CHILDREN RAISE HANDSOME SUMS

People Respond Generously to Mute Appeal of Belgian Infants

The results of the Children's Day campaign for funds for starving Belgian children have been highly gratifying. Reports were published last week from various schools, in one instance more than $100 having been raised. Better still is the report from Lower Brighton, where an entertainment was held on Monday evening and more than $130 raised. The social at Somerville on Nov. 3 was for the purpose of raising money for this project and more than $30 resulted. Upper Brighton, a small district, raised a surprising sum of more than $100 at a basket social.

At Hartland on Friday evening the school gave a concert that showed splendid returns, the sum of $112.75 being realized. The Star Theatre was packed to the doors and the audience was thoroughly satisfied with the program, which follows:

Chorus—King and Country.
Dialogue—Women's Aid Society.
Piano Duet—Kathleen Keady.

Julia Birmingham,
Intermission. Sale of candy.
Short Play—Scene I.

Quartet—Khaki, four girls.
Scene II.
Solo—Nellie Nixon.

Scene III.
Quartet—E. C. Morgan, Mrs. F. A. Aiton, Mrs. A. Y. Dickinson, A. Y. Dickinson.

Scenes IV and V.
Solo and Chorus—Soldiers of the King (Miss Jewett, soloist).

God Save the King.
Tonight Florenceville Consolidated School gives a big entertainment, and Victoria school also puts forth its endeavor. Last evening the Rockland school held a concert with splendid results.

The program for the Florenceville concert is as follows:

Chorus—The King will be proud of Canada.
Recitation—The Part Belgium has Played in the War. Muriel Hunter.

Remarks by the Chairman.
Solo—Break the News to Mother—Mrs. P. R. Semple.

Recitation—Bravest of the Brave—Annie Peters.
Chorus—The Girl who is Yours while You are Away.

Recitation—The Fighters—Robert Ross.
Violin Solo—Destinie—Miss Amy Tompkins.

The Odyssey of Egbert Higgins—Mrs. Claude McCain.
Girls' Chorus—Where is My Boy To-night.

Nursery Rhymes—Primary Children.
Piano Duet—Miss Stella Hunter, Miss Crystal Davis.

Dialogue—The Ruggles Family, Act I.
Intermission—Sale of Home-made Candy.

Dialogue—The Ruggles Family Act 2.
Chorus—Where the English Channel Flows.

Reading—Great Britain in Peace and War—Ralph Perkins.
Solo—One Hundred Years from Now—Eldon Hunter.

Recitation—The Kiss in School—Gordon Dow.
The Gossips.

FLORENCEVILLE NEWS

Baptist's Raised $400—Red Cross Realizes over $100

Mr. Belyea of Smithtown was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Cook Boyer, last week.

Mrs. Weyman of Woodstock was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles Boyer, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Long, formerly Viola McCain, of Vancouver arrived home a few days ago to spend the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCain.

R. W. Demmings of Aroostook Junction was in the village on Thursday.

Mrs. St. George Gray spent a few days last week with friends at Jacksonville.

The U.B.W.M. Aid Society observed Crusade Day Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Holland Estey. A program consisting of readings, a solo by Mrs. Gray, and report of District Meeting at Woodstock was given by Mrs. Estey, and of the convention at Bridgetown by the District Secretary. The offering amounted to $3.60.

The Red Cross supper which was held Nov. 4 was a decided success. Proceeds amounted to over $100.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sewell of Rockland were guests of Mrs. Hayward on Wednesday.

Mrs. Richard Currie of Beechwood has been the guest of Mrs. W. Taylor.

Mrs. S. D. Ross returned on Monday from Marlboro, Mass., where she has been spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Merrill.

The Baptist church which has been undergoing repairs for the past few weeks will be reopened on Sunday, Nov. 26. Services afternoon and evening. Rev. J. B. Ganong of St. John will be one of the speakers.

The church and congregation of the United Baptist church at East Florenceville held an at home on Friday evening when voluntary offerings about $400 was given. This, with what was on hand liquidated the debt on the church.

The Youth's Companion Calendar

The Publishers of The Youths Companion are presenting, as always at this season, to every subscriber whose subscription is paid for 1917, a Calendar for the new year. It is decidedly unusual, and strikingly artistic. The colors are well chosen and richly blended. It was made primarily, however, for actual use, and is well named the Practical Home Calendar.

Reading—The Marble Dream—Mrs. G. A. Ross.

Chorus—Good Luck to the Boys of the Allies.

Solo—In Old Madrid—Mrs. R. S. Semple.

Fancy Scarf Drill—Girls.

Chorus—Keep the Home Fires Burning.

KILLED IN ACTION

Sad Message from the Front—Letter from Lee Dyer

Last week Jarvis Hayward received a letter announcing that Horace S. Hall, an English boy who lived with him for several years, had been killed in action. Young Hall was about 18 years of age and Mr. and Mrs. Hayward regarded him as a son. The letter follows:

"I am sorry to tell you that the young man who once lived with you, Pte. Horace S. Hall of the 58th Batt., was killed in action on Oct. 8. Sgt. James Craig of the 13th Batt., who lay in the same shell hole, wounded, was with your friend when he died. He was brought in this morning and gave me your address as Hall requested. Your friend died a hero's death—a death at the farthest point of an unsuccessful advance made by his battalion right at the enemy's barbed wire.

I am sure you will be proud of his memory as one who gave himself in the cause of truth and freedom. May God comfort you and all his friends.—Louis W. Moffit, Capt., Chaplain 15th Can. Batt.

Hall enlisted with the 55th and was drafted into the 58th.

Last week Mrs. Edward Gillin received a letter from her former home in Scotland informing her of the death of her brother, Pte. John Girvan. He was with the 1st Black Watch.

Lee Dyer is in as hopeful a mood as in his previous letter.

Mr. Dyer says in a letter to The Observer: "I wish to thank the ladies of Windsor for the fine box of cake, socks, gum, tobacco, cigars, candy, nuts and a jar of butter. It was all in fine shape and much appreciated. The butter is the first I have seen for over a year. The ladies who sent the things were Mrs. Jesse Tedford, Mrs. H. L. Dickinson, Mrs. E. A. Britton and Mrs. W. C. Forrest. The socks were good and I shall soon use them and when I crawl in my dugout some cold night I will think of you all.

I expect to go back to France in a month. Am getting quite all right and hope to help a little bit more, and I wish all good people of good old Carleton county the best of luck if I never see you again.

I was at Caesar's Camp the other day and saw most all the Carleton county boys in the 115th and 140th.

Fred Boyer of British Columbia, formerly of East Florenceville is here with the B. C. Pioneers.

The war may stop before another cold winter, but we don't want to talk any peace until the Huns have paid for the spilt blood and broken hearts.

I believe all you wives and mothers are proud of the boys who are here. Cheer up; Big Willie and little Willie will be like broken-legged pups before the autumn of 1917. Goodnight, Lee Dyer.
