CHURCH UNION.

By a vote of 160 to 42 the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church has accepted the declaration of the joint committee that a practical basis of union has been arrived at.

There is perfect agreement that a union of the churches which would result in a real blending of interests would give strength and conduce to great economy of effort in the work they are trying to do.

dirty, germ-laden article and filter out the dirt and boil the germs to death and consume it together with the resultant products of the bacteriological process.

We are not driven to that extremity. A few things are necessary to a pure milk supply. They are: Healthy cows. Good food and stabling. Sanitary surroundings. Cleanly handling.

The plan in detail is to have the cows brought to the city and placed under supervision of experts in a municipal stable for inspection. I do not mean that the cows are to be owned by the city.

The nearer the animal is to a consumer the shorter will be the lapse of time between the yielding and the consumption of the milk and the effects will be infinitely better.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It costs $3 for a confectioner to violate the Sunday law by selling candy in Kingston. Here the cost is $20.

HAMILTON MILK SUPPLY.

The question of a pure milk supply is one of the importance of which the public mind is becoming properly aroused.

Now the power monopoly organ has begun a campaign to bulldoze the abolitionists. Does it hope to succeed by such tactics?

The troops at Niagara Camp are to have more target practice. That is in the line of progress. The useful soldier must be a good marksman.

What of the ethics of the Council that engaged an engineer to give evidence in a case on the understanding that his fee was to be so much, if it succeeded in its case?

The Imperial Press conferees seem like so many feathers on the war scare torrent. Only a few of them appear to be able to maintain a calm reasoning attitude.

The annual exhibition of the Art School should call attention to the fact that the city is in danger of losing this excellent institution, unless public sentiment makes itself felt in its behalf very soon.

Serious as was the accident at the Soo canal, its importance is but slight compared with the grave danger to life which was narrowly averted. The interference to traffic, however, will probably be serious.

Although the Ontario Government two years ago authorized a bounty of 6c a pound on refined nickel either in the metal or oxide, no claims have yet been made on the $60,000 a year set apart for the fund.

Obviously many of the lurid British war scare yarns telegraphed to the Canadian public are just as silly inventions of the news fakir as the story that Canada had ordered a $25,000,000 navy to be built in Great Britain.

The Association of Baptist Churches deplores the prevalence of intemperance and race-track gambling. Probably, however, a few stiff fines, and a few exemplary jail sentences would have more effect than any number of deploring resolutions.

The London Free Press, which lives to glorify Adam Beck, now admits that the Hydro scheme "is not without its hazards." What do the Hydro touters care for that?

The Toronto Telegram has a queer notion of the functions of the courts. It enquires of the G. T. P. and C. P. R. if these railways "expect to get much sympathy from the Supreme Court at Ottawa or the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in England."

The Washington authorities are wrestling strenuously with the problem, "What is whiskey?" The Solicitor-General has been called in to settle the matter, and he holds that whiskey, the drug, is identical with whiskey, the beverage.

Interesting, isn't it, to hear the London Free Press, a warm Hydro advocate, warning the municipalities, Hamilton in particular, that the Hydro scheme is an undertaking "enormously great, and is not without its hazards!"

The eminent jurist of the Hamilton Herald reads so much legal romanticism into the decision of Mr. Justice Anglin which "dismissed with costs" the suit of Smith attacking the power contract with the Cataract Company that we really cannot accept without reserve his sweeping allegations as to the contract's invalidity.

Aldrich and his fellow tariff-framers of the United States contend that a protectionist country is a country of highly paid labor; yet, oddly enough, they contend, also, that protectionist Germany must be discriminated against because of the cheapness of her labor.

The people are already discovering how they were misled by the Hydro organ and touters for the scheme. There is no competition provided for. There can be none, unless the ratepayers vote a very large sum of money to build a distribution system.

Hamilton pines for a Board of Control. So does Montreal. What does this mean? That smaller bodies, and active, will attend to the people's business as it is not being attended to by the Councils.

The dog owners in Hamilton are in terrible trouble and some of them are writing fearfully pathetic letters to the papers about the poor dogs and the treatment meted out to them by the dog catchers.

It appears to surprise a great many people who voted for the Hydro-Electric power when they are told that a contract with the Commission cannot affect the price of house-lighting or even give the much-talked-of "competition" unless a very large sum is provided to pay for a distributing plant.

One, Frank Miller, a hotel-keeper of Stouffville, has issued a writ against Chief Justice Meredith, claiming a penalty of $500 under an Imperial statute, for refusing a writ of habeas corpus to the plaintiff who is serving a sentence of four months, imposed for a second offence against the Liquor License Act.

When Principal MacKay and several other prominent ecclesiasties were returning home one night in Hamilton after a weighty session of the Assembly, the street car conductor thrust his head inside the door and inspected them carefully.

"Church Union, Heh!" he remarked, bitterly. "Cut it out. Cut it out. One of these days some guy will come along and invent a new religion. Then you will have had all your work for nothing."

DO YOU KNOW IT? Mystic Order of Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm. Worcester, Mass., June 10.—Nearly 1,000 delegates from many parts of the United States and Canada have assembled in this city for the twentieth annual session of the Supreme Council of the Mystic Order of the Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm, which was opened here to-day.

WHY HAS IT? Mrs. Adam Herber, of Eldmale, Mich., a subscriber to the Times for 25 years, in sending in four years' subscription to her favorite paper, writes: "Years ago there appeared in the Times a pathetic poem entitled 'Broken-Hearted.' It had been found in a woman's work basket, and begun thus: 'You said you loved my artleseness, My manner, frank and wild; You loved me as I was When I was but a child.'"

Three vessels arrived in Halifax on Wednesday loaded with fresh mackerel, the total catch aggregating 60,000 fish. Waters along the coast are teeming with fish, and some of the fishermen are reaping a harvest.
