ALL SAINTS'

Annual Christmas Entertainments on Friday and Saturday.

Last Friday and Saturday the Sunday-school children of All Saints' church held their Christmas entertainment and distribution of prizes. The main school met at 7.30 on Friday evening and greatly enjoyed the programme consisting of recitations, songs and instrumental music and a musical drill furnished by members of the school.

Messrs. Linger and Thos. Harley added greatly to the enjoyment of the children by exhibiting time-light pictures illustrating Dick Whittington, John Gilpin and "How the Victoria Cross was Won," the narrative being given by Mr. Harley.

Ven. Archdeacon Forrester distributed a large number of prizes, many of them being beautiful bibles and prayer-books. The rules of the contest were to give two prizes in each class to the scholars obtaining the highest marks for general proficiency. A very pleasing feature of the evening was the giving of Christmas remembrances to four teachers viz. Misses A. Hill, Curtis and W. and H. Snider, by members of their respective classes.

On Saturday at 5 p.m. the Primary class had their luncheon in the shape of a tea, a programme and a Christmas tree with a real live Santa Claus to pluck and distribute its fruit.

Miss Buskard, their indefatigable teacher, was in her element looking after her little charges, of whom there were a hundred present. Miss Thompson, at the head of her class, the Daughters of the King, had undertaken to dress the dolls for the tree and to help generally and this left nothing to be desired, and it was unanimously resolved that the infants' entertainment was one of the very best ever held in All Saints' Sunday-school.
