

LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

The Observer asks every reader to help make this page interesting by contributing any local news or personal items they may know about. The editor must depend on the parties interested to supply items for this page. Don't hesitate to send personal news concerning yourself and your family, we want them all. Don't blame the editor if what you expect to see is not here if you have not yourself taken the pains to see that the office was informed of the item. Anything in the nature of advertising appearing in these columns must be paid for at the rate of 5 cents a line. This applies to Cards of Thanks, Announcements of Meetings or Societies, For Sale, Wanted, Lost, Found, etc. Charred items will be 10 cents a line. Better send the money with the item, counting six words as a line. No advertisement less than 50.

Now, bring in your pansies and things!

Mrs. Arthur McLaughlin was here over Sunday having come to attend the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hurley.

Miss Lucella Pearson of Perth has been visiting her home at Upper Brighton and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McPherson at Hartland.

Ivan Nixon who returned from Boston last week left on Monday for the Restigouche where his father is carrying on lumber operations.

Miss Edna Pearson, who has been serving as a deaconess with the Presbyterian church at Sudbury has returned home and will remain at Upper Brighton for a time.

The Blue Bird Class (little girls) of the Methodist church were recently entertained at supper at the home of their teacher, Mrs. G. E. McInley, whom they presented with a fine box of stationery.

Miss Emma Henderson of this town and Miss Jean Miller, Hartland, will leave on Wednesday for Pittsburg, Pa., where they will spend a month, after which they will visit other parts of the United States and Canada.

To stop your ad is to take down your sign. To stop advertising—if you are still in business—intimates to your customers that you are indifferent to their custom, that you do not consider it worth going after.

C. E. Allen of Hartland has barbered over thirty years; has crossed this beautiful continent four times; never lit a cigarette or taken a chew of tobacco, and never was under the influence of liquor in his life. Beat that if you can!

Last week The Observer ran a three line ad calling for wood. By Saturday evening there were eight responses and the shed was filled with good 16-inch hard, seasoned slabs at $10 a measured cord, the asking price. Some wanted $14. But "it pays to advertise."

A quiet wedding occurred at the United Baptist parsonage, Hartland, on December 12, 1923, when Gordon W. Ebbett of Lansdowne and Miss Mya Greer of East Coldstream, were united in marriage by Rev. G. F. Bolater. The bride and groom were unattended, and only immediate relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Ebbett will make their home with Mr. Ebbett's mother, Emma B. Ebbett, at Lansdowne.

Fifteen degrees below this morning. Ivan Nixon returned from Boston last week.

H. B. Bailey of Fredericton was here on Saturday.

Sidney Hagerman has been appointed caretaker of the river bridge in place of Allen Bradley, deceased. The appointment meets with popular approval as it is generally conceded that he will attend to his duties faithfully.

J. E. Donkin and family have moved to Fairville where they will in future make their home. This family have lived here for about ten years and have many friends in town. Mr. Donkin is an expert meat-cutter having served a full apprenticeship in England.

A. A. Watters and family have moved to Fredericton where they will in future make their home. Mr. Watters some time ago sold his island property to Judd McGee and last week he disposed of his Ashland farm to Oscar Shaw. Mr. Watters' family will be missed from the community but they will have the good wishes of the friends left behind.

Early in January will appear the first issue of a monthly publication called The Woodstock Doanery Magazine. It is sponsored by the clergy of the deanery and is for the general benefit of Church members. The magazine will have 20 pages and cover and will contain besides the news of each parish a great deal of interesting and helpful reading for the family. Its subscription price is only 50 cents a year, and every Anglican minister takes subscriptions, or they may be mailed to Rev. W. P. Haigh, Hartland.
