When the Landlord Raised the Rent

"I never do have any fun," com-plained a young girl petulantly.
"Come with me, and I'll cure your discontent," suggested a visiting nurse of the National Sanitarium Association.

They visited a humble little home.

The mother was struggling to sup-port the three children, while her nusband was fighting tuberculosis at the Muskoka Hospital for Consump-tives.

husband was ngnting tuperculosis at the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives.

Life was not rosy. It became tragic when the rent was doubled. Hopeless despair looked from her brown eyes. Three pairs of childish eyes watching, sensed something to make even baby lips quiver.

"But there!" with a smile, and the bables smilled too, 'I musn't complain. He's getting better anyway. He writes it's wonderful up there—it's saved his life." And the brown eyes were a prayer.

"I've just got to help," exclaimed an enthusiastic young person as she and the nurse walked down the road. Contributions may be sent to Mon. W. A. Charlton 223 College Street, Toronto.

past The banks are doing their best to meet the requirments, but the heavy demands upon them, make it necessary to adhere as rigidly as possible to the short date loan.

A loan for a few mouths, is of little use to the farmer in most cases. When they borrow money for the purpose of buying cattle, machinery, seed, fertil zer, in fact nearly everything connected with the farm, they require that part at least, of the money need, ed, to pay back this lcar, shall be carned by that which was purchased.

LIIE IS DAVED

"School teacher — parents dead. Brought here on a streetler. Good Progress; hope for full recovery."
Such was the meagre record of a patient at the Muskoka Hospital for Consumptives! Meagre, but how full of deep significance!

"I was so frightened," confessed the girl, her blue eyes reflecting the sky overhead, as she lay beneath the pines up there in Muskoka. "I didn't know what to do. I had no money: "Think of it," and she shivered, "I weren't for this hospital. But I'm not," and there was a ring of victory in her worde. "I'm getting well. Oh! I can hardly believe it."

Just a lonely, motherless girl, but how sweet that life given back to her!

ASTORIA

Foods are specially prepared for bables. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common aliments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee.
