LADIES' BIBLE CLASS OF BAPTIST CHURCH

The Ladies' Bible Class of the Wolfville Baptist church held their Social and business meeting on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. J. Ingraham. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Freeman, after which a fine programme was enjoyed by all. Miss Archibald and Mrs. Freeman, missionaries from India, were made Honorary Members of the Class.

The reports submitted showed good work accomplished during the year. The report of the Secretary is as follows: We are about to close our Class for the summer months. This term has been about seven months or thirty Sundays on which we had Class.

Members enrolled: fifty-two. Average attendance: twenty-two.

We have added to our membership roll during this year about ten new members, others have withdrawn and one left the community but we trust our members may increase during the coming year.

The Mite Box has been opened twice during the year. $18.00 was given to Foreign Missions and $5.49 to Grand Ligne. The Class has also furnished flowers and fruit for the sick and flowers for one funeral. $5 was voted and given to a friend on her birthday. This was a special collection.

CLINIC ITEMS

The Class held six social and business meetings during the year. In February a social was held at the home of the President, Mrs. Nowlan, to entertain the Teachers and Officers of the Sunday School.

Much can be said of the Visiting Committee. They made 48 calls and invited 29 to join the Class.

Amount received during the year was $51.10. Expenditures $49.35.

Great credit must be given the teachers for the interest they have taken and in the able manner they have tried to help through the teaching of God's Word.

We feel that God has blessed us as a class and that it is increasing in interest. We trust and pray that greater interest may be manifested and that each member may become more and more interested each time we meet, and let us strive during the coming year to make our class so interesting that our members will not want to be absent, and may the Ladies' Class prove to be a blessing to the community in which we live.

(Mrs.) J. F. CALKIN, Sec.-Treas.

The town of Middleton is putting on a drive to secure money for the equipment and efficiency of its local band. The aim is to secure one thousand dollars for what is a wise and most commendable undertaking.

GREENWICH NOTES

Miss Esther Pearson is still unable to walk much, owing to the sprained foot still giving her trouble.

Mrs. Andrew Fenwick who recently underwent an operation at her home, is now progressing finely toward recovery.

Mr. Arthur Dodge, of Sunnyside, has improved on his woodsawing outfit recently, by attaching it to his tractor, thus being able to do much quicker work and one day last week he sawed the two large wood piles of Messrs. George and Hazen Bishop here in good time. Also he is now able to go from place to place without the aid of a team.

ODD FELLOWS ATTEND ST. ANDREWS CHURCH

Over sixty members of Orpheus Lodge, I. O. O. F., attended service at St. Andrews Presbyterian church last Sunday evening in celebration of the 103rd anniversary of the Order. The Pastor, Rev. G. W. Miller, gave an excellent address on friendship. The choir was composed entirely of members of the Order, and in addition to the congregational singing Mr. A. J. Mason sang a solo in his usual pleasing manner, and a quartette composed of Messrs. Mason, Frank Murphy, T. Stackhouse and Fred Rand rendered a selection which was much enjoyed.

Some men will get up at 1 o'clock in the morning and run to a fire who can be induced to get up at 7 o'clock to start the furnace.

WARREN ST. CLAIR GARRISON

The sad news has been received by Mrs. Otto Porter, Wolfville, of the death of her only brother, Warren St. Clair Garrison, who passed away at his home, Indian Harbor, April twenty-ninth, after a long and lingering illness borne with Christian fortitude.

Two and one half years ago the deceased spent six months at the Sanatorium, Kentville, and hope was cherished for a time; but early last Autumn he began to fail, death claiming him at the early age of twenty-one years.

He is survived by a sorrowing mother and three sisters, namely: Lillian at home, Mrs. Lloyd Hanson, Halifax, and Mrs. Otto Porter, Wolfville.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, interment at St. Peter's cemetery. Rev. Thomas Pilkington conducted the service.
