every community there always have been "perfect women, nobly planned, to charm, to comfort, and command," and if the ladies of the

to go on record right now"—removing his soggy new hat and saturated coat—

"as declaring I am opposed to these rains that begin on the day before yes-eight dollar trousers, which resembled dishrags. "It wouldn't be so bad," he resumed as he took his shoes off and let the water run out, "if it rained straight down, but when it rains zigners it's time to protest. A dod gasted day like this has no right to be on the

The Monteflore Family.

The late Sir Moses Monteflore, the "grand old man" of the Jews, the modern Moses bringing thousands and tens of thousands out of bondage and pover ty into the land of peace and plentyand really he had his reward, rounding out his century in fine shape, his spiritual eye not dimmed nor his natural day with a chart of his pedigree, show-over 2.000 years, about 200 years before

Wasn't Looking For That Run.

Superintendent of the Railroad Com-pany—So you want a job as fireman,

Superintendent-I'll have to ask you

Applicant—Gee whiz! If you're going to put me on that line, I don't

No Cash.

"No, Uncle George, I haven't got so far as that, but I keep an expense ac-aseful when not well.—Johnson.

a few questions. How far is it to the Applicant—Yes, sir.

want the job.

account?

zag and up and crosswise and cataco

poraneous newspaper chronology, they will be found not to differ materially "In a general way I approve of rains," said the grumpy person when he reached home after a drenching. "They are a fine thing when they come decently and in good order"—as he placed his umbrella where it would drip on the parlor carpet—"but I want from the so-called "new woman."

THE CRADDOCK CONCERT The Y.M.A. of the Methodist church have every reason to be satisfied with the success that attended their concert on Wednesday evening last. The entertainment was under the dire Mr. Craddock, organist of St. John's church, Brockville, and his pupils contributed the musical part of the propramme. Their performance was highly creditable to Mr Craddock's ability as a teacher, and served to confirm the high opinion previously held here in respect to his superior musical talents. All who were present hope to see Mr. Craddock's name appear as a contributor to some musical programme in Athens before the close the season. Those taking part in the programme on Wednesday evening were: Miss A. White, Miss A. Eyre, Miss R. G. Murphy, Miss H. Thompson, Miss Jessie Taplin, pianists; Mrs. S. C. A. Lamb, Miss Woods, Miss Mc-Colloch, Miss Barber, Mr. Thompson, Master Harry Pilgrim, vocalists. Miss Jacobs, the elocutionist of the evening, very favorably impressed the audience with her ability as an entertainer, and was warmly welcomed at each appear thoroughly enjoyed by all present, and another similar entertainment should prove equally successful.

AUCTION SALES

On Friday, Dec. 19, Wm. Kernedy will offer for sale at his farm near Phillipsville, 14 cows, 2 heifers, 4 calves, mare, sow, 7 pigs, vehicles, implements, etc. The farm will also be offered for sale. Sale at 1 p. m. W. H. Denaut, auctioneer.

On Friday, January 2, 1903, Mr. T.R. Moles will offer for sale at his premises, one mile east of Athens, 10 cows, 4 sheep, yearling bull, Hol-stein heifer, heifer calf, brood sow, 4-yr.-old colt, 2-yr.-old colt, vehicles implements, hay, oats, etc., and the farm which consists of about 100 acres. Sale at 12.30 p. m. G. N.

STOPPED THE STORM.

The Snow Was a Little Too Heavy

"Mechanical devices are now made wonderfully real on the stage," said the old stock actor. "It hasn't been so many years ago since even the simple regarded an achievement. I remember on one occasion I was out with a company playing repertoire and in one melodrama—I don't even now recall the name-I took the part of an old man whose daughter, the heroine, had been abducted. I was supposed to be blind, and my strong scene was in the third act, when I went out into a snowstorm in search of my daughter. She was lying in a drift, and as I hobbled across the stage I kept crying: 'Me che-ild! Where is me che-ild?'

calendar"—and so on until he got to "Well, it was early in the season and theater. The scene painters had been at work and had dropped several paint brushes, hammers and other articles into the sheet that held the snowstorm. As the stage hands in the flies shook the sheets to make the snow com out a couple of hammers came down and just missed me by an inch. I was blind and didn't dare to look up, but when a monkey wrench just grazed my temple I had presence of mind enough strength abated—was once taunted with being a descendant of the murderers of Christ. He said nothing at the to yell: 'See yonder moon! The storm over!' The stage hands took their time, but called on his accusers next cue and let up on me, and the audience never stopped to question how a blind man could see yonder moon." ing that the home of his forbears, the "old homestead," had been in Spain for dv'ts of 6 lines and under in this co.umn, 25c for first insertion and 10c each subsequent insertions.

The People's Column.

For Sale.

A very fine organ, also theroughbred jersey calf 3½ months old. Apply to MRB, F. J. GIFFIN. Main Str., Brockville. "Harry, I suppose you keep a cash

Farm for Sale or to Rent

Pt, Lots 13 and 14, Con. 6, Township of Yong To preserve health is a moral and re-100 acres—well watered—gond
100 acres—well watered—gond
Apply on premises or write to
ROBERT ALLINGHAM,
Ather ligious duty, for health is the basis of all social virtues. We can no longer be ow required in all public pieces in the vi Athens, and to fine all person guilty of the same—drunk or s

DR. JACKSON.

Christmas Cheer

A few helpful hints to puzzled pur-chasers of Christmas goods.

FOR THE CHILDREN Toys of all kinds, Dolls, Game

FOR ADULTS

Beatiful pieces of Art China, from 15e up. Handsome Lamps, Vases, etc., and extra value in Glass and China Ware for the table.

IN GROCERIES

We have every requisite for the holiday season—all new and

CONFECTIONERY

See our tempting display in this line which includes -Newport Chocolates, all flavors.

-Fancy boxes Bon-bons. -French Roasted Almonds -Cut Rock & Royal Mixtures.

Nuts of all kinds, Dates, Figs.

G. A. McClary

R. B. Heather,

Bedding Plants, Choice Roses, Carnations and Floral Designs.

Call and be satsfied that this is true. Telephone or mail orders given

R. B. Heather, - Brockville

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY

Christmas and New Year HOLIDAY

Excursion Rates

Single First-Class Fare

Going December 24 and 25. Return mit, December 26, 1902. Going December 31, 1902. and Janary 1, 1903. Return limit, January

First class Fare and One-third Going December 22 to 25, inclusive, also December 29 to January 1, 1903, inclusive. Return limit. January 5th.

School Vacations

First-class Fare and One-third for round trip. Going December 6 to 31, inclusive. Return limit, January 19,

For tickets at above reduced rates and all particulars apply to

G. T. Fulford.

G.T.R. City Passenger Agent Office: Fulford Block, next to Post Office Court House Ave Brockville.

B. W. & S. S. M. RAILWAY TIME TABLE.

GOING WEST		GOING E	181
Mail & Express M		ail & Express Arrives
Read down		R.d	up
P.M.	STATIONS.	A	.M
3.30	. †Brockville	10	.25
8.45	. §Lyn Jct., G.	r.R 10	10
3.55
4.04			46
4.18		9	.34
4.23		9	.27
4 34		. 9	.21
4 54	. §Soperton		.01
5 01		8	.58
5.09	. †Delta	8	47
5.28	. †Elgin	8	.29
5.85	. § Forfar	8	.21
5.42		8	1
	. †Newboro		0
	. †Westport		.51

†Telegraph Stations.

E, A. Geiger,