But No Real Hope of Settlement Cheers After Second's Report to Principal, M. Witte-Tokio Believes Rupture Inevitable.

Portsmouth, N. H., Aug. 21—The chances of peace have undoubtedly been improved by President Rooseyelt's action in stepping into the breach in a last heroic endeavor to induce the warring countries to compromise their "lifeconcliable differences," but the re-"irreconcitable differences, but the service is still in suspense. The ultimate decision of the issue has defacto if not dejure, passed from the plenipotentiaries to their principals, from Pormouth to St. Petersburg, and, perhaps.

The only thing that can be affirmed positively is that if Russia fefuses to act upon the suggestion or proposition of President Roosevelt the peace conference will end in failure.

It is believed that he told the Ambas sador very frankly that he thought the Russians would make a very grave mistake if they refused to pay the inlemnity now asked by Japan, for the 'pound of flesh" that would be exacted in the event of a failure of these negotiations would weigh a great deal more than sixteen ounces.

Cheered Him Up,
The conference, which was originally intended to last only half an hour, and which continued until almost & o'clock, was evidently quite agreeable to Baron Rosen, in spite of the plain-talk which the President gave him.

In his visit at Sagamore Hill, Baron Rosen's mood underwent a complete change. When he arrived at the J. West Roosevelt dock at 4.15 o'clock, before meeting the President, he was in a very ill humor, and answered only in gruff monosyllables those questions put to him by the newspaper correspondents; but when he departed after his consultation with the executive he was in jovial spirits.

However, in the Russian camp little encouragement is given. Baron Rosen reached here after an all-night ridefrom Oyster Bay shortly before nonyesterday and immediately went into conference with M. Witte. They re-mained closeted together for almost three hours, during which the whole-situation was reviewed. Baron de Rosen communicated to his chief the President's message, and it was trans mitted to the Emperor together with M. Witte's recommendation. No clue to the-nature of his recommendation has transpired, but it can be stated

M. Witte, no matter how he per sonally may view the proposition, is distinctly pessimistic as to the charac-ter of the response which will come from St. Petersburg.

The Japanese as usual are reticent and quiet, and it is impossible to obtain from them the least indication of their view of the change in the situation produced by the President's ac

Toklo, Aug. 21.—The Cabinet met at 11 o'clock yesterday at Premier Katsura's residence. It is understood that Premier Katsura presented an extended resume of the proceedings at Portsmouth and explained the deadlock on mouth and explained the deadlock on the questions. It is generally believed that a rupture of the conference is inevitable. When the Cabinet adjourned at 1 o'clock Premier Katsura drove to the palace and made a report to Emperor Mutsuhito. Lafer the Premier received Sir Claude MacDonald, to whom he granted an extended interview, presumably with relation to the crisis in the peace conference at Portsmouth. Following the call of the British Minster, the Premier conferred with Minster, the Premier conferred with Minster,

MINTO AFTER GURZON

Former Canadian Governor Becomes Viceroy of India.

Bitter Feeling Exhibited Between Lord Curzon and Gen. Lord Kitchener; and Viceroy Could Not Reconcile His Retention of Office. With His Idea of the Policy Which Should Prevail In India.

London, Aug. 21.—The resignation of Lord Curzon of Keddleston as Viceroy of India and the appointment of the Earl of Minto as his successor, was an nounced at the India Office last night.

The Cause of Rupture.

Lord Curzon's dissatisfaction came to a head with the refusal of the Cabinet to appoint Major-Gen. Sir Edmund Barrow, on Lord Curzon's recommen-dation, military supply member of the council. Replying on August 2 to the refusal of Mr. Brodrick, Secretary of State for India to make this appoint ment, Lord Curson requests that the Government reconsider its decision "in order to enable me to accept the re-sponsibility which I inter His Majesty's Government still desires me to as-

Mr. Brodrick again refused to com-ply with the request for the appoint-ment of Major-Gen. Barrow, and Lord Curzon replied as follows:

"It is apparent that His Majesty's Government deny that confidence which alone can enable me to serve them, and attach a fundamentally different interpretation from myself to the modifications, upon the acceptance of which I alone consented to remain in office. The situation therefore re-mains where it was when I resigned in June. If the Government are unable June. If the Government are unable to accept my views, I request the Premier to place my resignation in the hands of His Majesty."

Based On Principles.

To this Mr. Brodrick replied that there was a request from Mr. Balfour that Lord Curzon reconsider his determination. In a final despatch, however, dated August 12, Lord Curzon says:

"The main question is not the choice of individual, but one of the principles underlying a future change in our ad-

I am reluctantly driven to the conclusion that the policy of his Majesty's Government is based on principles that I could not conscientiously carry into execution. In the interests of the new organization it is desirable that I should be relieved of my duties with as little delay as possible."

To this Mr. Balfour himself replied that he had "with the most profound regret submitted Lord Curzon's resignation to the King,"

Claims Non-Support.

George Nathaniel Curzon, first Baron Curzon of Keddleston, is the eldest son of the Rev. Alfred Nathaniel Holden Curzon, fourth Baron Searsdale. Born on January 11, 1859, and educated at Eton and Balliol College, Oxford, he entered public life as private secretary to the late Marquis of Sallsbury. Becoming M. P. for the Southport division of Lancashire, he acted as Under Secretary of State for India in 1891-2, and in the same capacity for Foreign Afin the same capacity for Foreign Affairs in 1895-98. Lord Curzon has traveled extensively in Central Asia, Persia, Afghanistan, the Pamirs, Siam, Indo-China and Corea, and received the gold medal of the Royal Geographical society in 1895. He is the author of several volumes of travels, and on the political situation in the Central and Far East. His wife is a daughter of L. Z. Leiter of Washington, U. S. A.
